Great piles of sand are to be seen all along our main highways, placed there for intended use during the slippery conditions of the roads, by the Department of Highways. Last winter the piles were not all used. It is a splendid way of making motoring safe during the icy conditions of the roads.

PRICEVILLE AND VICINITY

PRICEVILLE

The Y.P.S. of St. Columba church met at the home of the Misses Mather. The opening exercises were held by singing a hymn followed by prayer by Rev. J. W. Johnston. Mr. J. Ritchie, leader of the literary group, took charge of the meeting. The scripture reading and explanation was given by Miss E. Mather. The discussion period was taken by Miss Ruberta Harrison, who gave an interesting story on 'Reading'; Mr. A. Weir contributed a reading 'Born in a stable'; Mr Stewart Muir invited the Y.P.S. to his home for the January home meeting. An important part was a grocery shower, tendered to the newly weds, Mr and Mrs Randall (nee Allie Eckhardt). An address was read by Miss Ruberta Harrison and the presentations made by Misses Anna McLean and Francis Reley. Taken by surprise, they both made a fitting reply, thanking all for their kindness shown. A social time was there-after spent in games, and a bountiful lunch was served by the hostess and assistants. A vote of thanks was moved to the Misses Mather, which was replied to by Miss Eleanor, teacher in school here, and by Mr W. Mather. The singing of "For they are jolly good fellows" brought the pleasant meeting to a close.

Water has at last been reached in the new well for the skating rink up town, at a depth of 38 feet. Frost is all that is needed now.

Another fine calendar is issued this time by Mr. A. J. McVicar, of Priceville, portraying a fine sylvan scene of a snug, cosy, invitingly lighted dwelling in the shrubbery and a fine, peaceful lake in the background, an ideal cool spot in summer. He has in addition his store in keeping with others in the Town, all nicely decorated for the Christmas season, goods displayed in orderly fashion and waited upon by handsome clerks. Three of them are pupils of Flesheron, while Anna is a clever dancer and was invited along with Mr. Angus McCormick by the town of Durham, to contribute to the program, the latter with his bassoons. Many were out from here to see the several hundred children, young specimens of humanity, and of course Santa Claus.

Lots of snow, but no ice for the rink as yet, but just wait!

Mr. John Williamson is we hear, not feeling any too well, has been in the hospital, but is now home. He is a little better and we hope he keeps on improving.

The scholars of No. 12 here purpose putting on their concert Thursday 19th, when the usual program, (but new) will be given by the pupils in recitations, dialogues and vocal selections by the pupils of Miss I. Middaugh, Dundalk, who has the position of Public School music teacher, once a week here.

The S.S. Scholars of St. Columba are holding their annual Christmas tree celebration on Friday, 20th, when the usual long program will be given by the children and others. Admission 25c. Children free.

Sacrament of the Lord's Supper, was observed in St. Columba on Sunday, very fittingly and with due solemnity. The attendance was fair considering the stormy weather and state of the roads.

The Holdfast U.F.W.O. club met on Wednesday at the home of Mrs. Earl McLeod with a good attendance. The new president Miss May Stewart presided. Miss Agnes Macphail, M.P., gave a comprehensive account of the U.F.O. and U.F.W.O. at the convention in Toronto, after which a Christmas gift exchange took place. Lunch was then served.

Messrs Archie, Alex and Donald Stewart and Miss May Stewart spent Thursday in Paisley and visited with Mrs Wm. Bell who is not well.

Mr. Stuart Carson of Swinton spent weekend at his parental home.

Mr and Mrs Jack Nichol Jr. and family visited Sunday at Dan. L. McArthur's.

Born—On Friday, Dec. 13th to Mr and Mrs Sterling Whyte, a daughter in Markdale hospital.

Mr and Mrs Archie MacQuig were guests Sunday at the home of Mr. John McKechnie.

