

PRICEVILLE

Owing to prevailing hot weather, the attendance at church (45), was not up to the usual especially those from a distance naturally absenting themselves. For the first hymn Rev. H. E. Wright played the accompaniment. Later Mrs E. Watters filled the breach and played for the anthem very efficiently. The evening service was held in the cooler basement, when the minister again played the organ and gave a fine address on "Who and what is God", quoting many familiar passages of the Saviour's teaching and also passages from the Old Testament scriptures.

Our fine annual Garden Party in connection with St. Columba United will be held on Friday, July the 24th. A play will be given by talent from Maxwell under supervision of Rev. Bushel of that town. This club was here once before and gave good satisfaction. Their play this time is said to be (in name only) "No man wanted, or admitted". Mr McIntyre a jolly coon from Dundalk and other talent will take part. Supper served from 6 to 8. Program 8.15. Admission 35c and 20c.

Miss Beatrice Watters accompanied by her married sister and two children from Toronto, are on a short visit to their brother Elford Watters. The basket bottom factory here run by Mr. J. C. Harrison is doing rushing business, with much more work ahead.

Jane Karstedt, eight year old daughter of Mr and Mrs F. G. Karstedt has passed with honors the grade 4 Toronto Conservatory examination, coming first among the pupils trying at Owen Sound centre. Congratula-

HYMENEAL

SINCLAIR-ANDERSON

Amidst a lovely floral setting at the home of the bride's parents, Mr and Mrs A. Anderson of Buffalo, in the presence of thirty five guests the marriage of thirteenth on Saturday, July 11th at 7 p.m. of Jordis Pauline eldest daughter of Mr and Mrs A. Anderson, Buffalo to Hugh Charles, son of Mr and Mrs J. Sinclair, Hopeville, Rev. Dr. Bruce Swift officiated.

To the strains of Lohengrin's Bridal Chorus, played by Miss Edith Warkfold the attractive bride, gowned in white silk organdy and carrying white roses, sweet peas and baby's breath, was given in marriage by her father Mr A. Anderson. The bride-maid was Miss Grace Sweet. She wore a frock of peach organdy, her flowers were pink roses and sweet peas. The groom was supported by Mr Henry Rudolph. After the reception light refreshments were served. The bride's grandmother, Mrs E. Englund wore grey silk and lace; Mrs A. Anderson, rose crepe with white accessories and corsage of sweet peas. Mrs J. Sinclair mother of the groom, wore pale green flowered chiffon with white accessories and corsage of sweet peas and rose buds.

The party proceeded to a down town restaurant where they were guests of Mr and Mrs Anderson at a full course dinner. The tables were beautifully decorated with pink and white floral bloom and a three-layer bride's cake. The happy couple are spending their honeymoon in Ontario.

HINCKS-TUCK

A wedding of much interest to a large circle of friends and relatives was solemnized Saturday, July 11th at high noon in Knox United church, Clifford when Isabel Catherine only daughter of Mr and Mrs Albert Tuck and Clifford Elberton Hincks, youngest son of Mr David Hincks and the late Mrs Hincks of Priceville, were united in marriage. The minister Rev. J. Hampson of Knox United church officiated. The church was beautifully decorated for the occasion. For the guests special pews were marked with white ribbon. Many friends and well wishers attended the church.

