PRICEVILLE AND VICINITY

PRICEVILLE

The Women's Association of Priceville United Church will hold on St. Patrick's night, March 17th, an Irish supper and pictures on Ireland and good entertainment. Come and enjoy a good Irish evening. Admission 15 and 25c. Supper served from 6 to 8.

Priceville can lay claim to many octogenarians as well as other localities often mentioned in the newspapers. We have Mrs. Chas. McKinnon, Artemesia's grand old lady who will be 97 on the 10th of March. Her mother before her attained the age of 105 and was able to compose poetry in Gaelic up to near the last.

The ladies of St. Columba are celebrating St. Patrick's day on the 17th of March where a rare Irish stew will be partaken of, followed by the versatile W. G. McBride, Lantern slides will also be shown on the canvas illustrative of the many fine scenes, landscapes, buildings, etc. These will be described in running comments by one particularly efficient in this line, Mrs. F. G. Karstedt. A good time is promised and of course expected. Admission 15c and 25c. The choir is looking up some rollicking selections, as well as some of more sober mien.

A fine supply of ice is being taken off the dam in expectation of having warmer weather than at present. Faith is still strong in the human breast.

Union prayer meeting for the 18th will be held at the home of Mrs. Buckham.

Mr. John Whyte a fine efficient workman for Mr. H. B. McLean the past year moved this Monday, to the farm owned by Mr. Allie McLean which he will work on shares. His place is being taken by Mr. J. Eagle.

The rink is still being patronized for skating purposes. A occasional dance was held on Friday at which the youth and beauty of the town enjoyed themselves to the music of the broadcaster installed by Mr. W. G. McBride.

The fine weather is conducive to a better attendance at church services we are pleased to note. Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Ferris will after their sale move into the late Mrs. Graham's house which they have purchased.

The W.M.S. and W.H. will hold their monthly meeting Tuesday, Mar. 17th at the home of Miss Mary McEachern. A debate will be given on the subject, "resolved that a tidy crank would be easier to live with than a good natured slouch." Affirmative side taken by Margaret McArthur, Mrs. Jack McMeekin; negative, Mrs. Wilfred Watson and Mrs. Stuart Boice.

On Tuesday night a presentation was held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Allie McLean to spend a social evening with them before their departure from our midst. A very large crowd was present and enjoyed themselves dancing. Good music was supplied by Messrs Colin and Innis McLean and Archie MacCuaig. At an appropriate time Mr. and Mrs. McLean were asked to come to the front, when a complimentary address was read by Miss Annie Teeter and the presentation made by Margaret McArthur. Mr. McLean on behalf of his wife thanked all kindly for the gift. A delightful lunch was served at midnight.

On Wednesday night a shed meeting was held at the home of Mr. T. Nichol for the purpose of fixing the windows and replacing the glass in the ones that have been broken, leaving the shed very cold for horses. It was decided for the six of the committee, namely: Thos. and Jno. Nichol Sr., Joe McKee, John Shortreed, Stewart Muir and David Hincks to collect to get funds to go ahead with the work. Anyone who would care to contribute and help along with the work would be greatly appreciated.

SWINTON PARK

March has made a good start and now Spring is just around the corner. Roads are excellent. Not for cars, of course, but who cares for cars when you have a good horse and cutter?

The assessor, Mr. W. R. Jack, was around last week and we hear no kicking.

There is not much changing of homes in this locality this season. A Mr. Moore of Vandeleur has moved on to lots 2 and 3, con. 18—the old Dugald Ferguson home. We also hear that Archie Clark, son of Mr. and Mrs. Neil D. Clark, is starting out on his own, on a farm near Ventry, con. 10, Proton. We will miss you from the Park, Archie, and at church on Sunday, but have confidence in your ability to make life a success.

A lucky number of our young men (7), drove away on Friday evening to a house-warming on the highway, well on the way to Dundalk. Kitchener Flood and Leslie Watson are daily practising on skis. They can now jump into the gravel pit and next year may be in the race at Eugenia. Mrs. George Haw came home last week, having spent a month with her daughters in Toronto.

Jack McMillan also got back, having spent two weeks in the city. W. O. Dingwall, teacher, spent the week end at the parental home near Hopeville.

