

To the Electors of Grey-Bruce :

For fourteen years I have represented the constituency of South-East Grey in the House of Commons. During that time I have sought earnestly to serve my constituency and the interests of the rank and file of Canadians.

I am particularly interested in Agricultural and Labor problems and possibly at the moment especially in the money question, since I believe, that a privately controlled and scarce money policy is a root cause of our difficulty.

I have consistently worked for peace and against war, and now stand against participation in the European and African wars, unless and until a vote of all the people twenty-one years of age and over should decide otherwise.

The mercantile class in a constituency such as this, has also been having difficult times. They have been crushed between the monopolistic corporations from which they buy and the giant distributive agencies, their competitors, which largely determine their selling price.

The business of government is changing and after having given special privileges to the Big Fellow for more than a generation, the government finds it must now prevent the small man (farmer, laborer, merchant, small manufacturer) from being gobbled up entirely by the financial, industrial and distributive monsters of today.

I do not pretend never to have made errors, but I do claim never to have made them intentionally. I have always put the interests of my constituents before my own, and should I be elected on the fourteenth of October as Member for Grey-Bruce, I will continue to serve the new constituency as I did the old.

Yours very sincerely,

Agnos C. Macphail

A lady judge at a fall fair contest found a piece of cellophane still sticking to the icing and bearing the Christie trademark. Exhibitors of home-made baking should be more careful in advertising the factory stuff.

KNOX CORNERS

Quite a number from Knox attended anniversary services at Varney on Sunday. Mr Falconbridge of Drew, had charge of the services. In the evening he took for his subject, "where do I stand" and gave a good message. We may have had religious experiences but by missing opportunities to share them with others we may have grown lukewarm in God's service and we know the condemnation in the bible to all such. We must get out and out for Jesus for He will accept no half-hearted service.

A full choir with Mrs Elmer Fee as organist, had an anthem at each service and in the morning Mrs. Freeman of Teeswater sang a solo. Mr and Mrs Hubert McDougall of Holstein and Mr and Mrs McDougall Sr. visited on Sunday with Mr and Mrs Bert Watson.

Mrs W Porter Jr and Orville visited last Wednesday with Miss Byers. Visitors with Mr and Mrs Arthur Petty on Sunday were Mr and Mrs. Timmins and daughter Marjorie of Markdale, also Mrs Falkingham and Miss Clara Gordon of Egremont.

Miss Eleanor Marshall of Shelburne spent over the weekend at her home. Misses Maud and Margaret Storrey and Miss Margaret Petty of town, visited on Sunday with Mr and Mrs James Petty.

Mrs John Marshall Sr., Mrs Wallace, Mrs Mearns, and Mrs C. McAlister attended an executive meeting of the W.M.S. in Mount Forest on Tuesday afternoon.

Mrs Andrew Picken attended anniversary services at Varney Sunday, and visited with Mr and Mrs Wm. Bogle and Mrs Bogle Sr.

Miss T. E. Byers visited Sunday afternoon with Mr and Mrs Jos Lennox and attended the evening service at Varney. Other visitors at the same home were Mr and Mrs Robt. Aitken of Holstein, Mr and Mrs Frank Forrester, son and daughter of Mount Forest; Mr Earl Meau and Mary, and Mrs Mack; Mr and Mrs Reg. Ramage; Mrs Dawson Marshall visited on Sunday with her parents at Varney, and a tended anniversary services.

On Sunday and Monday last, Varney United church started on a new era in church history. Last year they marked their golden jubilee with such success and one year of the second era has now passed. As special speaker on this occasion, Rev. G. Falconbridge of Drew, was chosen, and all who heard him were pleased with his exposition of Divine truth. Mrs Elmer Fee was at the organ and led the choir in two fine anthems. Mrs Wm. Freeman, Teeswater, rendered a solo at the morning service.

NEAR TRAGEDY BECOMES A COMEDY WHEN HEARSE ARRIVES

It was a mere co-incidence, but it caused a smile, and what might have been a serious fatality was turned into a bit of comedy, states the Creemore Star, at least for the spectators.

The scene was two miles east of Duntroon early Monday morning. Two motor cars collided and were badly smashed. Eight passengers were picked up and were surprised to find themselves whole and practically unharmed, when along came Mr Hood, Creemore undertaker, with his hearse.

