PRICEVILLE AND VICINITY

PRICEVILLE

The annual St. Andrew's banquet will be held on Tuesday, December 27 at 8.30 p.m. in Priceville Presbyterian church. Admission 40c. and 25c.

We are sorry to report the deaths this week of Miss Isabel Laidlaw, (a sister of the late Mrs. John Mather). She had been in Durham hospital for some time. The corpse was brought to the home of Miss Lizette Mather, where the funeral service was conducted Monday by Rev. N. McDonald, assisted by Rev. J. W. Johnston, before leaving for Hampden cemetery where her deceased relatives lie.

Also that of Mrs. Peter McDonald who had not been in good health for some time back. Her funeral was held on Tuesday at 2 p.m. to McNeill's cemetery here, the Rev. N. McDonald officiating at house and graveside. Mr. W. G. Watson was the funeral director on both occasions.

The new rink is growing apace. A well has been sunk by Mr. Robt. Whittaker. The enclosing fence is all ready to set up. Lights will be installed shortly and with the arrival of Jack Frost, whose solid work we all know, "They'll cleave the air with spirits free, as over the ice they go."

After many years in sod, the orchard of Mrs. M. J. Buekham has been plowed by Mr. Neil McLean, who made a fine job of it.

Mr and Mrs Chas. McDougall and son Loyal of Holstein, visited at the home of Mr and Mrs Ramage, taking the latter home with them for a week's visit there.

The response to the suggestion of the omission of the fowl supper in St. Columba to give cash instead has exceeded the fondest hopes of the most optimistic in a sum away ahead of the ten year average, now comfortably over $100.00 and more coming, with balance in pocket.

Mr and Mrs Stewart Thompson, and Mr. Murray Watson are visiting brothers Elmer and Will. Watson and families.

Mr and Mrs Will Watson and Mrs. Ruttle of Toronto, are hunting visitors at Wilfred Watson's.

Mrs Elizabeth Frank of Caledon is visiting a couple of weeks with her sister-in-law Mrs A. B. McArthur, (Glen).

Mr David Hincks and Beth spent the week end with friends at Guelph, Arthur and Elora.

Mr and Mrs Archie MacCuaig visited Sunday in Owen Sound.

Mr and Mrs. Bill Hill of Fergus spent a couple days at Mr Hector MacLean's.

Mrs Elizabeth Frank of Caledon, is visiting her sister Mrs A.B. McArthur. Mr and Mrs A. L. Hincks and Eric spent Saturday in Owen Sound.

Mr Ralph Ough is engaged with Mr Geo. Black, Swinton Park.

Mr and Mrs Allie McLean and son Clare spent Sunday in Flesherton.

Miss Olive McMeekin and friend, spent the week end in Toronto.

Master John L. McKinnon spent last week visiting in Toronto.

On Thursday night an executive meeting of the re-union was held at the home of Mr and Mrs Findlay Clark when plans were made for next year's picnic to be held Wednesday, July 8th at Eugenia. The following officers were elected: Pres.—Archie MacCuaig; Program com.—Miss Sadie McQueen, Stayner, Mrs Craig, Pt. Elgin; Mrs Andrew Hincks, Mrs Arch MacCuaig, Chas. McParlane; Advertising com.—Arch. MacCuaig, Findlay Clark; Tea com.—Miss Flora Clark, Mrs Wm. Brown. Mrs. Neil McMillan and Miss Flora Clark were appointed to give a history of the relationship. Sports com.—Clifford Hincks, Archie McCannell, Port Elgin.; Alex. McLeod, Stayner, Wm. John McLeod Toronto; Table com.—Marjorie McLeod and Mary McCannell, Swinton Park; Jean and Beth Hincks, Marjorie and Elizabeth Brown, Donald McLeod, Priceville; Kathleen McCannell, Port Elgin; Florence Clark, Alex McCannell, Edgar McLeod and Arch Clark Jr. of Swinton Park.

It was decided to call the picnic, "the islay cousins", and a silver collection to be taken. Prizes are to be given to the oldest member and to the youngest one present; to the person coming farthest; and to the one who brings the largest family; Dinner to be served at 12 and supper at 5, of cake, sandwiches and tea. A bountiful lunch was served by the hosts.

On Friday night a miscellaneous shower was held at the home of Mr and Mrs J.A. MacCuaig when friends and neighbors gathered to spend a social time with them. The evening was spent in music and dancing. Good music was supplied by J. Tee-

SWINTON PARK

Mrs Ed. Haw, Mrs Walter Knox and Mable Flood, who spent last week in Toronto and enjoyed the Santa Claus parade, no doubt will be keeping the home fires burning while other members of the families enjoy the Christmas concerts now soon coming. May be!

Several of the older folk—John Haw, Neil McMillan, George Black, Mrs. Aldcorn, have not felt up to the mark lately. We hope soon again to see them all out.

The weather has been damp, dull and dreary, yet reasonable. The men are in the bush destroyed by the cyclone, getting out buzz wood. Such piles of it!

We noticed in last week's Review that the people of Egremont had fittingly congratulated Miss Macphail on their victory at the polls. They also congratulated themselves upon the victory. They, like Uncle Sam, won the war. Glad that J. A. Ferguson still is able to compose verse suitable for any occasion.

We read in the Globe of recent date that Hugh Parslow, an old Swinton boy, had paid an election bid with the mayor of Fort William, Hugh handed over 2500 pennies, but felt he had been done. The mayor carried them away.

