PRICEVILLE AND VICINITY

PRICEVILLE

In St. Columba United on Sunday evening, Dec. 20th, next, some 44 lantern views of a Christmas nature and bearing, will be given. They are reputed to be of a high class production.

Visitors over the weekend were Mr and Mrs Jno McFarlane at the home of her parents, Mr and Mrs C. A. McLean.

Mr and Mrs Chas. McDougall and little boy Lyle, Holstein, visited over the weekend with Mr and Mrs Ram- age.

Mr and Mrs Elmore Shier, Artemesia, visited weekend at the home of their uncle, W. Turnbull. Mr. Joe Turnbull, timbering near Elmira, also is home on a visit.

Fine skating is to be had on the dam at the mill. The rink of last year is still in disuse. The soil is too loose and absorbent.

The two Christmas entertainments will be given on Thursday and Friday evenings of this week by St. Andrews and St. Columba churches respectively.

Rev. Norman McDonald, minister of St. Andrews, having resigned his charge here, is already packing up in readiness to leave, perhaps for Scotland—not yet decided. His farewell sermon will be given, it is said, on Sunday, Dec. 20th.

The funeral of the late Mrs McDonald, sister of Mr Wm. Moody, south line, took place on Tuesday. A resident of Hamilton where she died. Funeral Director, W. G. Watson, of Priceville brought the body from there on Monday.

The management of the rink this year is in the hands of Fred G. Karstedt, pres.; Bert Aussem, sec'y; A. Bell, treas.; J. McMeekin and Wilf. Watson, managers.

The W.I. met at Mrs Odell's home on Dec. 3rd with 22 ladies present. The roll call was answered by paying 1c, according to size of your glove. The motto was taken by Mrs Mocly. Mrs Wilfred Watson gave an interesting demonstration on wrapping Christmas parcels. Nellie McLean read a paper, "Christmas in other lands". Mrs. J. McMillan gave a report of the W.I. convention held in Toronto in November, which she attended. It was decided to distribute Christmas cheer to the sick and shut-ins in the locality. Any donations for same will be gratefully received and may be left with Mrs Aldcorn or Mrs Sutherland. A dainty lunch was served by the hosts and her assistants and a social half hour passed all too quickly.

The Y.P.S. meeting was held on Sunday evening in St. Columba. Mr. Wright led in prayer. A reading was given by Grant Muir followed by selections from the Whyte orchestra. Topic on the Christmas spirit through the ages, was well given by Mr. Bob Whitaker. Next Sunday night lantern slides depicting scenes in the Holy Lands will be shown and a Christmas service will be held. There will be 44 pictures on the scene. A good turnout is expected.

Word was received, Mrs Sandy McDonald, formerly of the south line, passed away in Hamilton. Left to mourn are daughter Mary in Paisley and one son Malcolm up north.

St. Andrews S.S. concert and Christmas Tree will be held Thursday, Dec. 17th and on Friday night, one will be held in St. Columba church, Dec. 18th and the school concert will be on Dec. 22 in evening.

Miss Beth Hinks of Feversham, spent the weekend here.

Mr. and Mrs. W. G. McBride and family were recent visitors with friends in Owen Sound.

A number of the children from here were to Fiesherton Saturday to see Santa Claus and enjoyed the afternoon outing.

Mr and Mrs D. A. McIntyre of McIntyre visited Friday with her parents, Mr and Mrs T. Nichol.

Mr and Mrs Henry Tucker and family, Mr and Mrs Stanley Harrison and daughter Beth were recent visitors at the home of A. L. Hinks.

Mr and Mrs Edgar Patterson visited first of the week at Mr. Henry Eckhardt's.

Miss Bernice Carson spent the weekend with Miss Dorothy Watson. Mrs John McFarlane, Toronto, spent weekend with her parents.

Mr and Mrs J. A. Nichol and family visited Sunday with Mr and Mrs D. A. McIntyre at McIntyre.

Mr and Mrs Cecil Moffat, Ruth and Helen, and Mrs. D. Robinson, Edge Hill, visited Sunday with Mr and Mrs Howard Ritchie and attended service at Zion.

Mrs Geo. Peart and son Robert of near Durham, were guests the first of the week with E. R. Peart.

W. H. Edwards of Toronto, with his parents Mr and Mrs R. T. Edwards, spent part of Saturday in O. Sound, and also had a short visit with Mr and Mrs Carl Atkinson of Berkeley on their way home.

Mr. J. H. Robson had the telephone installed in his home last week.

Miss Gladys Firth who has been suffering from an attack of pleurisy and asthma, was removed to Durham hospital last Friday and on Saturday had passed taken off her lung. At time of writing we are glad to say she is improving.

The Zion branch of the W.I. met at the home of Mrs W. J. Ritchie last Thursday with 27 ladies present. Plans were made for Christmas cheer, and Mrs H. Allen who was delegate to the Federated W.I. convention in Toronto, gave a good report of the meeting. This was followed by a program the theme being "Mother". Papers were given on: "How to be a good mother" by Mrs Howard Ritchie; "What must I do before I deserve to be called a good mother", by Mrs J. R. Edwards, and "Can I continue to be a good mother after my family has grown up," by Mrs. W. G. Firth. Roll call, "One thing a mother should not be and why", which was well responded to. After close of meeting, Mrs. Ritchie and assistants served lunch, Mrs. Ritchie treating the ladies to a piece of her Christmas cake, (and was it good). Next meeting will be held at the home of Mrs W. G. Firth. All ladies are welcome.

HOPEVILLE

On account of the icy condition of the roads the W.I. meeting held at the home of Mrs. Wm. Jack last Wednesday was not well attended.

