tic Work

in, B.C., Is

Boom

BECOMING A CHRISTIAN - Acts whom, shortly before, he had seen 16: 16-40; Phillippians 3: 7-14. | fastened to the stocks of his darkest PRINTED TEXT Acts 16: 22-34; prison without the slightest mis-

GOLDEN TEXT-Believe on the 31. And they said, Believe on the Lord Jesus, and thou shalt be Lord Jesus, and thou shalt be saved,

THE LESSON IN ITS SETTING Time-A.D. 50,

gether against them: and the mag- cost (2: 38) should be carefully comistrates rent their garments off them, pared with this passage. It is and commanded to beat them with interesting to note that what the rods.-Paul later refers to three jailer did, the whole household did. beatings with rods which he had suf- It is God's ideal that husband and fered for the gospel's sake (2 Cor. wife, and all the children should be 11: 25). This, however, is the only a family together in Christ.

stripes upon them, they cast them into prison, charging the jailor to keep them safely: 24 who having that moment as Christ could ever that he might have Christ.

The paner's neart than this. And and kindles the aspirations of men."

These have I counted for Christ.

He threw all these things overboard that moment as Christ could ever that he might have Christ.

The paner's neart than this. And and kindles the aspirations of men."

These have I counted for Christ.

The paner's neart than this. And and kindles the aspirations of men."

The paner's neart than this. And and kindles the aspirations of men."

There have I counted for Christ.

The paner's neart than this. And and kindles the aspirations of men."

The paner's neart than this. And and kindles the aspirations of men."

The paner's neart than this. And and kindles the aspirations of men."

The paner's neart than this. And and kindles the aspirations of men."

The paner's neart than this. And and kindles the aspirations of men."

The paner's neart than this. And and kindles the aspirations of men."

The paner's neart than this. And and kindles the aspirations of men."

The paner's neart than this. And and kindles the aspirations of men."

The paner's neart than this. And and kindles the aspirations of men."

The paner's neart than this. And and kindles the aspirations of men."

The paner's neart than this. And all his, immediately. They were as much saved that moment as Christ could be redeemed from sin, so Paul this that the property of the paner's near than this. And all the paner's near than the pan into the inner prison. "An inner prison. "An inner prison had no window or outlet ex." his house, and set food before them up into to be loss for the excellency of the which is of the law, but that which is of the law, but that which is of the law, but that which things which are behind—mistakes. prison had no window or outlet except a door leading into the outer and rejoiced greatly, with all his movement of the law, but that which is of the law, but that which is of the law, but that which is through faith in Christ, the right.

Notice that Paul does not speak of failures, his sins, his thwarted pure and rejoiced greatly with all his law, but that which is of the law, but that which is of the law, but that which is through failures. As a Bible or not. There are others to whom the taking of an oath means a single content of the law, but that which is through failures. As a Bible or not. There are others to whom the taking of an oath means a single content of the law, but that which is through failures. As a Bible or not. There are others to whom the taking of an oath means a single content of the law, but that which is through failures. As a Bible or not. There are others to whom the taking of an oath means a single content of the law, but that which is through failures. As a Bible or not. There are others to whom the taking of an oath means a single content of the law, but that which is of the law, but the law is through the law is the law prison, which, when closed also house, having believed in god (Cf. also believed in god (Cf. als prison, which, when closed, abso live by shirt out light and air And Acts 8: 39). The reace and for that all and air And Acts 8: 39). The reace and for that all all from the dead. By this Paul refers the profound relutely shut out light and air. And Acts 8: 39). The reace and joy that mark: "This is life eternal, that they righteousness of his own, though it to the first resurrection the resurrection of the dead. By this Paul refers things that people have said about command respect, and witnesses him, even his triumphs and success; englit to the first resurrection the resurrection the resurrection the resurrection that they him, even his triumphs and success; englit to the first resurrection to the dead. made their feet fast in the stocks."

We have in believing cannot be should know thee, the only true God, was utterly inadequate for his sal to the first resurrection, the resurhim, even, his triumphs and success: ought to be in a position to take the rection of believers, that great event is success. "The word here translated 'stocks' equalled by anything that the world is from a verb means to scrape or can ever offer us should know thee, the only true God, and him whom thou didst send, even vation, the righteousness of God in which those who are in Christ will strength to the more glorious things respect both. They cannot do not be in a position to take the strength to the more glorious things respect both. They cannot do not be in a position to take the strength to the more glorious things respect both. 5: 30; 10: 39; Gal. 3: 13; 1 Pet. 2: 7. Howbeit what things were gain Christ. Just as at the moment when

25. But about midnight Paul and Silas were praying and singing hirth an Israelite of the tribe of hirth an Israelite of the tribe of th charge, for instead of groaning and mumbling in their pain and fear,

Paul and Silas were heard talking 26. And suddenly there was a great earthquake, so that the foundations of the prison-house were shaken; and immediately all the doors were opened; and every one's bands were loosed. 27. And the jailor, being roused out of sleep and seeing the prison doors open, drew his sword and was about to kill himself, supposing that the prisoners had escaped. (Cf. 4: 31; 12: 19; 27: 42.) If the bands of the prisoners were loosed, why did they not escape? "The answer is that a semi-Oriental mob would be panic-stricken by the earthquake, and there's nothing strange that they did not escape.

