SWINTON PARK

We have enjoyed a cold, quiet weekend in the Park. Many of the ladies are taking in the weekend excursion to the city: Mrs. Howard Watson, Mrs George Haw, Mrs. Ed. Heard, Mrs Wm. Hay, Mrs Ed. Haw, Mr Noble Wilson went along to look after the bunch.

In honour of and in sympathy with the deceased king, and family who mourn, the school was closed on Tuesday.

The hockey match last Saturday on Black's rink, drew a large crowd. The Blackbirds versus an Egremont Holstein and Mount Forest combination, on which there are reported to be some professionals, was very evenly contested until the last five minutes, when by pure good luck the visitors scored two goals, making the final score 5-3 in favor of the visiting team.

We hear golden wedding bells are gently ringing in the Park. Mr. and Mrs Robert Knox were married fifty years ago on the 9th of February in Holstein, by Rev. Peter Straith. About this, there will be more to say at a later date.

Miss Campbell of Boothville spent the weekend with Mrs John Aldcorn in the Park.

Mrs Jean Love and children of New England, spent Sunday with her father, Mr Dougald McCannell at Boothville and attended church in the Park.

Sometimes you make a mistake and are sorry for it, but in this case we are not. A short time ago we reported that Dougald McCannell had fallen on the ice and knocked himself goofy. We had been so informed, but Dougald says that was a year ago. So he is O. K. now.

IN DAYS OF YORE

25 YEARS AGO

Taken from Review file, Jan. 26/11

A decidedly interesting game of hockey was played on local ice on Wednesday night last between Durham and Walkerton Jr. teams, the home boys winning 5-1.

The Durham players were F. Laidlaw, V. Elvidge, G. Catton, A. Hutson, C. Crawford, Mack Saunders, Bob Saunders.

Put up at public auction on Tuesday, the Middaugh house changed hands, the new owner being G. Ryan Sr., a hotelman of long experience. The price was $6100.

Durham curlers were 2 down on the total in Chesley last Thursday. Skip W. S. Hunter was 7 up; A. Brown 8 up; W. Calder 18 down and T. Lauder 4 down. Four Chesley rinks came here Tuesday for the return game and this time the Durhams finished 21 ahead.

The C.P.R. is asking the Council for street privileges in laying a switch from or near their station to the Furniture Company's premises thus making a connecting link between the two railway lines.

A definite offer of $8,000 has been made by the Carnegie interests towards the erection of a Library in Durham.

Priceville corr.: We have nearly three months of old fashioned winter in this part of the county. The snow is not so deep to take it on an average but it is piled on the roads to the depth of (to be safe in calculating) 8 feet deep in some places although some experts put it down at 10 feet in some places. In olden times when the country was surrounded with trees, snow would be as deep on the top of the hills as on the hollows and the roads would be about three feet below the surface, as there was no drifting, but nowadays in some parts of this vicinity, it's like going along steep hills where actually there is only a small incline.

Balsam Valley corr.: Many from around here attended the Literary meeting in Boothville school last Friday evening. We are glad to see that the people of U.S.S. No. 14, (of which we are a part), have formed a Literary Society. The subject for the evening was a debate, "Resolved that fashion does more harm than whiskey." The speakers were affirmative: Fred Runciman, Noble Wilson, Archie Clark and Mrs Jas. Wilson; negative: Messrs J. R. McDonald and Mrs Fred Runciman. The latter side won by a few points.