Mr. Dalton Scott was in Toronto last week.

At the annual meeting of Hopeville W.M.S. held at home of Mrs R. Crawford, all the former officers were re-elected for 1937.

Mr and Mrs J. A. Dixon and daughters of North Egremont were visitors Monday at the home of Mr. J. Sinclair.

Mrs Walter Benham and daughters Eleanor and Betty intend spending over the Christmas holidays with her daughters in Toronto.

Council meeting and tax paying day, Tuesday, made quite a stir in the village. This year taxes are considerably lower and there is not one complaint about it either.

Scarcity of feed has made it necessary for several farmers to sell off their cattle earlier than usual.

Miss Hazel Christie, Toronto, visited a short time recently with her parents, Mr and Mrs George Christie.

Mr. George Wale, Toronto, spent the weekend at the home of Mr. C. Wale.

Preparation for the Christmas concert is one of the main interests. United church concert is on Dec. 21, Bethany Chapel, Dec. 23rd and S.S. No. 13 on Dec. 22nd.

Miss Doreen Scott, of Toronto, is spending over the holidays with her mother, Mrs. Jas. Scott.

Mr. John Sinclair is getting a little stronger each day since his return from Orangeville hospital.

The season's greetings from Hopeville district to Review and all readers.

SWINTON PARK

On Sunday next Rev. Norman McDonald will preach his farewell sermon in Swinton Park. For three years and three months, he has given faithful and kindly service, and he will long be remembered as a young man who could choose a text and give a good sermon on it in a clear, concise way, without the aid of a note—a rare gift. We will miss Mr. McDonald and wish him success wherever his lot may be cast.

On Wednesday last while working in Haw's mill, Walter Knox met with a slight accident, getting three of his fingers cut by the saw. He is laid off work for a few days and he is thankful his hand did not go.

Jack McMillan, con. 14, is buzzing wood for Hardy brothers these days. Quite a number were in Dundalk Saturday to greet Santa.

At Swamp College Friday night, a full house enjoyed the concert put on by Miss Stewart teacher, and pupils.

AVIATION AND MARINE RADIO OPERATING

We are prepared to consider a few more young men for training in Radios as required by the Dominion Government for 1st and 2nd class licensed operators. Only Canadian citizens possessing good character and health plus two years High School or the equivalent, acceptable. Unless you can fulfill the above requirements, please do not apply.

IN DAYS OF YORE

15 YEARS AGO

Taken from Review file, Dec. 15/21. Mr. Melvin Greig, Toronto School of Pharmacy, is home at Mr. W. Calder's for his Christmas vacation.

Messrs Bert Watson and John McKenzie of Normanby and Bentinck respectively, attended the fat stock show at Guelph last week.

Mrs Moore McFadden is in Hamilton this week, in response to the message informing her of the death of her grandmother.

Frank Murdoch who resides in Bentinck, just south-west of town, is springing into fame as a grower of sweet clover. Last week he captured first prize for his exhibit at Guelph Winter Fair.

The Bell Telephone Co. intend removing the local Central to their new offices on Lambton St. next Monday or Tuesday. A new switchboard with accommodation for 125 local phones and 15 rural lines will be used and two booths will be available for public use.

Congratulations to Barrister W. F. Dunn, formerly of Durham, who on Monday of this week, was elected Mayor of the city of Moose Jaw, Sask., by over 500 majority. It is some twelve years since Mr. Dunn left Durham for his adopted city, where he has built up a lucrative law practice. Mrs. Dunn is a Durham girl, a daughter of ex-mayor and Mrs. LaIdlaw.

North Egremont corr.: The Yeovil Farmers' Club met on Monday evening this week, some 60 strong and finished up the business of the year and appointed new officers. This club did over $8,000 worth of business during the past year and are still going strong.

25 YEARS AGO

Taken from Review file, Dec. 14/11. Monday last the C.P.R. elevators in Owen Sound caught fire and a long with some adjoining property and some hundreds of thousands of bushels of wheat were totally destroyed. The loss is estimated at over a million dollars. Some of the big steamers nearby were in danger but escaped.

This week closes the term of the Model School and the large class that has been under the tuition of Principal Allan for the last four months will scatter to their homes. We hope all the students will carry away pleasant memories of Durham as well as much profitable experience in teaching and academic work.

Messrs Ab. Noble, Fred Falkingham and Percy Daniel came home from the Soo last week and will spend a week or two here.

The result of the voting on Monday last was the return of Dr. Jamieson again by a majority of 337 over Wm. Calder.

Priceville corr.: We would report a marriage but the good young man is only gone this morning and we will wait till he comes back in a duplicate form before reporting.

Holstein corr.: Mr. Nicholson of the 6th con., Egremont and brother of L. B. of this place, sold his 100 acre farm last week for the handsome sum of $6,200. It doesn't look as if property is degenerating in value in Egremont. On Monday night our street lights made their first appearance and presented a most brilliant light. These lights, five in all, are certainly an improvement to our village and a credit to those who by means of contributions and labor, succeeded in making long felt improvements.

IN MEMORIAM

McMEEKIN—In loving memory of our dear husband and father, John McMeekin, who passed away, Dec. 17th, 1930.

Some day, sometime, my eyes shall see
The face I loved so well;
Some day my hands will clasp in his
And never b'd. farewell.

Not dead to me, I loved him dearly,
Not lost, but gone before;
He lives with me in memory still,
And will forever more.

The flowers I put upon his grave,
May wither and decay,
But the love for him who sleeps beneath,
Will never fade away.

—Ever remembered by wife and family.