28. But Paul cried with a loud woice, saying, Do thyself no harm: for we are all here. The domination of Paul's personality is here, as on so many other occasions, plainly evi-

29. And he called for lights and sprang in, and trembling for fear, fell down before Paul and Silas, 30. and brought them out and said, Sirs, what must I do to be saved? How quickly circumstances change the moods of men! A few hours before this the jailer was a hardened keeper of criminals, brutal, accustomed to looking upon suffering without the slightest emotion; now, we find him trembling, prostrate before two Jews

thou and thy house. Paul knew the answers to this question at once. In fact, he knew it better than anything else in the world. It was the one Place-Philippi, in the northeast ask him. 32. And they spake the ern part of Macedonia, about ten word of the Lord unto him, with all that were in his house. The - . | words of Peter at the conclusion of 22. And the multitude rose up to his sermon on the day of Penter-

24) or a log or timber with five hiles (four for the wrists and ankles) miser-like, he had counted his bear own scheme of saving ourselves, and on the hiles on the hiles of the wrists and ankles of the wrists and ankles of the had counted his bear own scheme of saving ourselves, and on the highest own scheme of saving ourselves.

Beautiful Mausoleum Built By Ex-Mayor

Its gleaming white stone and golden pinnacles visible for wiles across the countryside, the Foster Memorial Mausoleum has just been completed in the Foster Memorial cemetery near Uxbridge. Richly finished with many varieties of marble, mosaic work and symbolic floor designs, the interior is even more impressive than the exterior.

The building is in memory of the family of Thomas Foster, ex-mayor

A Fisherman's Eden

Standing elbow to elbow, nearly 5,000 anglers from all parts of the country, crowded the banks of the Klamath River at Klamath, Cal., as the run of Chinook salmon started on way up river (right).

fullness of His glory. Not having a until, actually, he had died with tained all that is available for him in Josus Christ, but he is determined linesses who intend to tell the truth

Epistle to the Thessalonians (2:2).

23. And when they had laid many in the jailer's heart than this And and kindles the aspirations of men."

24. And when they had laid many in the jailer's heart than this And and kindles the aspirations of men."

25. And when they had laid many in the jailer's heart than this And and kindles the aspirations of men."

26. And be found in him. Not only i.e. was willing even to die that men behind, and stretching forward to the has not been invented yet. 23. And when they had laid many stripes upon them, they east them was baptized, he and all his im. These have I counted for Christ.

9. And be found in him. Not only found in him as our Saviour, but might be redeemed from sin, so Paul is willing to be crucified with Christ.

of treasure."—H. C. G. Moule. The things which had been gain to him and accept Christ our only hope, so words of Paul's prayer in Eph. 1: 19, lated "lay hold on" is a word which the wreath of victory, and to his that there the witnesses do not kiss that there is the witnesses do not kiss that the witnesses do not kiss the witnesses do not kiss that the witnesses do not kiss the witnesses do not hiles (four for the wrists and ankles and one for the neck) or two for the feet as here.

The feet as here.

The things which had been gain to him and accept Christ our only hope, so the feet as here.

The Greek word here twice translated words of Paul's prayer in Eph. 1: 19, lay hold on that for which also I is living, loving, working in view of the Master's hand as it will extend words of Paul's prayer in Eph. 1: 19, lated "lay hold on" is a word which the wreath of victory, and to his the wreath of victory, and to his the recently and vice some of the master's hand as it will extend the wreath of victory, and to his the recently and vice some of the courts. He may have noticed the witnesses do not king the w

On Kissing the Book

Cobourg Magistrate Dictates Oath Must Be Executed Properly

The magistrate at Cobourg has laid down the dictum that witnesses must kiss the Bible properly when taking the oath, observes the Stratford Beacon-Herald.

