A reception was tendered Mr and Mrs Earl Mead on Wednesday evening of last week at the home of the bride's parents, Mr and Mrs Abraham Hooper, when about 75 guests spent a pleasant evening in chat, cards and dancing, the Hooper orchestra furnishing the music. The company dispersed in the wee' small hours, after wishing the bride and groom, long and happy married life.

ALLAN'S CORNERS
On Sunday last Rev. Allison of Hanover conducted the Thanksgiving services in St. Paul's church in the afternoon and evening, and his messages were much appreciated.

The choir was assisted by Trinity church choir of Durham and sang an anthem at each service. Owing to inclemency of the weather the congregations were not as large as usual.

On Friday evening of last week the A.Y.P.A. met at the home of M and Mrs Farr Lawrence with an attendance of over 60 including visitors and children. The president, Mr. Morris Matthews was in charge of the meeting. The general business was discussed and a few more numbers added to the roll. Mr Ben Firth was the convener, having charge of the following program: Maple Leaf was sung by all, followed by readings by Miss Lenore Davis "In Flanders Fields"; Mr Wallace Matthews, "England's Dead", and Miss Pearl Gordon on "The Song My Paddle Sings"; then came the musical contest, the prize winner being Verdon Watson. The piano accompanist for the evening was Mrs. J. C. Queen, an illustrated talk on the story of cocoa, was given by Mr. Firth, which was quite interesting. Other contests were indulged in, followed by a duet by Mr and Mrs Reg. Ramage. A vote of thanks was tendered the host and hostess for their kind hospitality. The meeting was brought to a close by singing the national anthem. Lunch was served.

Mr and Mrs Chas. McGillivray of Yeovil visited on Sunday with Mr. and Mrs Wm. Atchison.

Mr. Harold Glenholme, sister Rita and Florence Bolger of Durham, who attended the Thanksgiving services at St. Paul's Sunday, spent the evening at the home of J. C. Queen.

The Maple Leaf Club met at the home of Mr Carman Hargraves on Thursday evening of last week with a large attendance. Business was discussed and lunch served, followed by a few hours of socialism.

On Nov. 27th the A.Y.P.A. will hold their next meeting at the church which will be a missionary meeting under the supervision of Mr. J. Ferguson. Lantern slides will be shown and in addition, lunch dined under 12 free.

Miss Edith Hunter has gone to Toronto recently to spend a few weeks.

Unfortunately Mary Matthews who playing at school, fell and had a bone in her wrist fractured. It will mean a few weeks at home from school.

HYMENEAL
HOOPER—MEAD

A very interesting event took place in the home of Mr and Mrs A. Hooper, Egremont on Wednesday, Nov. 11, when their daughter, Annie Irene was united in marriage to Earl Milton Mead of Egremont, son of Mr. Robert Mead, Unity, Sask, and the late Mrs Mead, Rev. Robt. Honeyman of Dromore performed the marriage ceremony in the presence of some thirty guests. The bride charmingly attired in white crepe, with lily of the valley in her hair and carrying a bouquet of white and red carnations and ferns, entered the living room on the arm of her father and took her place beside the groom under an evergreen arch decorated in white and pink. They were unattended. The wedding music, Lohegrin's "Bridal Chorus" was played by Miss Kathleen Smith, and Mrs Reg. Ramage sang, "O Promise Me."

Following congratulations the guests partook of the wedding supper, the table being centred with the three storey wedding cake topped with a silver ball and lily of the valley and made by the bride's mother. Rev. Honeyman proposed the toast to the bride to which the groom responded. There were 30 guests present, and the table attendants were Mrs Murray Wells and Mrs. Geo. Hooper, aunts of the bride.

In the evening over eighty guests were present at the reception, the bride wearing navy triple sheer gown and matching accessories. The music for dancing was provided by the Hooper orchestra. After a short wedding journey, to Toronto and other points. Mr. and Mrs. Mead begin home making on the groom's farm in Egremont.
