QUEEN STREET W. M. S.

Queen Street W.M.S. was invited to the home of Mrs H. McCrae for the January meeting on Wednesday last, and received a warm welcome. Mrs Halbert, president conducted the worship service of praise and prayer. Scripture reading was taken by Mrs. Halbert, followed by prayer by Mrs. Twamley on the theme, the spirit of racial brotherhood. Mrs Mc-Clocklin introduced 'The faiths Africa', the second chapter of the study book, and we learned that Africans' beliefs were many; of them being the immortality the soul,—that the spirits of dead return to control them; some times friendly, or if unfriendly, must be pleased. They live in terror of malicious spirits. They believe God, but consider Him absent ing left spirits present in charms. magic-good and bad, thunder and lightning, mountains, trees, pools and witchcraft.
