 —Ever remembered by wife.

THE ROLL CALL

MRS. W. P. WATSON

Death came in the light of a benefactor to Mrs William P. Watson of North Egremont, on Sunday morning last, for it relieved her of helplessness of long standing. About a year ago she suffered a stroke of paralysis from which she did not regain use of her limbs or speech and for one so accustomed to activity, the days were long at times. But her Christian patience stood her in good stead and made her a patient sufferer.

Mrs Watson was the last of three daughters of the late Mr and Mrs. Samuel Whitmore of North Egremont and was 77 years of age. As Abigail Whitmore, she received her schooling at S.S. No. 12, Egremont; and 47 years ago became the bride of Wm. P. Watson, also of North Egremont, who will sadly miss his life-partner. Also two sons are bereaved of a kind and loving mother, Charles on the home farm and Campbell on the 16th con., Egremont. A daughter, Downie, Mrs Sam McDermid, Pricerville, died over a year ago. Mrs T. Davis of Glenelg and Mrs Davey of Toronto have predeceased her.

The funeral was conducted Tuesday, first a private service in the home and later public service at Amos church, Dromore, of which church she was a member. Rev. R. Honeyman conducted service at house, church and grave. The church was well filled with sympathizing friends. The pallbearers were Messrs Will Davis, Chas. McGillivray, Chas. Moffat, Sam McDermid and son Wallace, Thos. Watson, grandson, Elmer and Wilfrid Watson.

Relatives attending the funeral from a distance were Mrs Gordon Brown, Nina Davey; Mrs Sheppard, Annie Watson, and Mr and Mrs Will Davis all of Toronto.

MRS. HARVEY ANDERSON

After suffering from heart trouble for a considerable time, the death took place suddenly on Thursday evening, Nov. 28, of Mrs Harvey Anderson, daughter of the late Mr and Mrs Sam Gardiner.

Matilda Gardiner was born in Eramosa Township near Guelph in 1873 and when six years of age came with her parents to the 6th of Egremont, later moving to the 14th of Egremont where she lived until her marriage to Mr. Harvey Anderson in 1910. Mr and Mrs Anderson farmed near Pricerville until moving to Mt. Forest twenty years ago.

There survive her husband and daughter Bernice, also two sisters in Toronto, Mrs George Robbie and Mrs E. A. Robbie, and three brothers, James, Egremont; William, Mt. Forest and Samuel of Chicago. Her parents and three brothers are deceased.

The funeral was held on Saturday with service in St. Andrew's church, conducted by the Rev. Robertson Millar and attended by many sympathizing friends.

The pallbearers were: Messrs Andrew Selim, Wm. Haas, Wm. Patterson, James and William Gardiner, J. Gillies, and the flower bearers were two nephews of deceased, Elmer and Donald Gardiner, also Mac and Kellar Henderson.

Those in attendance from a distance were her sister, Mrs Robbie, and Mrs Frank Hunt, Toronto; Mrs Arthur Ritchie, daughter Gladys and Clarence Ritchie, Durham; Mrs Currie and Mr Tom Currie, Mrs Donald McKinnon, Pricerville; Mrs Ethel, McDougall and son Ken, Goderich; Mr and Mrs Garret Doyle and Mr. Leo. Doyle, Prton; Mr. James Gardiner and family, Egremont; Mr and Mrs Angus McCannell and daughter, Mrs Geo. Black, Mr and Mrs Dan McCannell, Prton Station.

The floral tributes included a wreath from the family, Mr and Mrs Geo. Robbie and daughter June, Mrs E. A. Robbie, Mr and Mrs Frank Hunt, Toronto; the choir and Young People of St. Andrew's church; Miss Gladys Ritchie and Messrs Nathan Ritchie and Elmer Gardiner, of Durham.

WILL BE MILD WINTER

SAYS INDIAN CHIEF

It's going to be a mild winter and there won't be much need for overcoats. Rubers may come in handy but mufflers will be out. This is the prophecy of Chief Sam Snake, of the Ojibway Indians, on the Rama Reserve and his words are concurred in by Black Hawk, the tribal prophet who himself has seen 72 winters and has been busy forecasting them for at least 50.

Chief Sam Snake bases his weather prophecy upon nature's natural barometer, the furbearing animals and birds. He bases his findings upon a number of nature's signs. He stated that the geese on their southward journey flew higher than they have for years, a sure sign of an open winter. The foxes and other furbearing animals have not donned a heavy coat this fall and the beaver and muskrat do not think that a winter home will be a necessity. Even the fish have not taken to deep water, as they would ordinarily do, if heavy frosts were promised.

Prophet Black Hawk goes even further than Chief Sam Snake. He predicts that in the north snow will not fall more than a foot in depth. This fact is indicated by the deer, which are scratching their horns on trees and bushes just 12 inches above the ground. Through some strange intuition, Prophet Black Hawk finds that deer invariably select as their scratching mark the depth that subsequent snow will fall. And to clinch his statements, the prophet claims that there will be practically no snow fall along the shores of Lake Ontario.

Engineer's Ashes Cast On Track

Fulfilling a last request, the ashes of Anthony Livene Silvene, who for 39 years drove an engine on the Esquimalt & Nanaimo Railway, operated on Vancouver Island by the Canadian Pacific, were cast along the track he knew and loved so well. Engineer A. C. Wilson, friend of the late "Tony" Silvene and chairman of the Esquimalt & Nanaimo division of the Brotherhood of Locomotive Engineers, is seen performing the last rites in the company of officials and railwaymen near Silvene station at the summit of the spectacular Malahat Pass, 18 miles north of Victoria, B.C.
