PRICEVILLE AND VICINITY

PRICEVILLE

On Tuesday night a large crowd met at the home of Mr. and Mrs. T. Nichol to spend a social hour with the newly wedded couple. Mr. and Mrs. D. A. McIntyre. The evening was spent in card playing, social chat and dancing, good music being supplied by Messrs Frank and Dan L. McArthur, Mrs. Arthur Bell and Mrs. Wilf Watson.

At an appropriate time Mr. Fred de Arnett called on the young couple to come forward, when an address was read by Miss Annie Shortreed and the presentation of a lovely walnut secretary desk and a purse of money was made by Messrs Earl McLean and Bradey Irwin. Both Mr and Mrs. McIntyre fittingly replied and thanked one and all, and invited them to come and visit them in their new home. All joined and sang "For they are jolly good fellows". Mr. Nichol, Mr. Arthur Bell and Mrs. Ray McLean were called on to say a few words. Donalds will be greatly missed in this community and particularly from the church where she was always present. A delightful lunch was served to all. Best wishes are extended for a long and happy wedded life.

The annual W.H. and W.M.S. meeting will be held Tuesday Dec. 15 at the home of Mrs. Wm. Aldcorn when a good turnout of ladies are expected.

Miss Gwynneth McLean spent week end with Miss Bernice Carson.

Mr and Mr J. A. MacCuaig, Durham were recent visitors with Mr. and Mrs. B. Irwin.

Mr and Mrs Thos. Tucker, visited Friday at their son's, Mr. Henry Tucker.

A managers' meeting will be held on Thursday night in St. Andrew's church.

Mr and Mrs Allie McLean and son of Toronto, spent the weekend with their parents.

Mr and Mrs Henry Tucker and family visited on Sunday at A. L. Hincks'.

Messrs Thos. Nichol, Collin McLean and Angus Hooper were appointed to attend Presbytery meeting at Orangeville on Tuesday.

Mr and Mrs Stewart Thompson of Mt. Albert, spent last week with her brothers, Elmer and Wilf. Watson.

Regular meeting of St. Columba Y. P.S. was held in the church Sunday evening with Mr. Arthur Bell in the chair and about 50 present. Minutes of previous meeting were read by Miss Aileen Karstedt. A duett was rendered by Mr. A. Bell and Miss Anna McLean, accompanied by Mrs. Bell. Mr. Bell had the topic, which included a resume of history of Britain's royal line from Alfred on, and he invited the audience to discuss the recent action of our present King. During the meeting hymns of devotional and Christmas spirit were sung. The meeting closed with m'z' pah benediction.

SWINTON PARK

"Long live the King" is the cry of today. Much speculation as to the outcome of this love affair is heard on every hand. While all are loyal to the King, we think the feeling is that the king and his lady friend should reconsider the whole affair and rescind the motion, with all respect to all parties.

The Hastings by-election has also been interesting, but perhaps morally unhealthy. There should be a demand for dogs down there, so that each har should have one of his own.

In Swinton Park, on Sunday, a surprise was given, when a citation of the resignation of Rev. Norman McDonald, was read by Mr. Robert Knox. No one had thought of such a thing. A congregational meeting was called for this Monday evening to appeal delegates to attend Presbytery in Orangeville Tuesday and attend to other business necessary on this occasion.

A Sunday School entertainment is being prepared to be held on Friday, 18th inst. Miss Campbell of Boothville and Mrs. Delbert Haw, along with superintendent, James Wilson, are the main spokes in the wheel. A small charge just to provide a treat for the children and to welcome Santa Claus.

Delbert Haw and Wilfrid Black will not let the foxes alone and keep them running every day and getting a fair number of them, also other game.

Roads are not good,—snow is too deep in spots for cars and too bare in places for sleighs. The weather is changeable but rather cold for so early in the season. Not much traffic on the roads.

Some are suffering from severe colds but only Sandy McCannel is very ill, making little progress after a severe attack of pneumonia and fretting over his sister, Mary Catherine, who died last week.

OBITUARY

MARY KATHERINE McCANNELL

It is our sad duty to chronicle the death of the above young lady who passed peacefully away at her home near Proton Station on Dec. 1st. Deceased was born and raised on the farm on which she died, lot 20, con. 18, Proton, and was the eldest daughter of Malcolm and Margaret McCannel. Her father died 15 years ago and her mother passed away three years ago.

Mary was of a bright and cheerful disposition, kind and thoughtful to all who made her acquaintance. Although not in the best of health for the last four or five years, she was always able to carry on in the home until four weeks ago when she became suddenly ill and had to take to bed. There was no anxiety felt about her until a few days before, when all the care and comfort that loving hands could do for her suffering, could not stay the hand of death. She fell into a deep slumber two days before she died and never awakened. She received her early education at Swamp College School, and attended Proton Station United church while able to be present.

The funeral service which took place at the house was feelingly conducted by Rev. Mr. McDonald of Priceville. He took for the text Ezekiel, 7:6. "The end has come". He dwelt very touchingly on this simple text and pointed out to the large gathering of friends and neighbors, which had assembled to show their respect to the deceased, that there comes a time in life when all pleasures, sorrows, joy and pain finally come to an end, when death calls. The hymns sung were chosen by deceased herself, and were "Jesus Saviour pilot me", "What a Friend we have in Jesus" and "Sun of my Soul". She also chose her pall bearers who carried her casket to its last resting place in Evergreen Cemetery, south line, Artemesia, where it lies beside her father and mother. The pallbearers were Edmond Fowler, Ed. Haw, Roy McNally, Tom Currie, James Matthews and Robt. Oliver. The funeral was conducted by undertaker Wm. George Watson, Priceville.

