PRICEVILLE AND VICINITY

PRICEVILLE

The annual fowl supper which was held on Friday night in St. Andrew's church was a decided success and was well attended. The tables were laden with all good things to eat and plenty of fowl were left over. A splendid concert was held in the auditorium of the church. Mr. Thos. Nichol acted as chairman and presided very efficiently. A play, "Aunt Maggie's Will" was well given. The cast was: Misses Nellie McLean, A. McEachern, Margaret McArthur, Mrs. Wilf. Watson, Mrs. Dan Campbell, Mrs. Brady Irwin, Mrs. J. A. Nichol, Mrs. Elmer Watson, Mrs. John Nichol, Mrs. Jack McMeekin. The Sharpe Orchestra from Dornoch with piano, banjo and violin, gave several selections which were thoroughly enjoyed. Mr. Roy Langford, Flesheron, sang a couple of solos and responded graciously to encores, which were much enjoyed by the audience. Rev. N. MacDonald gave a recitation "When McAllister danced before the King". Mr. Crawford Sharp sang a solo "Great Granddad" and the encore "Great Grandma", which were pleasing numbers. Rev. Mr. Wright also gave a brief address. The proceeds were nearly $63.00.

HOPEVILLE

The regular monthly meeting of Hopeville W.I. will be held Dec. 9 at the home of Mrs. Wm. Jack With Christmas as the theme. Mr. Showell will give an address. The W.M.S. of United Church will hold their annual meeting at the home of Mrs. Robt. Crawford. Mr. John Sinclair is expected home from Orangeville Hospital Tuesday of this week. Mr. Walter Benham Jr. spent a week with his sisters in Toronto. A farewell party was held at the Hardman home last Friday evening before their departure for their new home in Luther. Neighbors also gathered at the home of Mrs. Wade to spend an evening before she moved to Mt. Forest, so there is quite a change on Con. 10. Mr. Howard Riddell with friends visited the Royal Winter Fair last week. Nomination passed off quietly with not a large attendance. No protestors, and the former Council returned by acclamation.

SWINTON PARK

Cold and clear; perhaps the frost a little extreme for so early in the winter. We are already counting the days, not only to Christmas, but until we can expect warm weather next spring, but we will try to just live one day at a time. This first of December is fine; skates are being sharpened and ice getting into shape. Hockey will be the sport now. Hope you Durham boys will qualify to meet the Maple Leafs in the days to come. The Swinton Blackbirds are oiling up and will be out for sport. Wilfred Black is out chasing the foxes and gets one here and there. Jim Hardy and his man, the other Jim, are cutting logs and wood. Howard Watson and sons also are in the bush taking out logs. Walter Knox and Dave Brown are working in bush and mill for John Haw and son. Much sympathy is expressed in the Park for the McCannel family near Proton Station, the daughters and sons of the late Mr. and Mrs. Malcolm McCannel. The eldest daughter and son are both seriously ill, and others of the family not in good health. Mrs. Bertha McDougall of Sacketts Corners and Annie McCannel of Boothville, are assisting in the home. Autos are almost out of use in the Park. There are snow drifts, and unless you have anti-freeze, you are likely to get steam up. Chickens and geese are being slaughtered for market, and you had better be quiet if you happen in when the good wife is covered with down. Swamp College teacher, Miss Stewart and pupils are preparing for a concert.

ZION

We are having real winter weather at present. Mr. and Mrs. Henry Beaton, Blanche and Gordon, were guests of Mr. and Mrs. Jim Peart Sunday evening. The young people and S.S. pupils are busy preparing for the annual Christmas Tree entertainment. Mr. and Mrs. Carl Atchison, Berkeley, and Miss L. Atchison, Victoria Corners were guests at R. T. Edwards', Sunday. Miss Gladys Firth who has been over a week under Dr. B. Jamieson's care is still seriously ill. A number of young people from here attended the social evening put on by the Edge Hill Junior Institute. Mr. Cameron Robertson of Strachclair, Manitoba; Mr. and Mrs. Glad Edgar of Gorrie; Mr. and Mrs. Birks Robertson and Dorothy of Riverside, were recent guests with Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Greenwood. Congratulations to Mr. Wilbert Haley and Miss Lizzie McGrath who were married last Thursday morning.

AMONG THE CHURCHES

The Presbyterian Ladies' Aid and Y.W.A. held their bazaars, Saturday afternoon in the rooms over McLachlan's Store. This was a very successful affair due to the untiring efforts of the members during the past months. The fancy work was in charge of Mrs. Cowdy, Miss Calder and Mrs. Burgess. The novelty table, Mrs. Howell, Mrs. Alexander, Mrs. Darling and Miss Marjorie Pickering. Mrs. Grant was busy at the candy table and Mrs. Blair and Mrs. McPherson looked after the sale of home-made baking. Mrs. Lawson and Mrs. Turnbull were most efficient in looking after the tea tables, while Mrs. E. S. McArthur, Mrs. Blair, Miss Renwick and Mrs. Keller waited on the supper tables.