We heard of a young man getting lost in his father's field on Sunday night. He says it was foggy. Milford Corbett attended the High School at Home in Dundalk Friday night.

IN DAYS OF YORE

25 YEARS AGO

Taken from Review file, Mar. 9/11 Mr. A. J. Smith, a general merchant in Durham can play any number of Durham players at a time in checkers. He extends the challenge for any six men within 50 miles of Durham to play for two hours simultaneously games to count, loser to pay for oyster supper.

Friday night about 100 people gathered at the home of Mr. and Mrs. A. Crutchley, base line, Glenelg for the purpose of doing honor to them before leaving for their new home on the Hunter farm north of town. Mr. Thos. McFadden read the address eulogizing their good neighborhood, while Mr. Thos. McGirr and Mr. Henry Sealey presented them with two handsome upholstered chairs.

Messrs A. C. Grant, Allan Bell W. Lavelle, W. Laidlaw Jr., Bert McDonald, R. Laidlaw and Dr. Pickering drove to the Owen Sound-Chester hockey game in the Sound last Thursday.

Congratulations to Mr. George Hopkins, Glenelg and Miss Cassie Allen, who Tuesday had the nuptial knot tied and today, Wednesday, Mr. Will Hunter, Hanover, and Miss Jennie Wilson of town, are being joined in wedlock.

Many Westerners who have spent the winter months with friends are returning. Amongst others we notice this week Messrs Don Stewart to Togo, Sask.; Dan McDougall to Winnifred, Alta.; Robt. Reid, Dromore to Regina; Norman McGillivray to Saskatoon; Beacher Jack and Geo. Gray to Elbow, Sask.

Rev. Dr. Farquharson went to Holstein on Tuesday to moderate in a call by the Presbyterian congregation there and at Fairbairn, to Rev. Mr. Malcolm of Dutton and who for a number of years was minister at Teeswater. If Mr. Malcolm accepts the vacancy caused by Rev. Mr. Little's removal will be the briefest on record.

Priceville corr.: This is March all right: The winds from the east are penetrating and together with the rays of the sun it is hard on the complexion but as the majority of us have a complexion that cannot be disfigured by sun, rain or wind we need not mind it so much as those on whom the Creator has bestowed the gift of beauty.

Euge Hill corr.: Mr. Clifford Howell leaves this week to join his brother at Sudbury.

15 YEARS AGO

Taken from Review file, March 10/21 As we are closing the forms the news reaches us that Mr. Thos. McFadden passed away this forenoon from an attack of pneumonia, in his 77th year.

If the interest displayed at the lacrosse organization meeting is any indication of the summer's activities then Durham is in for a successful and busy season in Canada's National game. Harding's store where the meeting was held was filled to the doors and it was decided to enter three teams in the field: Intermediate, Junior and Juvenile. Officers elected were: Pres., W. A. McGowan vice pres., Harvey Wilson; Sec'y F. McIlraith; treas., J. A. Rowland; Managing committee, J. H. Harding, J. McLachlan and Ab. Noble.

Hampden corr.: We are pleased to know that little Miss Helen Young who has been suffering with pneumonia for the past two weeks is making a good progress toward recovery.

Aitken is taking possession of that vacated by Mr. Hamilton. Mr. Geo. Aitken goes into the one now occupied by Mr. W. Aitken, Mr. and Mrs. David Bakett going onto the old Mark place vacated by Geo. Aitken. At a meeting held in Robert's Hall on Tuesday of the different school sections to discuss the formation of a continuation school, the subject was aired in different lights and different angles. It was finally decided to leave it with the trustees of sections interested to call ratepayers and ascertain their attitude.

Yeovil corr.: The chief feature of the bi-monthly U.F.O. meeting this week was the debate, "Resolved that eastern Canada offers better opportunities for young men in life than western Canada." The speakers on the affirmative side were Messrs J. McDougall, Arch. Clark and Frank Hopkins, while the negative was upheld by Messrs W. H. Rogers, R. Sim and J. A. Ferguson. The judges J. Wilson, A. Haas, N. McDougall, decided in favor of the negative side by 45 to 30.
