PRICEVILLE
 The Famous Florida sextette will be at St. Columba United Church on Friday evening, Dec. 6. Take special note of the date, as an error crept in last week's issue as to date (not on yours or my part). A fine program will be given, each one of them being an individual artist in spiritual, plantation, sacred and popular songs, costume readings, solos, duets, trios and male quartettes. They are highly spoken of by those who have heard them and strongly recommended to us here.

The W.I. of the locality are holding their meeting on Thursday of this week at the home of Mrs F. McKinnon.

On Saturday last Priceville lost one of its popular and highly esteemed young ladies by marriage of Miss Olive McMeekin to the man of her choice, Mr. Bradey Irwin. She was highly esteemed by all in her pleasant, sociable manner as a clerk in the store for many years of Mr F. G. Karstedt. I with hosts of others join in wishing her the best of everything that is good. Congratulations to him too.

Mr and Mrs H. B. McLean journeyed to Toronto on Thursday last returning on Saturday. Mrs A. J. McVicar and daughter Catherine paid a visit to Toronto also on Friday and returned on Monday.

The well for the new skating rink is now down 32 feet, just surface dripping so far.

Mr. H. B. McLean has sold some 21 horses this fall to well satisfied customers. They are horses that have been shipped to him.

We regret very much the passing of our old time valued friend and neighbor, Mrs W. P. Watson of Watson of North Egremont after an illness of over 8 months, resulting from a stroke, which left her helpless all that time, though conscious to the last; a wonderful constitution otherwise. She was the second daughter of the late Mr and Mrs Samuel Whitmore, one time residents on lot 8, con. 22, Egremont.

A s'iver tea, in aid of St. Columba W.M.S. fund was held on Thursday afternoon at the home of Mrs Jas. Oliver, Old Durham Road. The living room, where many guests were welcomed, was brightened by bouquets of red winter berries. During the afternoon a period of community singing was enjoyed, accompanied at the piano by Mrs J. Harrison. Mrs Sadie Vause also entertained with a reading. The tea table, lovely with late flowers and lighted candles, was presided over by Mrs Oliver and Mrs F. McKinnon; assisting in the dining room, were Misses Emma and Sadie Oliver and Beatrice Watters. A vote of appreciation for this pleasing event, was tendered to the hostess and her daughters, by Miss Bertha James, and was fittingly endorsed by the company present.

Mrs Jim Oliver and Mrs F. R. Oliver spent a few days last week visiting friends in Toronto.

Mr and Mrs A. Foster of Markdale visited Sunday at Edgar Patterson's.

Mrs. John McParlane and Mr. I. McLean spent the weekend at their parental home. Their mother returned home with them after spending last week in Toronto.

Miss Allie Muir is visiting in Toronto.

Miss Alice Muir visited last week with her sister Mrs H. Houston in Oshawa.

Congratulations to Mr and Mrs B. Irwin who were married on Saturday, interest of the W.M.S. LoC.

Mr and Mrs Ronald McRae and son Corwin, Fort Erie visited friends here last week.

Mr. Angus Clark returned home after visiting friends in Toronto.

On Tuesday night a presentation was held at the home of Mrs McMeekin in honor of Miss Olive, before her recent marriage. The evening was spent in progressive euchre, after which a mock wedding was performed. The bride was Mrs D. Campbell, the groom, Mrs W. Watson, and the preacher, Mrs Nellie McLean. This created much fun. The bride to be was asked to come forward, when an address was read by Mrs J. A. MacCuaig, and the presentation of an occasional chair, congoose rug and 10 yards roller towel, was made by Misses Donalda Nichol and Roberta Harrison. Though taken completely by surprise, Miss McMeekin in a few well-chosen words thanked all kindly for the lovely gifts and invited all to visit her in her new home. All joined and sang "For she's a jolly good fellow". After singing was over, a dainty lunch was served.

Miss Roberta Harrison is the new clerk in F. G. Karstedt's store.

Mr and Mrs Percy Jackson and Miss Kathleen of Collingwood visited on Sunday at Mr Thos. Nichol's.

Mrs Ronald McDonald and Douglas of Collingwood visited last week at W. Watson's.

Mr. Clifford Hincks who is teaching school at Hudson, was successful in getting a deer.

Mr and Mrs Art Richardson and Stuart Carson. Mr and Mrs Jack Carson of Vandeleur, visited Sunday at Mr. Alex Carson's.

Mr. Dan Campbell returned home after spending a week in Toronto.

Mr Dave Hincks attended the golden wedding of his uncle and aunt, Mr and Mrs Jack Hincks on Saturday in Egremont.

Mr and Mrs John Nichol and family visited Sunday at Mr. Donald McLeod's, Ceylon.

Mr and Mrs Isaac Smith of Flesherton visited Sunday at Mr. Allie McLean's.

HYMENEAL
IRWIN-McMEEKIN

A quiet but pretty wedding was solemnized at 3 o'clock on Saturday, Nov. 30th by the Rev. N. McDonald at the home of the bride's mother, when in the presence of immediate friends and relatives, Olive, only daughter of Mrs McMeekin and the late John McMeekin Priceville was united in marriage to Bradey Irwin, youngest son of Mrs Irwin and the late Thomas Irwin of Ceylon, Ont.

The bride entered the living room on the arm of her brother, Mr. J. McMeekin, to the strains of "Lohengrin's" bridal chorus played by Mrs. J. A. MacCuaig, and took her place beneath an arch of evergreens and yellow mums.

