PRICEVILLE AND VICINITY

PRICEVILLE
Mrs Fred Karstedt was bereaved by the death of her mother on Sunday, Mrs. Ada Sitzer Fleming, who passed away at her home, 59 Pine Crescent, Toronto. She was a former resident of Owen Sound, where her husband conducted a book store. They moved to Toronto 15 years ago. She is survived by her sorrowing husband two daughters, Mrs. Karstedt of Priceville, and Miss Eva at home, and one son Harvey, in Toronto.

After a pleasant visit, not only to himself, but to the many he visited for some two weeks, Mr John Mc-Linn left for his home at Midnapore, Alberta, on Saturday. Some thirty or more years since he moved there, he sees many changes in that time.
The happy occasions in years gone by, in our own experience, were fondly recalled with him. His friends, hosts, of them, will be pleased to know, he is looking and feeling well.
Any traveller, we feel assured, will meet with a royal reception of kindness and hospitality. We recall with pleasure, the genuine loving send-off to him and his wife, many years ago at St. Columba services Sunday, Walter Elliot of Saskatoon, accompanied by his son-in-law and his wife Mr. and Mrs. Bert Chapman (nee Jean). Miss Marion Muir, teacher at Oro Station, and Miss Sadie Mc-Kinnon, Toronto, were also up over the memorial holiday.

Litt's Misses Shirley Parker and Barbara McKee, Toronto, were recent visitors with their grandparents Mr and Mrs Ed. Everist.

Mrs D. G. McLean left the first of the week to spend the winter in Toronto with her daughter and other friends.

Mr Neil Shortreed, banker, of Kes-wick, with his wife, spent memorial day here with his parents, Mr. and Mrs Robert Shortreed.

Mr. Mattie McConkey's car, left here, has been repaired by brother-in-law, J. C. Harrison, and shipped to him in Detroit, or near by.

The proposed S. S. entertainment at the Ebenezer appointment has been definitely cancelled on account of a recent sorrowful death in the locality. This is well and highly commendable.

Miss Ella Eckhardt and Mr J. Ran-die joined heart and hand on Wednesday last, and will take up residence on Egremont townline, near Ebenezer.

The new site of the skating rink just north of the monument, in Mrs Buckham's orchard, has been by many willing hands, all levelled by scrapers and grader. A well at the side is planned for. Mr W. G. McBride, the energetic promoter and planner, desires through these columns to express his warm and thankful appreciation of the hearty response made by young and old in the completion of the work.

Further improvements are being effected in Karstedt's store in the making of a fine display counter. Improvements during the past year are worthily notable, and rank the store with those of Toronto. Mr. Elmer Watson is the efficient builder.

The union prayer meetings are not as yet crowded. It is quite desirable, dear readers, that they be better attended, for the good of the country, the town, and oneself. The next and fourth meeting will be held in St.
Columba on Wednesday night at 8.00 p. m.

The Women's Institute met Thursday afternoon at the home of Mrs.
J. P. McMillan. The meeting opened by singing the Institute Ode and repeating the Lord's Prayer in unison.
Mrs MacMillan presided and was elected president of the Society, the former president having resigned.
After the business part of the meeting Miss Catherine O'Neill favored the audience with two delightful solos. Mrs Jack Whyte gave a very helpful paper on the motto "a stitch in time saves nine." Miss Beatrice Watters gave a splendid instructive paper on "our dominant mood," describing each kind of mood. The meeting closed by singing the National Anthem and a social half hour was spent while a dainty lunch was served by the hostess and her assistants.

Rev's Johnston and McDonald, Mr and Mrs H. B. McLean and daughter Anna, Mr and Mrs W. W. Ramage, went to Flesherton Monday morning and paid tribute to the honored dead by their presence at the Remembrance Service held in the United Church.
Both ministers led in prayer, Rev.
Miller of Markdale giving the address. Rev. Wolstencroft read the scripture and gave the benediction.
Rev. Scott announced. Two minutes silence was observed, the last post sounded, and "God Save the King" closed a fine service.

Mr and Mrs Jack Parker, Miss M.

For the occasion the bride wore a becoming gown of blue silk crepe.
Her coat was of blue tree bark with matching accessories.

Immediately following the ceremony, Mr and Mrs Randall left on a short motor trip to Kitchener, Elmira, Fergus and other points. On their return they will reside in Egremont.
