On Tuesday afternoon the W.M.S. and willing helpers held their nual meeting in the church. Mrs. Sutherland presided, and gave a reading on the Child. Miss Nellie Mc-Lean gave a reading and the treasurer's report, after which the election of officers took place as follows: Pres., Mrs Sutherland; vice pres. Miss Mary McEachern; treas., Nellie McLean; sec'y, Mrs Wm. McMillan; ass't sec'y, Miss Margaret McArthur.

The Willing Helpers' meeting fol lowed. In the absence of the pres. and sec'y, Mrs Aldcorn and Miss M Stewart, Mrs Sutherland presided. Mrs Henry Tucker gave a splendid paper on Christmas customs in other lands. Mrs A. L. Hincks gave reading, "How Christmas came to the poorhouse; Miss Nellie Mc-Lean gave the treasurer's report, with a good balance on hand. The election of officers took place as follows: pres., Mrs Wilf. Watson; sec Mrs Boice: treas., Miss Nellie Mc-

Congratulations to Miss Alice Reiley and Mr Elford Watters who were married Wednesday.

On Tuesday night a presentation was held at the home of Mrs Wm. Aldcorn for the bride-to-be, before her recent marriage. About 35 ladies were present and the evening was spent in music, community singing, Gaelic songs and solos. A mock wedding created much fun. Mrs W. Watson acted as groom, Miss Mary McKinnon as bride and Miss Nellie McLean performed the ceremony. Mrs A. J. McVicar gave the bride away and Mrs Joe Harrison played the wedding music. Miss Catherine McVicar read an address and Mrs. Wm. Addcorn presented the bride with a purse containing nearly $20. Miss Reiley made a fitting reply and thanked all kindly for the gift. bountiful lunch was served and acted and clearly spoken by the youth and beauty of the village. Rev. N. McDonald gave a fine address on Christmas, its origin, its observance and its holy association. Rev J. W. Johnston acted as chairman. At the end of program, santa made his appearance. After some jovial salutations to the little ones, he proceeded to hand out the prizes and gifts off a well laden tree. A bag of candies was given to each child. 'Blest be the tie that binds', 'God save the King' and the benediction by Rev. Mr. Johnston, closed another fine Christmas celebration.

Miss Marion Muir, the affable teacher at Oro Station, is home for the statutory holidays, looking well.

More are expected on the eventful day of the year. We, as well as others are always glad to greet them. The choir of St. Columba gave a fine anthem on Sunday, "a song the world is singing" (i. e.) "O come all ye Faithul", with girls and boys responding in a fine setting of the latter, by J. Lincoln Hall, as a chorus.

On the 31st December, a joint watch-night service will be held in the Presbyterian Church, to welcome in the New Year. An extempore programme may be given before the supreme moment. All welcome and invited to attend.

The services on Sunday evening were conducted by the orchestra of the church in several sacred selections, by three violins, and Mrs. J. C. Harrison on piano.
