

Superior Exhibits, Fine Weather at Holstein Fair

A fine though cool day, drew a large crowd than usual to Egremont Ag. Society's fall fair at Holstein Friday last.

Excellent exhibits in all classes in the hall were in evidence and keen competition prevailed. Entries had to be outstanding in many cases to take even a third prize.

Throwing fair open to Grey County means stiff competition for Egremont ladies in baking and ladies' work departments.

Cattle classes were also well filled, but sheep and swine exhibits hardly up to average.

The Dramatic Society, under the direction of Mr. Bert Brebner, presented its three-act comedy on Friday night to a packed hall.

The cast was: Martin Francher, a twin, Louis Woodyard; Barton Francher, other twin, Frank Cowan; Mr. Finley Barnes, always sea sick, Mr. B. Brebner; Mr. Ell's Rattigan, a dill pickle dealer, Robert Christie; Z. M. Elro, a schemer, Walter Aitken; Tinker, a colored man, Vincent Ellis; Julia Porterfield, in search of adventure, Miss Eileen Smith; Mrs. Small, the landlady, Miss A. Dyce; Sparkie Dennis, with a nice new job, Mrs. J. Duke; Mrs. Ellis Rattigan, social climber, Miss N. Shortt; Cora Rattigan, in search of romance, Miss Alma Treleven; the waitress, who serves tea, Miss A. Dyce.

Between acts the McDermid orchestra of Mount Forest supplied music. Concert receipts were $83.00 and with gate in afternoon, and net proceeds of dance and booths, almost $350 was realized.