Our sympathies are with the people who have to kiss some court Bibles at any rate. We have been in police courts where the very appearance of the Bible was enough to cause any Christian person to lose respect for the oath. We have seen Bibles that looked as if they had been picked out of a garbage can, with string tied around them. Whether the string was intended to hold the loose covers together, or to prevent the witness kissing an inside page we were unable to fathom. At any rate the demad was that the persons sworn must kiss the covers, covers that had been kissed thousone to which we have definite reference. It is undoubtedly that to hour of the night and worked their blameless "He conduct, obedience to the will of the Lord, here be referring to his martyrdom, and here be referring to his martyrdom, and here be referring to his martyrdom, or who may have been suffering or who may have been suffering which he refers in his First stripes. There could hardly be a longed to almost away be longed to almost away away be longed to almost away be long Jesus Christ." For whom I suffered which he has appropriated by faith. he reject from even the least send, even which thou didst send, even way that they will be reject both. They cannot do so 10. That I may know him, and the 12. Not that I have already ob- 14. I press on toward the goal dirty, dilapidated Bible. They should not leave the given the shower to spen be raised from among the dead. Which are yet before him. power of his resurrection. On the tained, or am already made perfect: unto the prize of the high calling at least be given the chance to open hymns unto God. Many times be fore this had the iniler imprisoned Benjamin: by training and conviction unto his death. Paul can hardly the police to the High Court, Before the war a law was passed abolishing the war a law was passed abolishing compulsory kissing of the Bible when taking oaths. The witness merely holds the Bible in the right hand and holds it aloft while repeating the formula. Mr. Roebuck recently commanded magistrates to dress in dignified form on the bench. He might inaugurate another reform and abolishs kissing of the Bible. Surely if that is antisfactory in British courts it is good enough for Ontario, too.

