Mr and Mrs W. J. Robertson and Mr and Mrs E. F. Windrum of Toronto, were weekend guests with Mr. and Mrs D. Allan and family.

Mr and Mrs N. E. McGuire and family spent first of the week with her sister Mrs J. T. Brown on the twentieth.

The sympathy of the community is extended to the Rice family in their recent sad bereavement.

Miss Doris Troupe spent the week end with the Watson family.

Mrs Herrgot and Mrs Troupe spent the weekend with friends in Toronto.

Trinity United Sunday School expects to hold their Christmas entertainment in the schoolroom of the church, Monday evening, December 23rd, instead of Dec. 25th, as it appeared in last week's paper.

There will be a community Christmas tree here, Dec. 21st. Bring all the children out to see Santa Claus. Miss Eva Gadd, Toronto is spending a few days with her mother.

Don't forget the entertainment to be put on by the Public School on Dec. 19th.

The Rev. Mr. Court, formerly of London was inducted on Monday, Dec. 16th as minister of the Presbyterian church here. The Presbyterian took charge of the meeting. Rev. Mr. Gowdy of Durham occupied the pulpit. Rev. Mr. Killen of Drayton gave a splendid sermon on "The Pillar of Salt." The Rev. Mr. Lawrence of Rothsay, addressed Rev. Mr. Court. Rev. Mr. Honeyman of Dromore addressed the congregation. After the meeting a delicious supper was served by the ladies of the congregation.

The annual meeting of Egremont Ploymen's Association was held in Yeovil hall Thursday, Dec. 12, when prize money was paid out to winners at the plowing match, and following officers were elected for 1935:

J. A. Ferguson, pres.; John Scott, vice pres.; Frank Cowan, 2nd vice; Neil Calder, sec'y-treas.; Clarence Ross and Frank Cowan, auditors; W. J. Philp, with the secretary and president, were appointed a committee to procure a field for next year's match which will be confined to the township, with one open class in sod with an extra prize attached, open to all comers. Sixteen directors were appointed distributed over the township. After all accounts were paid, there remains a snug balance on hand for next year.

Takes Over Holstein Creamery
Mr. Norman Treleaven, son of Mr. and Mrs R. Treleaven, York St., took over the Creamery at Holstein on Wednesday. "Nib," as he is commonly known here, has been foreman of the Palm Creamery plant for the last two years and also acted in the same capacity with the United Produce Company after that firm purchased the Palm Creamery recently. Mr. R. Treleaven who was manager of the Palm Creamery until a short time ago is assisting his son at Holstein in the cream business and his wide and varied experience should materially aid Norman in his new venture.—Palmerston Observer.

ALLAN'S CORNERS

St. Paul's A.Y.P.A. met at the home of Mr and Mrs J. C. Queen on Thursday evening of last week with an attendance of 40. Scripture reading on the "Coming of Christ" followed by prayers by Rev. J. R. Thompson. A very interesting address was given by the guest speaker, Mr. Webster, manager of the Bank of Commerce. His address was based on money and banking system He passed around for inspection, Russian, German, Chinese bills and several pieces of gold. Mr. M. E. Reuber gave several jokes and a reading entitled "A Welsh classic" which was very humorous. A parcel was packed for a S. School class of 25 in Cochrane, with Christmas gifts donated by the members; also money for a treat to be sent to the Rev. Cathart, Holy Trinity Cathedral in Cochrane, for distribution. The pres. Miss Morrison, capably entertained the members by various games until midnight, when coffee and edibles were served. A hearty vote of thanks was tendered the host and hostess in Allan's School on Dec. 20th. Program is being prepared by teacher Mr. Reube. Lunch will be served. Admission 10c. Ladies bringing eats free.

A social evening was spent at at Bobtown, where a large number of friends and relatives gathered in honor of Mr and Mrs Clarence Daley who recently entered the bonds of matrimony. They received a shower of gifts and all spent the evening dancing. Mr and Mrs Daley are at present visiting Mr. and Mrs. Wes. Andrews for a couple of months. Mr. Alf McCabe of Varney has been around this vicinity installing radios.

On Sunday next, Holy Communion will be administered in St. Paul's church. Rev. Thompson purposes holding a Christmas service and singing of Christmas carols. Mr Isaac Hooper has sold his farm to Mr Harry Grasby and the former has purchased a chopping mill in Chatsworth.

NORTH EGREMENT

Merry Christmas to Publishers and all readers of Review.
A large number from this vicinity attended the two sales the first of the week and report good prices. Mrs Will Moore is doing nicely at present and is staying with Mr and Mrs Chas. Moore in town for a few days. Mr. Geo. McKelvie who is a patient in Durham hospital is improving slowly. Mr Jas. McKenzie from near Rockwood, and Harold Eurig of Mt. Forest spent Sunday at Jno. McKenzie's. Mr. Lloyd Brown, son of J. T. Brown, was on his way to Durham on Tuesday, when at the bend in the road on Lambton St., his car took a skid or two and landed upside down in the ditch. There were six in the car and nobody hurt, we are pleased to report. The car will require a new top and two new panes of glass. EGREMENT COUPLE

50 YEARS MARRIED
Mr and Mrs John Hincks celebrated the fiftieth anniversary of their marriage at the home of their son, George on the 15th of Egremont. A fowl dinner was served and a three-story wedding cake graced the table.

Mr. Hincks was born 72 years ago in Paisley Block near Guelph. Mrs. Hincks, who was Jennie Mason, was born a few farms from where they now reside in Egremont. They were married on Dec. 1st, 1885, in Mount Forest.

The family presented them with upholstered chairs. They also received a number of useful gifts from relatives and friends.

KNOX CORNERS

We wish the Editors and staff of the Review and all its readers a most joyous Christmas and very happy New Year. We are soon to celebrate the birth of the babe of Bethlehem and the King of Kings, who came to bring peace on earth and good will to men, and yet the world is in a state of strife and unrest.
Mr. James Picken is at present in Mt. Forest hospital with a broken leg as a result of being kicked by a horse on Saturday last. He will be unable to get around for some weeks but we hope he may have no set back and may soon be able to return to his home.
Mrs Harold Watson and baby visited on Monday with her parents.
The W.M.S. met on Wednesday afternoon, Dec. 11th at the home of Mrs John Birr with an attendance of 19. Mrs J. M. OBITUARY

JAMES SNELL

The 'Review' referred in a brief manner last week, to the passing of James Snell of Dromore, on Tuesday week stating a fuller obituary would be given this week. There is really little one can add, beyond the fact that the deceased gentleman lived at all times the Christian's life. He was born on the farm on which he died. An industrious farmer in his working years, his home was the heart of his life and he did not seek municipal or public office. Mr. Snell was a member of the one-time Ebenezer Methodist church, later attending ser-
