

CANADIANS AND THEIR INDUSTRIES... AND THEIR BANK

MINING AND METALLURGY

Mining in Canada, now second largest of the country's industries, gives employment to 80,000 workmen and has a production value of over $300,000,000 per annum.

As an accompaniment of this great and growing mining industry, Canada is building up a smelting and refining industry of world importance.

Copper • Nickel • Zinc • Lead • Cobalt • Iron Ferro-alloys • Gold • Silver • Bismuth • Radium Cadmium • Selenium • Aluminium • Tellurium • Uranium

The plants give direct employment to 10,000 workers, and indirect employment to many thousands more; have a production value of $200,000,000 per annum; purchase coal and electricity to the value of $12,000,000; pay for equipment, supplies, freight, etc., some $40,000,000 per annum; and add some $100,000,000 to the export value of Canada's mineral products, without counting the value of the gold recovered from base metal ores.

Prominently identified with the upbuilding of the smelting and refining industry of Canada from its inception, the Bank of Montreal gives this industry financial service through every stage.

The Bank's services include: Commercial accounts; foreign currency accounts; financing of shipments; loans and discounts; collections; trade and credit information; safe-keeping of securities; savings accounts; money orders; travellers cheques; banking by mail; personal loans.

Presentation to Rev. and Mrs. M. Farr

On Wednesday evening, Dec. 30, Mr and Mrs Thos. B. Tucker were host and hostess to the members and friends of St. Paul's parish, Egremont at whose home they were entertained in honor of the newly appointed rector and his bride, Rev. and Mrs. M. H. Farr.

An interesting programme, with Rev. C. J. Queen in the chair, was: Opening hymn "Joy to the World"; Readings: "The Three Kings" by Marjorie Tucker, "Christmas story" by Mrs J. McVean, and "The Well of St. Keyne" by Howard Watson; Songs by Messrs Aylott and Johnson; solo and monologue by Ada Tucker, and the closing number was a hymn "Carol sweetly carol."

During the programme Rev. and Mrs. Farr under showers of confetti, were called on and the following address read by Mrs J. C. Queen:

We, the members and friends of St. Paul's parish have met here this evening on a very happy occasion, not only to greet our new rector, but also to welcome with open arms, his charming bride.

We extend to you our heartfelt congratulations and good wishes and pray that God will grant you many years of happy life together, in His service; and in the years to come, when you look back over your various experiences, may you always remember the time spent among us as, perhaps, the happiest of all.

Mr and Mrs. Farr, on behalf of St. Paul's parish, I have great pleasure in asking you to accept this bridge lamp and cushion as a small token of our affection and loyalty, hoping you may be long spared to enjoy them.

In closing we wish you a very happy and prosperous New Year and God's richest blessing in the future.

Signed on behalf of members and friends: Mrs T. B. Tucker, Mrs J. C. Queen Rev. Farr very ably responded, tendering his inexpressible appreciation.

Before closing, Rev. Queen, in a few words, voiced his high esteem for the bride and groom, and spoke highly of Mr. Farr, as he found him of sterling quality and a staunch friend during their college career.

NORTH EGREMONT

Proton Station will be Dromore's opponents in a semi-Pro League Hockey game at Dromore rink next Saturday afternoon, Jan. 9th at 2.30 p.m. Come and support the team.

Last Thursday, Dec. 31st, I plowed all day, there being no frost in the ground not wet, and it plowed good.

The annual meeting of S. S. No. 13 was held on Wednesday night Dec. 30th, there were 24 present.

John Scott was chairman and Gordon Leith sec'y. Jim Small thought it was not legal to hold school meeting at night.

Trustee Joe Dixon said it was O.K. Jim still had his doubts, so Joe read off the law stating the meeting may be held at 10 o'clock a.m., 2 in the afternoon, or 8 p.m.

Someone wanted to know how long ago it was since we started holding the meetings at night.

Chas. Watson was the only one who remembered that far back.

He said he was married 21 years ago and W. W. Ramage left the wedding to go to school meeting.

Now who would have ever thought that W. W. would leave a wedding to go to a school meeting.

There will be no delegate sent to the O.E.A. convention, Ed. Small thought it would be useless unless we had a good speaker to send.

A voice, "Campbell Grant of Walkerton would do". In regards to engaging a music teacher, John Eccles said we should.

Trustee Bill Eccles was against it. He said music should be taught in the home.

It was left with the trustees whether they engage one or not.

Joe Dixon had a letter from the Inspector stating he would be willing to give a talk on Consolidated Schools.

This was turned down with a bang and sec'y notified to write Inspector, stating that we will have nothing to do with consolidated schools.

Jim Hooper was elected trustee for north line, Joe Dixon having retired.

Chas. Small took the contract to supply 30 cords of 12 inch wood at $1.90 a cord, and John Eccles the cedar, 2 cords at $1.35 per cord.

Ed. Small will be caretaker at $75. The biggest job we thought that night, was walking home in the rain storm, the wind blowing down 4 telephone poles between Jim Lothian and John Scott's, that night.

Mr and Mrs R. Regan of Caledon East visited over the holiday with Mrs J. M. Allan.

Miss Edith Kerr visited at Geo. Hooper's recently.

Mr and Mrs Jim McDougall of Priceville visited at Wilfrid Daly's over the holiday.

We saw the Durham-Walkerton hockey game on Monday night, and thought it not so hot with Joe Ray-bould missing.

Mrs. Reg. Ramage is visiting with her parents this week, Mrs Lennox being on the sick list.

Misses Clara and Pearl Watson, Clara Falkingham, Mary McDonald, Hazel Moore and Beulah McKenzie, returned to Toronto after a holiday in this burg.

Mrs. Tena Geddes visited at Jas. Lothian's recently.

Jas. McGillivray's dog killed a ground hog last week and Ed. Henry saw two snakes recently.

Spring must be just around the corner.
