Rev. C. Queen Honored by his Home Folk

On the evening of Wednesday, June 24th, the people of St. Pauls parish Egremont, gathered at the home of Mr and Mrs Jno. C. Queen to do honor to their son Rev. Carman J. Queen, recently ordained to the office of deacon. Miss Irene Tucker read the following address:

Rev. C. J. Queen—

With mixed feelings of pride and admiration, we your friends and members of St. Pauls have gathered this evening to heartily congratulate you on your recent ordination as Deacon. For the past few years we have watched your rising success, with great interest and we feel indeed proud that one of our number should be called to work in the vineyard of our loving Redeemer and Lord. You have won our every confidence and we shall ever watch your advance even though you do not labor in our midst; out—yet only a short distance. In times when our work seems to be in vain we shall be greatly encouraged by the thought that one of our community has benefited therefrom.

Words fail to adequately express our deep emotions at this time. We beg you to accept this small token as proof of our sincerity at this occasion and with it goes our prayer that heaven will continue to shower upon you her richest blessings. May God ever guide your footsteps that you grow not weary in His service for the interests of humanity at large, and finally, when at the brink of Eternity, may you be able to say with the apostle Paul, "I have fought a good fight, I have finished the course, I have kept the faith."

—Signed by the members of St. Pauls and friends.

The presentation was made by Mrs. James Hargrave. The gift consisted of a large sum of money to be used by Rev. Mr. Queen in the purchase of some clerical garments to remember the people of St. Paul by. Mr Queen expressed his deep appreciation of the genuine kindness of the people of the parish in this act of remembrance. He also said how grateful he is for the friendly interest which they have consistently shown in him.

The Rev. J. R. Thompson, rector of St. Pauls, spoke of the high personal regard, in which as a brother clergyman he holds Mr. Queen. On many occasions he has stood in his debt for neighborly acts of kindness. He spoke also of the excellent college record which Mr Queen has achieved; citing among other things a tribute recently paid to him by one of the members of the College Faculty—and the winning a few months ago of the Sylvanus Joy prize for oratory. Seven musical numbers were rendered by the Lake orchestra, by Mr. Harry Seales and by Mrs (Rev.) J. R. Thompson. After lunch the social evening was brought to an end with prayers offered by the rector on behalf of Rev. C. J. Queen and of every member of the parish.

FAST DRIVERS and SLOW DRIVERS.

This message is addressed to BOTH of YOU

ALL OF US who drive motor cars have our individual preferences as to the speed at which we travel. Some of us like to drive slowly; others like to travel faster. (I am not referring to the "speed fiends" who drive recklessly and dangerously, but to the rank and file of sane, sensible drivers.) There is a wide variation in our preferred speeds.

When the road is clear and open, we have every reasonable right to give these preferences free rein, and travel at any speed which suits us—up to the legal limit. But I believe you will agree that when traffic is heavy, it is neither courteous nor fair to travel faster or slower than the general speed at which the traffic is moving.

At such times, the deliberately slow driver blocks the road for all who are behind him. It becomes irksome and wearying to those who have long trips still ahead of them—and finally induces them to "cut in" or take chances which they would never take under other circumstances.

On the other hand, it is equally discourteous for fast drivers to cut in and out of the traffic lane when traffic is moving at a reasonable speed. It upsets and unnerves the more cautious drivers; increases the accident hazard tremendously; and invariably saves only a very FEW minutes of time in the end.

I appeal to BOTH kinds of drivers to let themselves be governed by the true SPIRIT of Courtesy—to consider the convenience and the safety of fellow-motorists, as well as their rights. Let us show the same courtesy to others on the highway, that we show to visitors in our homes. It will go a long way toward making our highways SAFER, and in making motoring still more pleasant.

Sincerely yours,

B. J. Weston