Mr and Mrs Wm. Hay, Swinton visited Sunday at A. L. Hincks'.

Mr Ed Dingwall visited friends in Toronto Thursday.

Mr. Murray McMillan has gone to Toronto.

Congratulations to Thos. Currie and Sadie Vause who were married last Wednesday.

Miss Beth Hincks of Faversham, spent the weekend at home.

Keep in mind the school concert on Thursday afternoon and also the concert Thursday evening, Dec. 19, at the Old Durham Road school.

HOPEVILLE

Pleased to see Mr. Ed. McVicar able to walk out again after a long sojourn in a plaster cast. His back was badly injured in a fall from a load of grain into the barn floor last harvest. His family are so thankful he has made such a good recovery.

Mr and Mrs Jas. Smith, Stratford were visitors last week with their sister, Mrs George Shand.

Mrs John Ferris has not been feeling as well as usual of late and is in Toronto this week for special medical treatment.

Mr. Chas. Wale is able to walk around a little with the use of a crutch.

Mrs Bowls, Eugenia, has the sympathy of everyone. While she was here a few days on the occasion of her sister, Mrs J. Wilson's death, her home was destroyed by fire.

A number of the young people attended a reception last Wednesday evening at the home of Reeve W. Jack for the newly weds, Mr and Mrs Willard Jack.

Mr. John Armstrong is at present under the doctor's care. We hope he will soon feel better.

A gang of men from Formosa, who are working at the timber in Mr. J. Ferris' bush have taken up house-keeping in the house formerly occupied by Mr. Robt. Stewart.

An old landmark, the birthplace of Miss Agnes Macphail, M.P., was taken down the past week. This house situated on the farm of Shand Bros. has been unoccupied for years and was showing the ravages of time.

Two of the special prizes donated by T. Eaton Co. to the North Proton School Fair district came to S. S. No 4. Alan Sinclair won second "The modern encyclopedia" and Gladys Hardman third, "Unwritten history"; both good instructive books.

Miss Northcote, Toronto, spent a few days with her brother Roy.

Mrs. Symons, Messrs Will and Jas Wilson, have been spending a few days at the Wilson home in village.

MARRIED

Currie—Vause—On Wednesday, Dec. 11th, at Trinity church parsonage, Thornton, by the Rev. S. G. McCormack, Sarah Elizabeth Vause, daughter of Mr and Mrs Robt. Vause, to Thomas Alexander Currie, son of Mrs Currie and the late Archie Currie, both of Priceville.

At Queen's Park

By The Watchman

Toronto, December 18th. Greater financial aid to the Provinces for relief purposes has been promised by the Dominion Government and the burdens of municipalities will be lightened considerably as a result of this action. The inter-provincial Conference at Ottawa took up the relief question as its first major problem. Every phase was fully covered by the Provincial Premiers and the Federal Prime Minister, and it was agreed that a larger share of the cost of relief should come from the Ottawa Treasury.

Premier Heppburn took a prominent part in the discussions and was ably supported by Hon. David Croll and Attorney General Roebuck. The Ontario delegates, representing the largest and wealthiest Province in Canada, expressed their views with force and candor and they led many of the debates. The Ontario Premier, though far from being in the best of health, displayed all of his old-time vigor and fire and stood out from his conferees by the very force of his personality.

Revision of the British North America Act by the Parliament of Canada and the settling of many controversial issues which have arisen in recent years in connection with Dominion-Provincial jurisdiction, was endorsed by the conference. Mining taxation was also discussed and the Ontario delegation went on record as opposing further concessions to the mining industry in the way of decreased taxation. It is believed Premier Heppburn favors securing revenue from this industry which he maintains is well able to stand it.

With tremendous financial problems confronting the Province, the Premier does not intend to overlook any legitimate source of revenue, particularly the prosperous gold mining industry of the Province.