The wreaths and sprays which covered the casket were beautiful and were: wreaths from brothers and sisters; sprays from the nurse Mrs. John McDougal; two little nephews, Jim and Lloyd Sinton and little niece Jean; Mr and Mrs Gilbert McCannel and little sons. They were carried by Edna McLean and Effie and Annie McCannel. She leaves to mourn, two sisters, Mrs. Stanley Sinton, Shelburne and Bell at home; also three brothers, Jim and Alex at home and Neil living nearby. It was very hard and sad to know that only a week before her death, her brother Alex was stricken down with pneumonia and pleurisy and was unable to attend the funeral services or be at her bedside during her last illness. We express our deepest sympathy to the bereaved brothers and sisters in their hour of sickness and troubles.

CARD OF THANKS

We wish to thank the many friends and neighbors for their kind words and deeds, also for the gifts received from them during the last illness of our dear sister. We also wish to express our thanks for the thoughtfulness and help which has been extended to us during the recent illness of our brother Alex.

Sisters, Mrs. Stanley Sinton and Bell; brothers, James and Neil.

THIEVES USE FARMERS' TEAM AFTER TAKING HIS WHEAT

A daring theft was perpetrated on the farm of Mr. Thompson Boyd, 8th concession of Bentinck, some time during last Wednesday night, when thieves stole about 75 bushels of wheat from his barn. Mr. Boyd does not live on the property where the barn is located, his house being some distance away, and the thieves were therefore comparatively free from molestation, without even a dog around to give a warning to the owner that there were intruders on the place.

As if to add insult to injury, the thieves loaded their truck so full of grain that it became stuck in a snow-drift, so they went back to the barn, hitched up a team of horses and had them pull the truck out of the drift. They then returned the team to the barn but didn't bother unharnessing them.

When Mr. Boyd visited the barn on Thursday morning he was surprised to find the team harnessed, and making an investigation, he discovered the loss of the wheat and saw why the team had been hitched up and used.

The police are investigating.

IN DAYS OF YORE

25 YEARS AGO

Taken from Review file, Dec. 7/11 Messrs Albert and Alfred McClocklin left Tuesday to take positions in a wholesale house in Toronto, Messrs C. C. Douglas and J. Fred Smith were delegates to the Northern Hockey League annual meeting in Palmerston on Wednesday.

Mr. John McAuliffe and family moved into their new home, the old Woodland property, this week. Mr. Dan McAuliffe and family also occupy their new property the old big 4. Mr. David McAuliffe and family are also nearby in the Burnett property which he lately purchased.

Contractor Hugh McDonald is making good progress with the new Carnegie Library these days. Another 10 days of mild weather will see the walls finished.

Durham Curling Club reorganized last Friday evening with the following officers: Hon. Pres. D. McClocklin; Pres. W. Calder; Vice pres. R. Cochran; Sec'y, W. S. Hunter; Treas., J. P. TeHord; Com. of Management, J. H. Hunter, Jas. Lenahan Dr. Hutton, A. H. Jackson.

Bob Scott of Durham, after disposing of Paddy McKinley, purchased a good green pacer in Maggie B., by Hal, B. and local horsemen are hoping that he brings the mare to the Toronto Driving Club races here Christmas week, for if she can go the distance, there will be something doing.— Mail and Empire.

Fine services were held Sunday in the new St. Andrew's Presbyterian church, Swinton Park.

15 YEARS AGO

Taken from Review file, Dec. 8/21

South Grey elected Miss Agnes C. Macphail, first and only lady M.P., in Canada by 2,575 plurality over R. J. Ball and Walter Hastie.

County and country underwent a complete change on Tuesday. Of the 235 seats, King himself a winner by 1100, seems to have 119, hence will be ir-dependent to either of the other groups. The Progressives have 63 led by Crerar with over 3,000 of a majority himself. The Conservatives have under 51 led by dear knows who, for Meighen himself is defeated by the farmer candidate by about 600.

The Baptist choir and representatives from the congregation, made a surprise visit to the home of Mr and Mrs J. F. Giles, last Thursday night and presented them with a handsome reading lamp in appreciation of their choir work.

Wednesday of last week, 30th Nov. 1921, Mr. McKill Grierson passed over to the majority in his 59th year.

Holstein corr.: Robt. Sim, Geo. Burrows and Wm. Coburn have each had telephones installed on the Bell line connecting with Holstein Exchange. The election returns just coming in, Miss Macphail being elected. From school teacher to M. P. (Sua cuique voluptas); Mr. Hastie the same as ever (Sans souci); Mr. Ball from M.P. to private life, (Sine cura sic transit gloria mundi.)

A DIRECT HINT

He was boring the young lady to tears when in came her dog. "Ah", he exclaimed, "have you taught him any tricks since I was here last?" "Yes", she said sweetly. "If you whistle he will bring your hat."

THE HEROIC ONE AN' HALF HUNDRED

(By Hanover High School Student) Half a block, half a block. Half a block onward. All in the shadow of Work Trudged the one an' half hundred. "Forward, you laggard there, Charge for the school," bells said; Into the shadow of Work Trudged the one an' half hundred.

Forward, you laggard there! Was there a boy dismayed? Not tho' the pupil knew His parents had blundered. Their's not to reason why, Their's not to make reply, Their's but to do or die, Into the shadow of Work Trudged the one an' half hundred.

Teachers to right of them, Teachers to left of them, Still more in front of them, Volley'd and thundered; Stormed at by word and bell Boldly they walked and well Into the shadow of work Into the mouth of — Trudged the one an' half hundred.

Now that they are through there, And no longer hear the bell, They may turn over a new leaf, And in brief— Start to live.
