Thursday, February 27th proved ladies braved the storm and attended the W.I. meeting at the home of the Misses McCormick, where they ceived a warm welcome and after friendly chat around the fireside proceeded with the meeting. The President's opening remarks paid deep tribute of high esteem to our friend and neighbor, the late Mrs Puther bough. Mrs Lamb read the scripture lesson from psalm 81. All stood with bowed heads in two minutes of silent prayer in memory of our late King, George V, also for our new King, Edward VIII, followed by the Lord's Prayer in unison.

This being our meeting on histori swered by a brief history of our own were read from Mr. Putherbough and family, also Mrs R. Hopkins. The Treasurer gave her report.
