Expectant Mother

Mothercraft Nurse Outlines Daily Routine During Pregnancy

"It is wiser to put up a fence at the top of a precipice than to maintain an ambulance at the bottom."

"The normal woman is never safer, healthier, happier, or more uplifted than during pregnancy. Life should run bright and full at these times: if the habits are simple, sensible, regular, and active, there is no ground for worry or anxiety as to childbirth. The expectant mother who takes proper care of herself, and avoids invalidism, is safeguarded all through. Nature can always be relied on to do her part kindly and surely, if the mother does hers." declares Mothercraft nurse.

"From the time of "conception" up to the time of what we call its "birth" the baby is a living, growing being, entirely dependent on its mother. All that the past can do for the baby, all that "heredity" can do, has been done nine months before its

If the mother fails to take proper exercise and to breathe pure air she brings on indigestion and constipation, and tends to suffer headache, neuralgia, and weariness, because her blood becomes impure and poisoned. The most delicate and sensitive parts of the unborn child are its rapidly growing brain and nervous system; naturally these suffer most, but impurity of the mother's blood leaves no part of the young organism undamaged.

A baby fed for the first nine months of its life on impure blood (whether the impurity is due to the mother suffering from indigestion and constipation or to her taking alcohol) comes into the world handi-

The first duty of every mother is to spare no pains to keep herself strong and healthy and her blood pure, for the sake of her child. Indeed, she owes this duty to herself also, because if the mother is in good health before the baby is born she need have no anxiety that anything will go wrong at the time of birth." (Extract from The Expectant Mother and Baby's First Months by Sir F. Truby King, C.M.G., M.B., B.Sc. (Public Health Edin.)

She should see her doctor early in pregnancy, also her dentist. Her husband should be interested. So much health and happiness comes from sensible co-operation and life is easier when we take our responsibilities seriously.

Exercise-An expectant mother should never shut herself indoors, but go out for a walk every day. She should carry on a normal life. A daily rest should be taken.

Water-Plenty of water to drink in between meals. Water helps in removing waste products from the body. Each organ of elimination must be kept in good working order if she is going to be healthy and have a pure blood stream. Diet in regnancy-The mother and child's health depends so much on proper diet. Fresh fruit and vegetables, whole wheat meal flour, whole grain cereals, milk, butter, eggs, cheese and fish. Minerals are as important as vitamins. Care must be taken in cooking vegetables. Cook in very little water or in casserole, if cooked in water, use as little water as possible and do not throw this away but use as a soup. It contains valuable mineral salts. It is an excellent idea to take some raw apple or other raw fruit at each meal. The Health of mother and child depends on good prenatal care." -Published under the auspices : the Canadian Mothercraft Society.

Parting Guest

I know I welcomed winter With a delighted smile; He was a zestful, keen guest, i loved him-for a while-

But love is only transient, It passes like a song. Winter wore his welcome out By staying far too long.

And such bewitching sunshine Entices me today; It has a touch of April And just a hint of May.

Even my white hyacinth And golden daffodils Take on an added beauty From sunny window sills.

So I speed my parting guest With an impatient frown, March wind, will you hurry, please, And show him out of town! Montreal. -K. A. Mackinnon.

Don't Entrust Your Own or Your Family's Well-Being to Unknown Preparations

BEFORE you take any preparafor the relief of headaches; or the pains of rheumatism, neuritis or neuralgia, ask your doctor what he thinks about it - in comparison with "Aspirin.

We say this because, before the discovery of "Aspirin," most socalled "pain" remedies were advised against by physicians as being bad for the stomach; or, often, for the heart. And the discovery of "Aspirin" largely changed medical practice.

Countless thousands of people who have taken "Aspirin" year in and out without ill effect, have proved that the medical findings about its safety were correct.

Remember this: "Aspirin" 18 rated among the fastest methods yet discovered for the relief of headaches and all common pains . . . and safe for the average person to take "Aspirin" Tablets are made in