The bride was charming in a gown of tropical blue satin back French crepe, made on long fitted lines, with matching jacket of transparent velvet, and wearing silver slippers. Her bouquet was of Briar-cliff roses and lily of the valley. Her only ornament was a white gold necklace, the gift of the groom. The bride was attended by her cousin, Miss Della McPhail, dressed in brown triple sheer crepe and carrying a sheaf of bronze and yellow mums.

The groom was supported by his brother Mr Bert Irwin.

Immediately following the ceremony the bride led the way to the dining room which was attractively decorated with blue and white streamers, where luncheon was served to about twenty guests. The bride's table was decorated with sweetheart roses and centered with a three story wedding cake made by the bride's aunt, Mrs Stagg.

Later the happy couple left amid showers of confetti, for a motor trip to Hamilton, Windsor and other points. The bride chose for traveling a pansy shade rough crepe dress and wore a becoming "Princess Marina" style hat of the same shade. Her coat was of black tree bark suede with grey wolf collar, and matching accessories in black.

On their return they will reside on the groom's farm near Priceville.

LETTER OF A PRESENT DAY FATHER

My Dear Daughter:

You asked me if I think your husband should stay in his present position at an "adjusted salary" but you forgot to tell me what he would do if he didn't. You and he couldn't very well come here just now. Your brother Sheridan's salary has just been "reconsidered," so he moved into his old room and brought his wife.

Your sister Eloise telegraphed the next day that Wilfred had just been offered a new contract that was an insult, so your mother is airing out his room. Wilfred never could enter into insul's. Your sister Frances, you will recall, has been a private secretary; she wrote last week that if anybody thinks she is going to drop to the level of a common typist he is mistaken, so we expect her any day.

What with these and the younger children, I imagine that as long as Rupert's salary is merely being "adjusted" he had better stay. An adjustment is nothing like a reduction. It's hard for me to keep up with the language of big business, but as I understand it, an adjustment is the equivalent of a raise. Of course Rupert wouldn't know that; he has been working only since 1923, he should ask some old-timer to explain what a raise is.

My own business is coming along fine. It was for sale on the courthouse steps last Friday, but there were no bidders, so the sheriff let me keep it. That makes the best month since the upturn.

Your affectionate father.

If you have something you are not using, why not sell it? A small adlet in the Review may find a buyer.

Mr. A. A. Catton of town has purchased the Chevrolet Garage in Mr. Forest from Mr. James Baird, and will take possession in a short time.

The Grand Trunk has cut its freight service in two; only one train in ncw, and one out every other day. As long as the C.P.R. continues usual service, we'll be better off than many towns with only the one line.

Picking prairie flowers in November writes Mr. Jas. Baird of Grenfell, Sask. "scarcely any snow and little frost." He predicts hard times owing to falling prices of grain and cattle. He has sold his farm and is living in the town now.

Mr. Frank Morlock is visiting Guelph friends this week and attending the Fat Stock Show.

Mr. Arthur Ramage, teller of the Royal Bank, Elmwood, has been transferred to Lynden, a short distance from Hamilton.

Reeve Calder at Council meeting, Monday night announced some heartening information with regard to improved roads for Durham. Recently he had been in Toronto interviewing Hon. F. C. Biggs, Minister of Public Highways and the Deputy Minister, who assured him that the province would take over all of Garafra street in the town, which was not in the main business section.

The Gents' furnishing business in the McIntyre block, recently assigned by H. A. Burnett, has been purchased by Mr Geo. Burnett, who opened the store Monday.

A few days ago while Mr. Alex Fletcher was going to the barn to feed his cattle he saw a large black bear devouring one of his valuable sheep. At the sight he ran for his gun, but in his absence the bear made a good retreat, swam the lake at the back of the farm and disappeared.

Durham curling club re-organized for the ensuing season on Tuesday evening. Hon. pres. Mr R. Cochran; pres. J. P. Telford; secy-treas. W. Calder; Com. of management, H. Allan, W. C. Vollett, Jas. Lenahan, W. S. Hunter.

Who knows but what Durham may be crossed by another railway before many years? For some time it is alleged surveying has been going on quietly by the Canadian Northern authorities but the rumor seems to have a foundation of fact, for this week the news comes that a party of surveyors are at work north-east of the town and approaching it, being at present behind the Moffat and McFayden farms on the second con. of Glenelg. The northern terminus is at Washago, and it is supposed, Kincardine is aimed at.

On Sunday last there passed away at the residence of his nephew, Mr. John Morrison of 2nd con. E.G.R. Glenelg, Mr. Peter Morrison at the advanced age of 82 years.

In the same cemetery the day previous the earth closed over the remains of a bright and attractive boy of 12 years, 9 mos., Harold, 3rd son of Mr and Mrs Jas. Ledingham, of Glenelg.

Early on the morning of the 24th of November, there passed peacefully away, Mr Robt. Edge, of Edge Hill.

Mrs (Rev.) D. L. Campbell of Moorefield was the guest of Mrs J. Snell last Tuesday on her way to visit her parents in Priceville, and also when returning to-day, Wednesday.

Mr. Robert Hughes has severed connection with Ryan Bros. Owen Sound, and is home holidaying for a few days before leaving for a good position in Brandon, where his brother George now is.

A quiet wedding was solemnized at the home of Mrs A. M. Campbell, Elgin street, Port Elgin, when her daughter, Nellie C., was married to Dr. R. D. Lane, Priceville.

Popular Place corr.: On Wednesday evening last, Nov. 23rd, the home of Mr. and Mrs Jos. Patterson, Egremont, was the scene of a pretty wedding when their second daughter Fanny S. was united in marriage to Mr. Wm. Lawrence of Glenelg.

Houses built in England in the last fiscal half year numbered 167,379 an average of nearly 6,500 a week and a new high record.
