TOWN TOPICS

Knox Church, Durham will hold the annual fowl supper, Thursday, Nov. 26th.

Knox church, Normanby Sunday School entertainment will be held on Friday night, Nov. 13th. Good program and refreshments will be served. Admission 25c. and 15c.

A public meeting will be held in Lamash school on Friday, Nov. 13th 1936 at 8.30. Provincial questions will be dealt with in addresses by F. R. Oliver, M.P.P. and others.

Held Crokinole Social.
Knox Evening Auxiliary were hostesses at a progressive crokinole social in Knox Church schoolroom on Monday night, when 11 tables were in play. Miss Marjorie Kerr won the ladies' prize, and another Varney resident, Wilbert Blyth, the men's, after winning a draw from Keith Deaton. The ladies served lunch at the close, and cleared over $11 on the event.

Community Dance Went Over Big.
The Town Hall was thronged last Friday evening for the dance staged by the new Community Club, when some two hundred enjoyed the night in old-time and modern steps. Disappointment was felt when the Walkerton orchestra did not appear, but local musicians carried on and supplied good music. About $50 will be cleared, the amount going to park improvement. President Willis and his committee are very grateful to the ladies of the town for their generosity in providing ample refreshments for the lunch.

A Night on Africa.
On Wednesday night in Knox Church schoolroom, a good number were present to hear about Africa from the lips of a returned missionary, E. F. Rice. With the address went many fine slides, which conveyed more than lips can tell, however fluent they may be. Mr. Rice for many years, has evangelized under the Sudan Interior Mission, his work in the main lying in Portuguese West Africa. He told a full story of the primitive habits of the people, their manners and customs, and also of the readiness and eagerness with which they hear the gospel message. At the close, Mr. Rice sang a few hymns in native dialect. With Mrs. Rice, he hopes to return to Africa next year. At present, they are guests of Mrs. Thos. Banks.

HYMENEAL

SMITH—MacQUARRIE

A quiet wedding was solemnized Saturday morning, Nov. 7th, 1936, at the Presbyterian manse, when Rev. D. Gowdy united in marriage, Isabel MacQuarrie, daughter of Mrs. MacQuarrie and the late Duncan MacQuarrie to W. Howard Smith, son of Mr and Mrs William Smith of Dorloch. After the ceremony the happy couple left by motor for a trip to London, Chatham and Detroit.

DAVIS—CAMPBELL

On Saturday, Oct. 31st a very pretty but quiet wedding took place at the home of Mr and Mrs James Vangells, 561 Logan Ave., Toronto, when Miss Joyce Davis, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Lowden Davis, Normanby, became the bride of Mr. Wm. Campbell of Toronto. At three o'clock the bride entered the parlor in a beautiful dress of white satin with rhinestone trimmings, and a white silk veil caught with orange blossoms. She carried a bouquet of American beauty roses and maiden hair fern. Miss Velma Davis sister of the bride was bridesmaid and was dressed in rust crepe and carried a bouquet of pink baby mums. Mr. Thos. Cartwright of Toronto was groomsmen.

After the ceremony Mr. and Mrs. Vangells entertained at a reception for the young couple. Among the guests were Mr and Mrs Lowden Davis of Normanby, Mr. Wm. Yandt and Miss Marguerite Hubbs of Bloomfield.

Later the young couple left for a short honeymoon at the home of the bride's parents near Neustadt, where a reception was held for them on Tuesday evening, Nov. 3rd, when they received many beautiful and useful gifts. Later Mr and Mrs Campbell left for Toronto where they will reside. The bride's travelling dress was navy blue with coat, hat and shoes to match.

War Veterans Service at Baptist Church

The Veterans of the Great World War marched to Durham Baptist church on Sunday, Nov. 8th to the tune of "Onward Christian Soldiers". The music was played in excellent time and harmony by our town band. The pulpit was decorated with the British flag and draped the Church's Honour Roll. The pastor, Rev. J. T. Priest, B.A., welcomed the veterans in behalf of the church and said that equal honours were due them with those who hadn't returned as they had been through the awful carnage of death and destruction, and that still to endure the memories of the horrors of war; and that the rest of Canada will always owe to our soldiers of the Great World War, a debt of gratitude we can never repay. The preacher chose for his theme, "A good soldier of Jesus Christ," from the text in II Timothy 2:3-4: "Thou therefore endure hardness as a good soldier of Jesus Christ. No man that warreth entangleth himself with the affairs of this life; that he may please him who hath chosen him to be a soldier." He pointed out that Paul was worthy of a respectful hearing because he was a veteran of many battles in a long campaign and bore in his body the marks, or scars, of his warfare for Christ; and therefore his personal experiences in life and challenge to loyalty, obedience and endurance.

