

PRICEVILLE

Mr. Bell, new principal of school here, arrived on Tuesday 25th and took up his residence in the upper part of Miss Lizzie Mather's house. His young bride of 3 weeks accompanied him and they are now comfortably installed.

The prevailing showers of the past week have once more filled cisterns to the brim. That of Friday evening was a drencher.

The annual meeting of this branch of the Bible Society held on Thursday last was poorly attended, not what it should be. Rev. Mr. Greer, recently inducted at Stouffville, gave a fine address relative to the cause, and sang a solo, in fine voice and power. Miss Monica Lambert accompanied on the organ. He had been leader of a choir in Toronto for some years. Mrs. Sutherland, Treas., and W. W. Ramage, Pres., were re-elected.

With our new minister and his wife, Rev. H. E. Wright, and our new teacher, Mr. Bell, and his wife, all four musical, Priceville may be said to be looking up! Good!

Mrs. Ramsdell of New York and brother John Stohart took a trip up to Manitoulin Island, and enjoyed the trip and the scenery enroute. We were favored with a visit from her on Thursday, all too short, but warmly appreciated.

Mrs. W. J. Buckham on invitation, had Mrs. Ramsdell in for tea on Friday and had an informal conversation on old times.

Mrs. R. H. McConkey and three children took in the opening of the C.N.E. in Toronto on Friday.

Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Snell of Saskatoon, High School teacher and later school inspector called at our home in our absence, not at a dance, or a bridge party! but at a meeting of the Bible Society. He expressed it, as quite in keeping with our past. Thanks. Mrs. Snell was one of our first organists.

The winding up meeting of the memorial organization was held on Thursday, evening at the home of Mr. F. McKinnon, where all bills were settled and sec'y instructed to write thanking all who had assisted in making the service a success. It was carried that future events of this nature be held first Sunday in Aug. (D. V.), and even the prime speaker has been agreed upon. How is that for speed.

The Pres., W. G. Watson, though again moved for president, strenuously declined. Mr. J. P. McMillan was elected in his place, Mr. Watson taking the position of vice-pres. Mrs. F. McKinnon, treas., W. W. Ramage, sec'y, re-elected.

We were pleased to have a call from Rev. J. W. and Mrs. Johnston on their way home from visiting relatives at Southampton, in his holidays. Both they and the three girls are looking well. They also called on their friend, Mrs. J. C. Harrison, music teacher of their children.

The choir of United church were welcomed at the home of one of their popular members, Mrs. H. B. McLean on Wednesday night for practice.

Mr and Mrs. Bert Graham, Mr. and Mrs. Halburton, Mrs. Rudd, Miss Irene Hodgins and Mr. Donald Ross, all of Toronto were recent visitors of Ed Everist.

There was held today Monday, one of the saddest funerals for a long time, that of the little two-year old child of Mr and Mrs Roy McDermid, whose death resulted from a severe scald some days previously. It was touching in the extreme to see the little child lying there so fair and angelic in appearance, as all dead children usually are. It seems so befitting the words of the hymn sung: "He will gather — the gems for His Kingdom." A large concourse of friends and neighbors gathered to pay their tribute of sympathy to the grief stricken parents and other relatives, in the death of this, their only child. The hymns sung were appropriate: "God sees the little sparrow fall", "When He cometh" and "Gracious Saviour, gentle Shepherd". Rev. H. E. Wright conducting the service at the house and graveside, spoke feelingly and quoted many comforting passages of scripture and that of Longfellow "The air is full of farewells" to the dying, "We shall behold her more fair", etc. The pallbearers were Misses Evelyn and Viola McDermid, Florence and Mary Catherine McEachern. Flower girls were Frances Smith, Rosalie McKinnon, Anna Mae McIntyre, Anna Mae McEachern. Many varied and beautiful flowers testified to the sympathy of the contributors.

These were from: Mr Art Jackson and family, Dundalk; Mr. and Mrs. Roy Brett, Toronto; Mr J. S. McDermid and family and grandmother; Mrs Geo. Bell and daughter, Dundalk; Mr and Mrs Wm. Brown, Bunnassan; Mr and Mrs D. Smellie; Mrs McDougall and family, Sackett's Corners and many others whose names were not attached. Relatives from distant points were Mr and Mrs Geo Bell and daughter; Mr and Mrs Art Jackson and family; Mr and Mrs Wm. Nicholls; Mr and Mrs Herb Nicholls, Mr and Mrs McCormick (uncles and aunts), all of Dundalk; Mr and Mrs George Hincks Dromore; Mrs Alex. McDonald and son John and wife, Dromore; Mr and Mrs Clifford Risk, Kimberley; Mr. H. H. McDonald and sister Katie, Edge Hill and many others. Our deepest sympathy and that of the entire neighborhood, goes out to the grief-stricken parents in this, their hour of sorrow and affliction.

Choir practise will again be held on Friday evening of this week. Any wishing to make use of the voice God has given them, in the service of praise, are cordially invited and made welcome.

Work on the new bridge, 2nd con. north, is at present at a standstill for want of a better understanding, or better foundation, which? Maybe both. The Council are justified in feeling that a costly bridge, as it is to be, is not built on a quicksand foundation.

Mr Roy Watson, Detroit, a returned soldier, son of the late Alfred Watson is at present on a visit to his cousin here, W. G. Watson.

ing in Toronto, where she has been a patient in the General Hospital for the last few months. Deceased who was 72 years of age, has not been well for some time. SMITH-BIEMAN

A quiet wedding was solemnized in the Lutheran parsonage, Hanover, on Wednesday afternoon last, at 3 o'clock when Edna Caroline, second daughter of Mr and Mrs Wm. Bieman of Bentinck, was united in marriage to Clarence W., only son of Mr and Mrs F. Smith of Neustadt, by Rev. E. F. Sterz. The bride who was unattended was prettily attired in a floor length gown of pink silk net over taffeta of the same shade, trimmed with a wide sash of blue ribbon and knots of blue baby ribbon, and carried a bouquet of snap dragons, baby's breath and fern. A white felt hat and white accessories completed the costume. Following the ceremony a dainty wedding supper was served at bride's home, which was nicely decorated with pink and blue streamers and wedding bells. The table was centered with the bride's three store cake and silver bud vases. Later in the evening a large reception was held. The young couple will reside in Neustadt where the groom is conducting a garage business.

SWINTON PARK

This Monday morning the sun is shining yet the weather seems unsettled and anxious eyes are being cast at the clouds. The snipes also are calling. Fair weather for this week is needed badly for the harvest.

The Swamp College outfit with Bert Scott and Clarence Harrison in charge have done several little jobs of threshing west of the Park, giving general satisfaction. The grain is also doing all that it was expected to do, even a little better, both in quantity and quality, we are told. It will make good seed as some of it is already growing in the stook.

Schools open Tuesday with Miss Campbell back to Boothville for the fifth year and Oswald Dingwall at Swinton his second year. Miss Stewart of Ceylon is at Swamp College.

Miss Tresidder who has spent the vacation here returned to Toronto on Sunday and will take up her work on Tuesday in kindergarten school.

But we were sorry to hear of the death of another old friend Mr. And. Henry of Holstein, and with his sorrowing friends we sympathize. Few seemingly are left of those we knew well at Amos Church 60 years ago.

We notice this morning Bert Martin cutting alfalfa the second time, which is not so bad for this year.
