gain and welcome.

Young J. A. McVicar has a very sore hand, blood poisoning having set in from a very small cut on the knuckle.

We are pleased to notice that three refrigerators or frigidaires, whichever you like, have been installed in town of the General Electric and Norge, by Messrs McBride, McConkey and Fred Karstedt. No trouble now to keep cool.

To mention the advent of a new electric washing machine by a neighbor, we've been threatened with extinction, whatever that is, so we keep silent; but it fills a long felt want and saves knuckles. We congratulate the dear lady of the firm.

Encouraging reports come from the sick who are improving in health. The people in town know this fact but we think of friends in the far West who occasionally express pleasure in reading in the Review of the improving condition of Mrs. McParlane (Anna Mary) and Chas. Braiden "Vickey's" husband.

Mr. McBride Sr. is on a visit to his son's family here, at the station. He is keeping hale and hearty; an old trustworthy employee of the C. P. R. He can travel where and when he likes. He is a pleasing conversationalist and interesting citizen of Bala.

Miss Eleanor Mather has resigned as teacher of the lower room here, we hear it reported.

Some from here took in the anniversary services at the United church in Flesherton, where an old pastor, Rev. Dudgeon of many years ago, conducted the services yesterday.

We were favored with a flying visit by our nephew, Dr. Chas. Ramage, Gorrie, and his affable wife, with her sister and mother, Mrs. McKenzie of Mitchell, and their own little boy, on the way to Wasaga Beach on Sunday.

Visitors at Mr. John McKechnie's he first of the week were Mrs Alfred Idle and Mr and Mrs Andrew Johnston of Thornbury; Miss Beatrice Watters, Mr and Mrs Ted Bramston and family of Toronto.

In a friendly game of football on Saturday evening, between Feversham and Priceville, the result was a victory for the latter by a score of 3 to 1.

The June meeting of St. Columba W.M.S. and W.A. was held at the home of Mrs. Wm. Meads, who was also responsible for a very interesting program. Mrs. A. Muir presided and a group of little girls, Betty Corbett, Reta Whyte, Marie and Emma Meads entertained with several recitations and prettily-acted dialogues of a missionary nature.

Miss Sadie Oliver read a story of a Chinese boy. Rev. H. E. Wright gave a short talk on 'Flowers of the field'. Mrs. G. Whyte favored with a violin solo. Mrs. J. C. Harrison presided for the W.A. and various matters pertaining to the forthcoming garden party on June 29th were under discussion.

Mrs. W. G. McBrice will be in charge of a fancy work bazaar. Supper will be from 6 to 8, followed by a humorous play 'Adventures of Grandpa' presented by Chatsworth Tennis Club. The July meeting will be held at the home of Mrs. A. Muir and the program will be in charge of Miss Anna McLean and the Mission Band.

The W.M.S. and W.H. societies met on Tuesday at the home of Mrs. Sandy Stonehouse with 28 present. Mrs. Sutherland presided over the W.M.S. and 4th chapter of Acts was read responsively, after which Mrs. Sutherland led in prayer. Mrs. T. Nichol gave a reading 'The doctor's visit'. A number of donations were offered for the sale, to be packed in July. Two quilts will be quilted Wednesday of this week, in the church, for the sale. Readings were given by Miss May Stewart, and Mrs. J. McMeekin. Mrs. J. McMeekin presided over the W. H. meeting; Mrs. D. L. McArthur gave a reading 'Words'; Mrs. Wm. Brown gave a reading on stewardship and both were enjoyed. Arrangements and plans were made for the garden party and anniversary on July 4th and 5th. Mrs. Hector McLean and Mrs. Sutherland were appointed to make the tea; Mrs. Campbell, Mrs. A. L. Hincks, Miss Nellie McLean, a committee for the menu; table com., Mrs. Dave Nichol, Mrs. Wm. Brown, Mrs. McMeekin, Mrs. D. Campbell. A contest was put on by Miss Violet Stonehouse and was enjoyed, the prize being won by Mrs. B. Irwin, and the consolation prize went to Mrs. W. Hincks. A delightful lunch was served by the hostess and her assistants. The July meeting will be held at the home of Mrs. W. Brown.

