Mr and Mrs Wm. Brown spent last week visiting friends in Toronto. Among others were Mr and Mrs John Menary, Mr and Mrs Geo. McCulloch and Mr and Mrs Garson. They found Mrs. Garson much the same, and Mr Garson still able to play the violin for them.

NORTH EGREMONT

A number from here attended the nomination in Holstein, Monday. Mr. John A. Ferguson, Egremont's critic was present and made a short address also asking several questions. It would not seem like a nomination if John A. were not present. I'll say the only thing he forgot was to advocate the abolishing of County Council.

JAMES TUCKER FETED ON 86TH BIRTHDAY

Mr. James Tucker of Egremont, who resides in the home of his daughter, was well remembered on his 86th birthday with good wishes and congratulations, when all his family and his sister were present for a fowl dinner at 7 p.m. on Thursday. Mr. Tucker is a member of the family of the late Mr and Mrs Walter Tucker, and was born in Egremont on Nov. 26th, 1850. He married Miss Fanny Brydges and resided on the farm on the second con., where his son, Thomas, now resides. Mrs Tucker passed away four years ago and Mr. Tucker has since lived with his youngest daughter, Mrs. Joseph Brown, another daughter, Mrs. Joseph Tucker, resides near Allan Park. Mr. Tucker has three sisters and a brother—Mrs. Fanny Simpson and Geo. Tucker at Tisdale, Sask.; Mrs Emily McCrie at Victoria, B.C., and Mrs Mary McKechnie, Durham. There is only one break in the family, John passing away after an accident at Portage La Prairie a few years ago. Mr Harold C. McKechnie, a nephew, proposed the toast to the guest of honor, to which two grandsons, Carman Hargrave and Borden Brown, responded.

THE DOUBLE-BARRED CROSS

International Symbol of the Crusade against Tuberculosis

An armistice march across the pages of history, fighting for their rights or their wrongs as the case may be, has been common to all: each carried flags and banners on which appeared the emblem of the cause. Good or bad, the cause was always blazoned forth in terms of heraldry which gradually became a highly specialized study. After the advent of the Christian era the cross became a tremendously popular symbol and this emblem upon their banner, many a doughty knight rode forth to do battle for his principles and to save or reclaim the Holy Land from the Infidel. Crosses of all shapes, sizes and ornate decorations have been used by innumerable families, cities, orders, guilds, nations and causes. The Spaniards found a religious symbol among the Aztecs which was very similar to our cross. The swastika of Hitlerism is an old symbol made of several crosses. This habit of choosing emblems has carried over into our modern civilization and clubs and such peacetime associations still follow that age-old custom. It was therefore quite natural that the natural thing that as the war against tuberculosis gathered momentum and nations and nations took up the cause, that some international emblem should be chosen which would be symbolic of the matter. It was given careful consideration for it was important that the symbol should be internationally accepted and have a universal appeal, and yet it should be decidedly distinct from any symbol adopted internationally such as the Red Cross.

It would seem that the tuberculosis campaigners of the eighteen-nineties or thirties, deliberately went out after a symbol that would have something like the significance and universal acceptance of the Red Cross. The matter was quite distinguishable from it. They had to avoid not only the Red Cross, but those of the various saints, George, Anthony, Andrew and so on. They had also to avoid the Celtic, the Greek, the Maltese and the Papal. In the words of Dr. D. A. Stewart, "After that, it would seem that what they thought they might require they went and took. And so we have the patriarchal cross, the Lorraine cross of the two crusades accomplished, now a symbol in every land of a new popular, enthusiastic and successful crusade against entrenched tuberculosis, a new crusade to win back for all the people of the world the Holy Land of Health." This is the banner under which the Queen Mary Hospital for Consumptives have marched these many years. It is under which they and other sanatorium and tuberculosis workers' organizations in the Province have won such marked success. But victory can only be won with the continued effort and the financial support of the people at large. Your contribution to National Sanatorium Association, 223 College St., Toronto will be greatly appreciated.

IN MEMORIAM

WATSON—In loving memory of Mrs. Wm. P. Watson, who passed away on Dec. 1st, 1935. We do not forget her, we loved her too dearly. For her memory to fade from our lives like a dream; Our lips need not speak when our hearts mourn sincerely, For grief often dwells where it seldom is seen. In our hearts she is fondly remembered. Sweet memories cling to her name; Those who in life loved her sincerely Still love her in death just the same. —Sadly missed by husband and family.