The bride was given in marriage by her father, and was prettily attired in white satin designed on simple lines with long full sleeves. Her long veil of embroidered tulle was arranged in cap effect caught with rose buds. White slippers completed her costume and she carried a shower bouquet of talisman roses, lily of the valley and maiden hair fern. Three bridal attendants preceded by two ushers formed the picturesque procession heralding the entrance of the bride. The delicate contrasting pastel tints of the bride's attendants made a symphony of color. Miss Jean Bryans cousin of the bride acted as bridesmaid, dressed in pale pink silk organdy with white picture hat and carrying a bouquet of Killarney roses and maiden hair fern. Mary Hincks niece of the groom, dressed in pale blue organdy was a pretty flower girl. Mr Donald Elmalle acted as groomsman. The ushers were Messrs Stuart Tuck and Alfred Hincks. Miss Jean Hincks, sister of the groom played the bridal chorus from Lohengrin. After the ceremony the bridal party proceeded to the home of the bride's parents where a dainty wedding breakfast was served to 35 guests. The dining room was prettily decorated in a color scheme of pink and white. The bride's table was decorated with silver baskets clarkia and baby's breath centered with a three story wedding cake. A toast was proposed by Rev. J. Hampson to the bride and responded to by the groom, while Mr Elmalle responded to a toast proposed to the attendants by the groom. Four girl friends of the bride acted as waitresses. Messrs Stuart Tuck, Alfred Hincks and John Bryans were called upon and gave short speeches.

For travelling, the bride wore a pink crepe swager suit with white accessories. The groom's gift to the bride was an aeropack and packetette to the groomsman, a silver pen knife, and to the bridesmaid, organist and flower girl silver initialed bracelets. SWINTON PARK

Our chief worry in the Park at present is the intense heat and the want of rain. Yet it is wonderful how the crops are standing it and we still trust that the showers will be sent in time to help.

Our sincere sympathy is with any who are unwell or suffering. The heat is very trying and against our will we often must lie in the shade to rest. Yet how comfortable we are when we read of the suffering and deaths in the cities! Also we think of the abundance of good spring water in Grey County. The hay is quickly being saved and a fair crop, which will at least help eke out the short straw. Even the 12th of July failed to bring the proverbial shower. Only Hepburn got the bumps.

Last Thursday night a great reception was given to one of the newly-married couples, Mr. and Mrs. John McMillan at the bride's old home, Mr and Mrs David Pride's. This Tuesday night at Black's Beach and dancing pavilion, a community reception is being tendered jointly to Mr. and Mrs. Robert Ferris and Mr. and Mrs. Fred Knox. A happy evening is anticipated.

Mr and Mrs John Lane spent Sunday with friends in Owen Sound. Margaret McKay is home from Toronto for a month's holiday. George Hatton of Toronto is holidaying this week at Ed. Heard's. Duncan McMillan spent the week end at his home here, leaving at 5.00 a.m. Monday while it was cool.

Duncan McLean Died in Glenelg on Sunday

The community was shocked at the sudden passing away of Duncan McLean, Sunday July 12th at 11 p.m. The late Mr McLean was in his usual health Saturday. Deceased was a son of the late Mr and Mrs Archibald MacLean and was born on the ninth concession, Bentinck where he lived until he was married with the exception of one year spent in North Dakota. Thirty years ago last February he was happily married to Jeanette McArthur, daughter of the late Mr and Mrs John McArthur of Glenelg. After his marriage he settled on the farm at Aberdeen which he had previously purchased from the late Jno. Collinson and lived there until about ten years ago when he retired from farming and moved to the fourth concession Glenelg, where he died. Early in life deceased became an active member of Mulock Baptist church and served as deacon of that church for some time. In politics he was a staunch Liberal. He was County Commissioner for a number of years and at the time of his death he was auditor of the Grey and Bruce Insurance Company, a position he had filled for years. He leaves to mourn his loss, his sorrowing wife and one son, Hughie; also two brothers Dan and Archie, both of Bentinck. A brother Hugh H. passed away a number of years ago in Winnipeg. Owing to the absence of his pastor, Rev. Mr. Gowdy had charge of the funeral service which was held on Tuesday and was largely attended by friends and old neighbors.

Floral tributes were as follows: a spray: Mrs MacLean and son, MacLean family, Mr and Mrs. Weppier; wreath: Mr and Mrs Dan, and Mr and Mrs Archie MacLean, McArthur family, Baptist church Durham.

The remains were laid to rest in Durham cemetery. The pall bearers were Wm. McCracken, Wm. Edge, Jas. Ewens, Earnest Blodgett, W. J. Greenwood, Donald MacLean. Much sympathy is extended to the sorrowing friends.