Mr and Mrs. Seymour Heard, of Toronto, Mr and Mrs Richard Heard of Flesherton, spent Sunday at the old home with mother and brother, Ed. Heard and family.

Mr and Mrs Tressider and daughter of Toronto spent the weekend at Dick Hardy's.

On this Tuesday, Nov. 19th at 2 p.m., the funeral of the late Mrs Peter McDonald took place. She died on Saturday evening, at a very long, wearisome illness, patiently borne. Rev. Mr McDonald of Priceville, will conduct service at the home. Burial in McNeil's cemetery, Priceville. Mrs McDonald was Annie McPayden, daughter of the late Mr and Mrs. Neil McPayden, con 14, Proton. She attended school and Sunday School at Swinton and when quite young, became a member of the Presbyterian Church here. Much sympathy is expressed for the sorrowing husband, and two daughters, Mary and Susan, who have so faithfully cared for mother, also for brothers and sisters now widely scattered, but well remembered by the older people in this locality where their childhood was spent.

The Priceville Old Boys' & Girls' Association invite you to attend their Fifth Annual Euchre & Dance FRIDAY EVENING, NOV. 29th, 1935 at Parkdale Assembly Hall, Toronto, (Lansdowne & Queen)

Dancing 9 to 1 o'clock. Prizes & Refreshments. Admission 50c.

HOPEVILLE

Miss Ethel Goeben spent the week end with her cousin Miss Bessie Wale.

Mr and Mrs E. McEachnie and family and Mr. L. Wright, Buffalo, visited recently with his parents Mr and Mrs Archie McEachnie.

Miss Lena Christie came up from Toronto with the Gospel Crusaders on Sunday and spent the day with sisters and brothers.

Mr and Mrs John Sinclair and family spent the first of the week with relatives at Durham.

Pleased to see Mr. Chas. Wale making steady improvement since the painful operation on his foot. It will be some time before he will be able to move about much.

Mr Oswald Dingwall has made a good recovery and is taking up his teaching duties again.

Inspector Pentland visited our schools last week.

The W.I. held a very enjoyable at home in Stewart's Hall on Friday evening. A large audience was quite appreciative of the program put on by local talent. Recitations by Miss Violet Ferris; Miss Catherine Gillespie and J. D. Mitchell; readings by Mrs Wm. Dingwall and Everett Martin; musical numbers by Messrs E. A. Jack; solos by Miss Muriel Mitchell; Mrs E. Hood, Miss Annie Black, Mr. Allan Sinclair; duets by Mrs Wilfrid Black and Mr. Ed. Gilkes; Miss Thelma Jack and Mr. Ainsy Jack, were all very good, the vocalists responding with an encore.

Mrs Fred Sageman and Miss Lorraine Love gave "Miss Cornelia makes a call" amusingly. A short play entitled "Hanging out the wash" by Mrs. R. Stewart and Mrs. C. Riddell, a scene among the colored folk, was well done. The audience did laugh at all the antics of that pair. A novelty number, the draw for lucky ticket for the quilt and lunch brought a very enjoyable evening to a close.

The Gospel Crusaders of Toronto had charge of the services at Bethany Christian Alliance church, Sunday.

Miss Merle Sinclair was the lucky winner of the W.I. quilt when the draw of tickets took place Friday evening.

Several hunters are taking advantage of the open season for deer.

IN DAYS OF YORE

25 YEARS AGO

Taken from Review file, Nov. 17/10

They say that a Hanover woman accidentally put her skirt on upside down the other day thus bringing the waist band around her ankles. Several of her friends congratulated her on her stylish new hobble skirt.

A meeting of citizens interested in good literature was held at Mr. C. L. Grant's for the purpose of organizing a reading club for intellectual self-improvement. Barrister Grant was elected to the president's chair and Miss Dora Davidson appointed secretary-treasurer.

One of the saddest tragedies that ever happened in the vicinity of Dornoch, occurred on Tuesday of last week when Mr Arthur Dargavel one of the burg's most popular young men was buried alive at the entrance of a fox-den. He leaped far into the mouth of the cavern in order to catch his dog and a fox on which she had a firm hold to the surface. But it proved a death trap, for no sooner had he entered the opening than the cave-in occurred burying him under a weight of sand and debris.

Tuesday there passed away after months of increasing weakness Miss Kate McDonald, eldest daughter, of Mr and Mrs Hugh McDonald, Upper Town. She was in her 24th year.

Mrs Will Irwin (nee May Lloyd) and baby returned to Toronto after a three weeks' visit with her parents.

Mr and Mrs Geo. Stinson and baby and Miss Maimie McKay left on Wednesday morning for Hartley, Man., where they will in future reside.

Amongst those taking advantage of cheap fares and to attend the Flower Show in Toronto are: Mr. and Mrs. C. Firth; Mr and Mrs A. H. Jackson; Mrs D. Jackson and Miss Christine; Mrs (Dr.) Gun; Mrs Wolfe; Mr and Mrs Jos. Brown; Mrs A. S. Hunter and Miss Margaret; Mr. Will Laidlaw and Miss Jessie; Misses Irene and Mabel Latimer.

Priceville corr.: H. H. Miller, M. P., preached in the Methodist church here on Sunday before last to a respectable audience considering the inclemency of the weather. Mr. Miller is as fluent a speaker in the pulpit as he is in delivering his speeches at Ottawa.

Hampden corr.: Mr and Mrs H. McCrie, of Varney, spent Sunday with Mr and Mrs Jas. Kerr.