GREEN GROVE

Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Jacques entertained a number of friends to dinner on Sunday in honor of their 25th wedding anniversary. Mr. and Mrs. John McGirr visited early in the week at her brother's Mr. Reuben Noble of Hutton Hill. Mrs. Smallman and Mrs. Picken of Knox, Normandy, spent a few days with their sister, Mrs. Arthur Lawrence. We are glad to report that all the sick people are improving. Miss Jean Jacques is visiting her sister, Mrs. John Styles of Durham. Miss Dorothy Lawrence is assisting Mrs. Wm. Patterson in the home at present. Messrs John McGirr and Geo. Col-linson were two of the checker team at Markdale, Monday night where an enjoyable time was spent. Mr. Moon is busy training the children for the Christmas concert to be held Monday, Dec. 21st. Mrs. Geo. Peart is visiting with her sister Miss Mary Hastie in Toronto. Mr. Thos. Bell was in Toronto on Tuesday with a truckload of lambs. We sympathize with Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Lawrence and family in their recent sore bereavement.

IN DAYS OF YORE

25 YEARS AGO Taken from Review file, Nov. 30/11 Very startling was the news that reached us on Monday, that Alex Muir Reeve of Artemesia, had passed away. A new High School was urged in town, at a public meeting by Inspectors Campbell and Waugh. A bylaw will be submitted to the electors at an early date. Mrs. McCoskery, Toronto, is with her mother, Mrs. Burnett, upper town assisting her in her packing and sale of household effects, prior to Mrs. Burnett's moving to Toronto to make her home with her daughter, Mrs. McCoskery. Mr. Chas. M. Bowman, M.P.P. of Southampton, Ont., announces the engagement of his daughter, Florence Edna, to Dr. David Bradshaw Jamieson, son of Dr. D. Jamieson, M.P.P., and Mrs. Jamieson of Durham. The marriage will take place quietly the end of December. Wednesday last week after we had gone to press, a meeting in the interests of Dr. Jamieson was held in the town hall here, one of the speakers being the Provincial Premier, Sir James Whitney. Dornoch corr.: Good for you Jack, not many of the young fellows around here can get three girls at once. They think one is good fishing.

15 YEARS AGO

Taken from Review file, Dec. 1/21 Among six young men coming forward as candidates for the ministry at Orangeville Presbytery, we notice the names of Douglas Kendall, son of Rev. Kendall, Dundalk, and R. W. Paton, a nephew of Mrs. Robt. Isaac of Durham. The latter is at present supplying at Kirkland Lake. We had the pleasure of a call last week from Mrs. John Cooper, of Normanby, who has been visiting her daughter Mrs. And. Derby, in town for a few days. Although 95 years of age she is still active on her feet and has a good grasp of things present as well as past. May she round out the 100 years and then some! A recent issue of the Grenfell, Sask., Sun, contains a notice of the marriage of Kathleen M. Baird, daughter of Mr. James Baird, formerly of Normanby, to Clifford G. Argue, a young man who served over 3 years in the war and was wounded at Loos. The A.Y.P.A. organized for the coming season with the following officers: Pres. Miss Otilie Lamin; Vice Pres. Mr. Stodman; sec'y, Miss Angevine; Treas., Miss E. Schulz. Mr. Jas. Eden has sold his corner farm in Egremont on the Garafaxa, (formerly the Mountain farm) to Mr. Nelson McGuire, of the 18th con., getting possession March 1st. Mr. John Queen who is now on the place is considering going West. Priceville corr.: W. G. Watson had 3 funerals in succession from Friday to Sunday. The last is Mrs. Campbell, an aged lady of Proton, and grandmother of the candidate, Miss Agnes Macphail. Dornoch: Messrs Dargavel and McIntosh opened their store, formerly owned by J. H. Parke, Tuesday. Mr. Leonard Walsh has purchased the hall from Mr. B. Dargavel with the intentions of starting a garage in the spring. Holstein corr.: Wilbert Brown, a 22 year old Regina boy, son of Alex H. Brown, formerly of Holstein, and a nephew of the late Lieut-Gov. Brown was chosen this week as Rhodes Scholar of the University of Saskatchewan. He will complete his studies at Oxford.

Traffic Officer Transferred

Traffic Officer Gilbert Robertson, who has been stationed in this zone for the past five months, with headquarters at Walkerton, has received notice of his promotion in the service to the busy territory near London, with Lambeth as his place of abode. Mr. Robertson, who is a very capable and efficient officer, has been in the employ of Queen's Park Toronto, for over seven years, and is regarded as one of the best highway cops in the service and while regretting the removal of this splendid officer, with his wife, from our midst, all will commend him on his excellent promotion he has received in the highway service.—Walkerton Times.