A passenger in one of the cars saw the humor of the situation and remarked, "This looks like real service." Incidentally Mr. Hood was on his way to Collingwood for a body.

Kellogg Co. offer Prizes

Through the generosity and co-operation of the Kellogg Company $10,000 in cash prizes will be awarded in one of the most unusual contests ever to be announced.

Very few children on the continent are not familiar with the voice of Irene Wicker, the voice behind the mike when "The Singing Lady" program goes on the air five nights of the week. For more than five years she has been telling youngsters charming stories, both new and old—stories which have won for her a juvenile audience beyond estimate.

Now she's searching for new ideas and she wants plots for new stories, suggestions which can be used to improve "The Singing Lady" program; letters telling her the kind of stories that children like best; what type of characters they want for their heroes and heroines. For the best of these there are substantial cash prizes starting with a grand prize of $1,000 a second of $600, a third of $400, 10 more prizes of $100 each, 20 more of $50 each and 1,000 prizes of $5 each.

Prizes will be awarded for the letters that are the most helpful to the Singing Lady. Any one of three types can win: (1) a letter with ideas for new stories; (2) a letter telling what kind of stories children like best; (3) a letter giving constructive suggestions and ideas for the Singing Lady programs.

Be sure you put your grocer's or store manager's name on your letter. If you win one of the big prizes here will win one too. Send your letter to the Singing Lady, Kellogg Company of Canada, Ltd., London, Ontario.

MAPLE

Lorne Henderson and Harold Bliton set up at Clarksburg to help harvest the apple crop which is very good up there this year.

Russell Drimmie, Archie Row, Kenneth Alles spent the weekend in Toronto, Russell visiting his sister, Edith who is nursing in a private hospital.

Thomas Henderson who has been in Toronto for the past year returned home last week.

Jack Long of Orangeville spent a few days last week with his parents here.

A number from here took in the nomination in Durham last week. Three candidates were nominated, but only two appeared. We wonder why one candidate made himself so conspicuous by his absence. A personal explanation might help to clarify the situation. The election is rather too close for any doubts to exist without creating an adverse effect.

Mrs Clayton Wittick and little daughter of London is visiting her sister Mrs J. D. Drimmie.

The Liberal Policy

To regard unemployment as Canada's most urgent problem, to deal with unemployment as a national problem, and through the agency of a representative national commission to co-operate with the provinces and municipalities in the administration of unemployment relief and in an endeavor to provide work for the unemployed;

To the enactment of a constitutionally valid system of unemployment insurance, and, as rapidly as the financial position of the country warrants, its expansion into a general scheme of social insurance, including health insurance as well as Old Age Pensions;

To policies which will liberate and expand our external trade, upon which depends industrial and commercial recovery;

To the liberation of internal trade, by ending artificial price control and price fixing, which restricts and hampers trade internally;

To the development of primary industries, by reduction in the costs of instruments of production;

To the restoration of control by the State over currency and credit, through the reconstruction of the Bank of Canada;

To the establishment of an investment control board;

To the maintenance of the integrity of the Canadian National Railways;

To the democratization of industry, through policies which will seek to give to workers and consumers a large share in the government of industry;

To the restoration of responsible government;

To the re-assertion of personal liberty, and the right of free speech and free association;

To measures of electoral reform, to ensure a true parliamentary representation of the people, and to reduce the cost of election campaigns;

To a balanced budget;

To retrenchment of public expenditures;

To reduction of the principal and interest on the public debt;

To an enquiry into federal, provincial and municipal costs of government;

To a furtherance of international peace and the work of the League of Nations;

And to a more equitable distribution of wealth, which will have regard to human needs, to the furtherance of social justice, and the promotion of the common good.

Vote Liberal - Vote Dr. Hall

The election news is drawing to a close and after next week, will be a passing game for another five years. What will be the next event to fill the pages of the daily press?

The world-series baseball games are over for another year, and the honors go for the first time to Detroit. Canadian Rugby is now uppermost in Toronto sporting pages.

Proud manager: "I say, these goods of ours are fine, aren't they?" Visitor: "Oh, they're all right, but they couldn't hold a candle to our goods."

Manager: "What! How's that?" Visitor: "We make gunpowder."
