BUSY ADULT LIFE At 14 years of age he went to work in Shield's Sawmill, but rented by Romains. The family eventually went to Holstein. They moved to Dromore district about 1870. There, he worked for three years with a Mr McCarty, with whom he finished his trade as a wagon-maker. At that time he was 19 years of age and joined the church. Shortly after he became interested in Sunday School work, this interest keeping up in an active sense, until two or three months ago. For most of his years in Dromore Church, he was the Sunday School Superintendent.

At the end of three years, he purchased McCarty's business, and started making nearly everything a man would need-waggons, sleighs, washtubs, churns, window sash, doors, etc. He was trustee and treasurer of Dromore School for many years, an elder now for forty years, of the Presby- 4th and 7th; 2nd and 4th teams, Feb. the milling business at Dromore until home dates.

PROGRAM PLEASES

The opening number by the Glee Club was an attractive bit of travelogue work, wherein the singers entered with spirit into songs descriptive of the sunny south, later taking you to Ireland, England, Scotland, Holland, Japan, ending with Canada, when "O Canada" was loyally sung. Each country as they came forth. were dressed in native attire, while at the back of stage, a shifting ball of light followed the Glee Club their travels over the earth.

Miss Thelma Priest had quite possession of herself as she gave a rendition of "Pigs is Pigs". Misses Shirley and Betty McIntyre quite taking in their dances in costume, "The Gay Nineties." A Japenese cance in costume, by Junior girls was well executed. Comprising the personnel were Ada Becker, Jean Black, Jean Simmons, Ruth Niche Janet Robb, Margaret Moore, Flor ence McLean, Myrtle Hodgson. Also a Danish drill by Senior boys was well executed,-Edward Hunt, Norman Greenwood Robert Milne, Murray Smith, Allan Watson, Gordon Graham, Arthur Newell and Raymond

However the play, "The Arrival of Billy" was the "piece de resistance" of the night. It carried the plot of a childless couple receiving word from a friend in California, that she was sending to them her special charge, "Billy" as she was taking an extensive leave from her home and Though very much surprised at their friend's action, they immediately set to work to make the most

the situation, and accordingly went to great length, in expense, etc. in fitting the home with child comforts and toys for Billy,-going even for him. To their great amazement what should descend upon them next day but a large tom-cat. The charDURHAM BOY'S NAME APPEARS IN K.C. LIST