Movie Star Weds

Henry Jaynes Fonda and

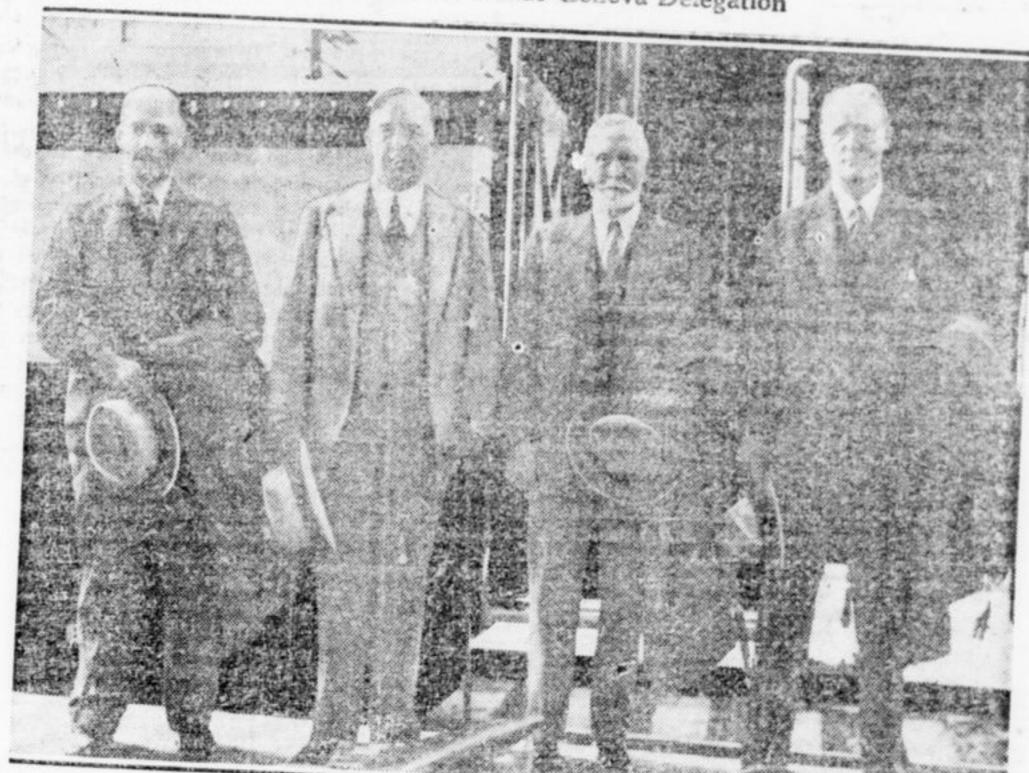

Mrs. Francis Brokaw

Married

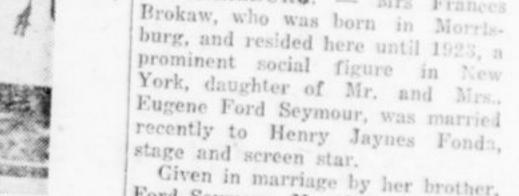

MORRISBURG. - Mrs Frances

Society Woman

Prime Minister Heads Geneva Delegation

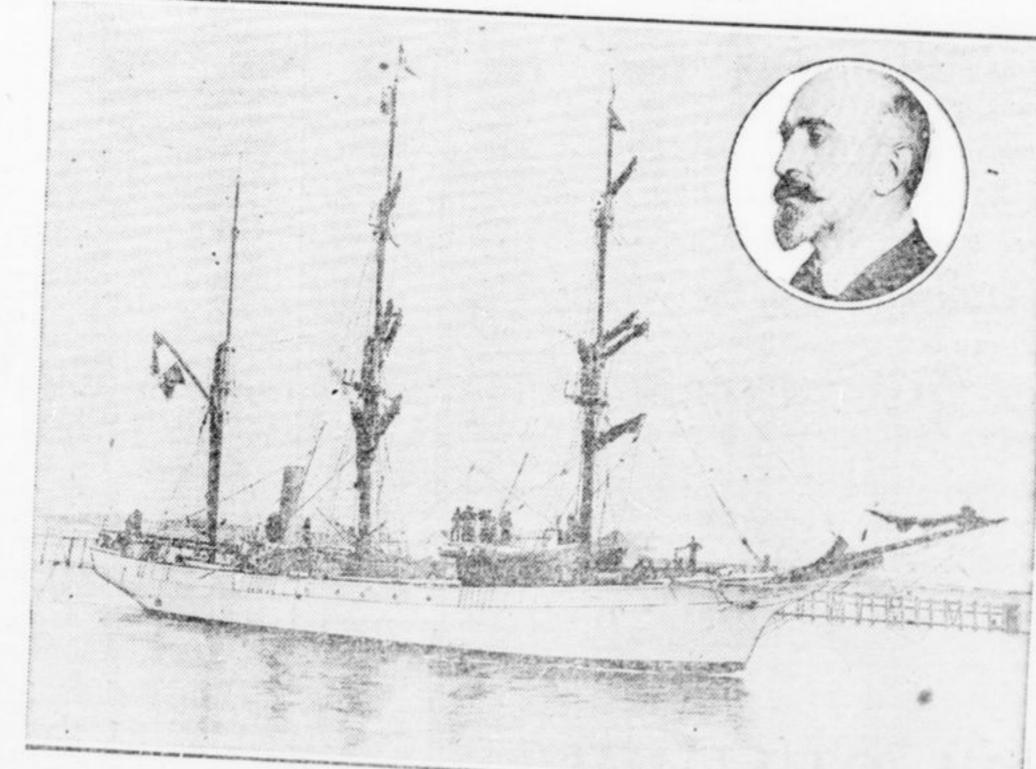

Headed by the Prime Minister, Right Hon, W. L. Mackenzie King, the Canadian delegation to the League of Nations meetings at Geneva sailed from Quebec in the Canadian Pacific liner, Empress of Britain. Left to right in the above picture are: Hon. Norman Rogers, Minister of Labor; Premier King; Senator Raoul Dandurand, and Dr. O. D. Skelton, Under-Secretary for External Affairs.

Given in marriage by her brother, Ford Seymour ,Mrs. Brokaw wore a gown of delphinium blue net over taffeta and a large hat, carrying a bouquet of delphinium and pink Sweetheart roses, Her maid of honor, Miss Marjory Seymour, a sister of the bride, was attired in a black velvet gown with puff sleeves, caught up with clusters of gardenias. The bride's mother, hirs. Seymour, wore grey net and taffeta and a grey felt picture hat, Joshua Logan was best man and Rogers Seymour, the bride's brother, and Leland Hayward were ushers. Following a reception Mrs. Fonua left by air for Hollywood.

Ill-Fated French Exploration Ship

Caught in a raging storm off the coast of Iceland, the French research vessel Pourquoi-Pas foundered taking 31 of the 32 persons aboard to their deaths. Inact is D Jean Baptiste Charcot, eminent From scientist, commander of the expedition, and one of the victims. The lone survivor of the disaster gives a graphic account of the wreck.

Launching Held Up

"Sit-down" strike of workers at the United Shipyards, Mariners Harbor, Staten Island, N.Y., indefinitely postponed the scheduled launching of the 1,500 ton destroyer Fanning, pictured in ner launching dock. Worker's punchel clocks and sat down.

Married 19 Years, May Sing Opera

STROUDSBURG, Pa.-John Winte may have to get another helper in his fish and produce market. His wife, Mary, who took care of all that, is going to try for grand opera.

Her "discoverer," Giacomo Bourg, of New York, says she's possessor of "the greatest dramatic soprano voice in the country today," She's the "real Isolde" type, he exvinimed, and with some training, probably 2 1-2 years, to round out the high notes, she'll be rendy.

Mrs. White admits to 250 pounds Her age? "Oh, leave that out," she She's been married 19 years, has daughters.

Mrs. White has never done any concert work. "I've sung for churches and clubs, of course, in our fittle