A good soldier is loyal to his King and country, commander and comrades. He is loyal to the flag. In following the British flag, we follow the cross: three of them, St. George's, St. Andrew's and St. Patrick's; each of whom gave his life in service to Christ and His cause. So "in the name of our God we will set up our banners."

We can hardly consider a good soldier, said the preacher, without thinking of his obedience. "Not theirs to make reply, not theirs to reason why, just theirs to do and die," if need be, but obey they must. Christ, our Commander, could revolutionize the world if His followers gave a soldier's obedience to His commands. The Golden Rule for instance, or, "Go ye into all the world and preach the Gospel to every creature," including the man next door or in the next block. We should listen for the signals of our Commander, as did the soldiers in the roar of battle in the Great World War. We fight to win back territory for Christ. All of us and all of each of us belongs to God. But the Devil has too much of us and too many of us. We battle against an invader. In spite of all the commensurable Peace talk these days, if the enemy should invade our shores, there would be few pacifists in Canada. Every able-bodied man would fight to defend his home and loved ones. But the Devil uses sleeping gas to put souls to sleep so that they will not be alive to their danger and the need of vigorous fighting. We need the warning of the old hymn, "My soul be on thy guard, Ten thousand foes arise, The hosts of sin are pressing hard, To draw thee from the skies. Then watch and fight and pray, The battle ne'er give o'er, Renew it boldly every day, And help Divine implore".

In this struggle against sin we require endurance. Paul in his experiences of stoning and shipwreck stripes and beatings, imprisonment, hunger and thirst, cold and nakedness, poverty and peril, knew what it is to endure hardness as a good soldier of Jesus Christ. So many in these days are looking for something soft, which is all right if at the same time he can be a good soldier of Jesus Christ. But being a good soldier must come first and foremost. A good soldier makes the best of circumstances as he finds them, for they are secondary things, but he will endure mud, and rough fare, and lack of sleep, or go without a square meal for days, for even meals and sleep are secondary to being a good soldier.

The great lesson of our text is that the Christian Soldier is required to put the same concentration of purpose into his fight against sin, as a soldier on war service. His family business, social life, and personal comfort must all stand aside when duty calls. It isn't hard, said the preacher, it isn't hard to attend prayer meeting, or Sunday services, or to sacrifice a bit of your time and mental and physical energies for the carrying on of Christ's campaign against sin and Satan, when you compare these things with your experiences at the battle front.

But some of you may not be good soldiers of Jesus Christ. I therefore challenge you to enlist at-once in the victorious army of King Jesus, for "He must reign till He hath put all enemies under His feet." In spite of world conditions today, notwithstanding that there are wars and rumors of wars, everything is drawing steadily and surely to His final triumphant victory.

In recruiting days, only the physically fit were accepted for service. But in the army of Jesus, He will enlist all who come, old and young, male and female, sick or vigorous, if they will become His followers: infidels, drunkards, deserters, enemies, spiritually blind or crippled.—Fall in—for He said, "Him that cometh to Me, I will in no wise cast out." Whosoever will, let him come and endure hardness as a good soldier of Jesus Christ.

Local Young People to Play Snappy Musical Comedy

Norma Gagnon as Patricia Monroe, who is an heiress to millions but masquerades as a poor eleven year old orphan, and Gordon Rennie, as Bob Randall, who according to letters home has been very successful in perfecting a new paint process but in reality is the world's light weight boxing champ, holding the title but little cash, will play the leading roles in the famous musical comedy success, "It's a Knockout", to be presented by the Durham Red Cross Society in the town hall next Thursday and Friday, Nov. 19 and 20.

Bob with his manager, Spike Maloney (Hugh Cassidy) and one of his pals, Fred Saunders (Jack Gagnon) drives to his home town and is greatly annoyed to find that his sister Jessie (Marjorie Noble) has adopted Patricia in his name. Patricia, better known as Patti, falls in love with Bob and starts out systematically to win him over.

Bob's true occupation is revealed by two village gossips, Miranda Matthews (Alma Kress) and Sarah Smithers (Isabel Jamieson), who together with old Caleb Harper (Reg. Steeds) do a comic song and dance.

The part of Lora Ruffington Claypool Allerton Beasley, an Englishman and sultor of Patti's will be taken by Tom Webb; Winnie Richardson, who can't pronounce her "R's", by Jean Rowe; Henry Randall, Bob's father, by Wallace Thompson and Lyman Ross, who gave a party, by Harry Blake.