It is almost certain that the discussions at the Conference will be translated into legislation, both Federally and Provincially, within the next few months. The pressing problem of relief, the revision of the B. N.A. Act and some sort of refunding plan on debts are certain to be dealt with by the House of Commons.

Considerable benefit is expected as

MRS. JAMES WILSON

After a few days of illness, the last call came suddenly to a respected resident, Mrs James Wilson at the age of sixty-six years. Since the death of her husband last May, she has spent much time with her family in Toronto and daughter Mrs J. Ferris. Deceased was formerly Margaret McDougall, born at Priceville the daughter of the late Malcolm and Anna McDougall, she was married to James Wilson in 1890. They began homemaking and she proved a true helpmate and a kind and devoted mother. Six sons and four daughters feel their bereavement keenly: James at home; John, Egremont; Alex., Archie, Egremont; Will, Mac, Catharine, (Mrs J. Ferris) and Annie (Mrs. Watson), of Woodbridge; Agnes, (Mrs Porter) and Tena, (Mrs C. Symons) of Toronto; also twelve grandchildren, three brothers and one sister, Mrs Bowls, Eugenia.

The funeral was held Friday, a short service at the house with public service in the United church. Rev. Albert Elliott, Guelph, assisted by Mr R. Northcote, gave a comforting message. Beautiful flowers surrounded the casket. The flower bearers were: Mrs E. Gilkes; Mrs R. Stewart; Mr J. Campbell; Mr and Mrs A. Bowls and Walter Stewart. Pall bearers were Messrs Geo. and Henry Christie, B. Cuthbertson, M. McTaggart, R. Stewart, Nell McEachnie, John McEachnie and Ed. Gilkes.

The family and a large number of friends attended. Interment was made in Dundalk.

SWINTON PARK

Heartiest Christmas greetings to ye Editor and household, also to all readers of the Durham Review. This is the special day of the year when the whole Christian world should be at peace, and all enjoy it quietly and thoughtfully. We have heard that Santa Claus is going about in Ontario and we trust that at least every boy and girl will be remembered. We older folk who have enjoyed so many Christmas days are still looking forward to meeting and greeting many friends.

Mr Dingwall, teacher, and pupils of Hillside academy, have issued nicely decorated invitations to every home in the section, requesting the presence of parents, brothers and sisters, old and young, on Friday afternoon at 1.30 when a good program will be presented, a Christmas tree (and Santa Claus) and all free: but listen, ladies, bring lunch. Miss Campbell, teacher at Boothville and pupils, are entertaining the parents Thursday afternoon. Oil up your old faces, so it won't hurt to laugh out loud. A school program and Christmas tree is the most original entertainment on earth. Just enough snow for sleighing. Cars and trucks running well. Many logs being hauled from here to Hanover these days. Maurice and Edgar McLeod never see the house in daylight, except on Sundays. They are swamping out logs and loading trucks.

George McMeeekin of Durham with his truck, disturbs us quiet natives just at break of day. Have you not a comfortable bed, George?

We were very sorry to hear that Mrs Henry Hamilton of Grand Valley (nee Maude Haw), is at her old home here, Mr and Mrs George Haw's, in very poor health at present. Dr. Sneath is in attendance. We hope soon you may be well again, Maude.

Mr Chas. Haw, teacher, and pupils of Swamp College, had their entertainment and Christmas tree Friday night last. A good program well given, was enjoyed by a school full of people.

A dance at Archie McTaggart's, on 14, last Friday night was well patronized by the young people. Some of them did not turn up for work on Saturday. Go slow, lads!

IN MEMORIAM

McMEEKIN—In loving memory of our dear husband and father, John McMeeekin, who passed away, Dec. 17th, 1930.

The flowing stream of life rolls on, But still the vacant chair Recalls the love, the voice, the smile Of him, who once sat there. His life was one long sacrifice, His heart was true and tender He toiled so hard for those he loved, Then left us to remember. —Sadly missed by wife and family.

Christmas Greetings