This talented cast will be supported by six chorus groups who will entertain you with a variety of songs and dances. Solo parts will be taken by Norma Gagnon, Marjorie Noble, Jean Rowe and Gordon Rennie. A prologue by about 30 children will bring the total number taking part in this spectacular community entertainment to 104. If you enjoy catchy tunes, good comedy, bright colorful costumes, lively dances by lovely girls, then don't miss the performance next Thursday or Friday. Tickets are selling quickly and although there are a few good seats left these will be taken soon. A sellout seems assured. Tickets may be had from any member of the Red Cross Society or the cast and chorus.

DIVISION COURT

DOCKET WAS LIGHT

Only two cases were before His Honour Judge Morley at November Division Court sittings Tuesday, also three Judgment summonses, and the Court adjourned before noon.

W. J. Vollett vs. Ken. Machan of Monkton, was an action for $10.50, for balance owing on wood sold to Machan. Machan entered a counterclaim of $13. After hearing some conflicting evidence, Vollett was given judgment for $9.50 and costs, and the counterclaim was dismissed.

W. J. Vollett vs. Murray Aero Corporation, Toronto, was an action for balance of $10.75 due for trucking a disabled aeroplane to Toronto a year ago. As $10 of charge had already been paid by the Corp., and defendant did not appear, judgment was given Vollett for $10.75 and costs.

Veterans Hold Memorial Service and Banquet

Out of respect to their fallen comrades on Remembrance Day, Durham and vicinity ex-service men, about fifty strong, marched to the cenotaph at 7 p.m. for the annual memorial service. The veterans were commanded by Lieut. D. M. Saunders and preceded by Durham Band.

Many of the citizens of the town were also assembled for the service which was presided over by Comrade Harold McKechnie, in the absence of Mayor Macdonald, through illness. After singing of "O God our help in ages past," Rev. D. Gowdy offered prayer and Rev. R. G. Halbert read the scripture lesson from Rev. 7:9-17. Rev. W. H. Smith gave a very timely address, recalling the sacrifices those who fell had made for us, and the indebtedness of our country and people to those who returned, many handicapped as a result of their experiences. He urged the necessity of peace-loving nations and peoples to band together to be a powerful threat to the nations who like bullies, desire to foment trouble or war.

Wreaths were deposited at the cenotaph by the Province of Ontario; Red Cross; I.O.D.E. and the veterans. Comrade G. R. Padfield read the roll of the fallen. Bandmaster Yvris sounded the Last Post and Rev. J. T. Priest pronounced the benediction.

The service concluded the returned men marched to the Town Hall, where they were the guests of the I. O. D. E. for their annual fowl supper. This year the boys say it was "better than ever" and are loud in their praise of the hospitality of the ladies of Canadian Greys I. O. D. E.

About seventy-five shared in the supper, and for the program following, the president of the local Veterans' Association, H. C. McKechnie, was toastmaster. Comrade C. K. Padfield led the community singing, with Mr. Wilder as pianist. The toast to "Our Fallen Comrades" was responded to by a two minute silence. Al. (Mickey) Saunders gave a lively solo in costume, Alex. Graham some step-dancing, and Jim Langrill entertained with some army songs. The feature of the night was Comrade J. B. Duffield's "splendid talk on "The Vimy Pilgrimage", illustrated by many fine slides, the pictures all being taken by himself.

Comrade C. H. Darling proposed a toast to the I.O.D.E., to the press, and to all who had assisted in the entertainment. Letters of regret for their absence were read from General Draper, and Rev. B. D. Armstrong.

Officers elected were: Hon. Presidents—Col. F. Hunter, M.P.P., Gen. Draper; President—H. C. McKechnie; Vice-President—E. Schenk; Secretary—G. R. Padfield; Executive—D. McCallum, D. M. Saunders, A. C. Kinnee Hector H. Macdonald.

It was decided in two weeks' time, to meet the secretary of the Legion, Mr. Menzies of Toronto, here, to discuss the formation of a branch of the Legion in Durham.

Mayor Macdonald Addresses Institute Members

A very interesting meeting of Durham Women's Institute was held at the home of Mrs W. A. Macdonald on Thursday, Nov. 5th.

It was arranged to send Miss Winnie Blyth as delegate to the convention which is to be held in Toronto. Antique quilts will be on display. A letter of condolence is to be sent to the family of Mr. Geo. Putnam who passed away at his home in Toronto. He was superintendent of the Women's Institute for over thirty years. Community singing was held and Mrs Thomas gave a piano solo, which was much enjoyed. Mayor Macdonald gave a talk on bees and their habits. His talk was very interesting and instructive, concerning honey and its uses. The roll call was answered with something to laugh at, everyone taking part. Mr. George Noble, principal of Durham Public School, gave current events. He referred to Canada, United States to the south, and abroad. This item was well given. Collection was taken and Mrs Macdonald and group served a very tasty lunch. Remember the white gift shower at the December meeting.