Mr. Don Davidson, Misses Beth Hincks, Merle Buckingham and Jean Hincks, motored to Paris on Sunday and were accompanied home by Miss Almeda Hincks R.N., for two weeks' holiday. She had spent a few days with a girl friend at Paris. Miss Sadie Carson, R.N., Toronto, is spending two weeks at her parental home.

Mr. and Mrs. G. A. Black and family, Swinton Park, visited Sunday at the latter's sister here.

Mr and Mrs Archie MacCuaig visited Sunday at Mr. Henry Tucker's. A bee will be held again on Friday afternoon on the lot next to the church, to finish cleaning up the grounds. All who could spare their time, would be appreciated.

Mr. Stuart Carson, Dundalk, spent the weekend at his home. Mr. Robt. Stephenson was a visitor at the same home.

Keep in mind anniversary services Sunday in St. Andrew's church on July 4th and the garden party on Monday, July 5th, when the Excelsior male quartette of Palmerston will put on a clean humorous entertainment, variety and originality.

SWINTON PARK

Do we fully appreciate the splendid weather for all growing things, also the beauty of the country at the present time? While the farmer has to use the hoe and other implements to keep the weeds under, he can see the crops shooting up and prospects of plenty for the coming winter.

Road work is in order now. We hear the different road bosses talk of their method of doing that old-fashioned statute labor. Some would do it by truck; others with horse and wagon; some depend largely on grader, or drag, but one thing all can agree on, is much need of improvement on our roads, especially in Proton, so that our city friends and tourists may enjoy their drive at week-ends.

Last week activities in this locality consisted of young people's meeting in church Monday evening, softball practice Wednesday evening, after which a number went to the Saugeen for a bath: then to Sandy D. McCannell's to a house warming; while others, especially those interested in the choir, gathered at the home of Mr and Mrs Edward Haw, to spend the evening with and show their appreciation of a departing member, Miss Campbell, teacher at Boothville who has resigned after five years of good work in the neighborhood. During the course of the evening, Miss Campbell was called to the front by Mr Pickering, our student minister, when the following address was read and presentation made of a beautiful silver relish dish: Dear Miss Campbell: We, a few of your fellow associates and members of the choir, have assembled here tonight to spend a few social hours with you. You have been a valued and faithful member of the choir and we wish to take this opportunity of expressing to you (as far as in our power lies) our grateful appreciation of your ever willing help and untiring service rendered during your time with us. We ask you to accept this gift as a token of the high esteem with which we regard you. We trust that it may be a constant reminder of our best wishes.

Signed on behalf of those present: Marjorie Haw, Nina Haw, Dell Ferris. Although taken completely by surprise, the recipient replied in a very charming manner, expressing thanks for the handsome gift, which would always be a reminder of the goodwill and friendship of all present.

25 YEARS AGO

Taken from Review file, June 20/12.

For over twenty years Mr. Wm. Laidlaw has been manager of the telephone office here. He has now tendered his resignation to the Company and expects to be relieved about July 1st. The Telephone co. has asked him to recommend a successor. They will lease an office on the main street for a term of ten years and we understand that a number of rural lines are to be connected with Durham and many of the best farmers within a radius of ten miles will have free connection with the town.

At the patriarchal age of 84 Mr. John McKelvie, on Saturday last passed over to the greater majority. Saturday last Dr. D. B. Jamieson had the bad luck to break an axle of his auto. Mr. Catton took his machine to haul it home, attaching a rope to the disabled one. While coming up a steep pitch near Ritchie's schoolhouse the rope broke allowing the machine in which Brad sat to run back. He applied the brakes but, falling to work he jumped in time to save himself from a ducking or

A party of Durham ladies, the majority of whom took part in the Spinners' Concert here a year or two ago, drove to Hanover last Friday to see the 'Spinners' Convention' played by local talent there. The ladies who took the trip, were Mrs. Jas. Gun, Mrs. A. Gun, Mrs. G. McKechnie, Mrs. A. W. H. Lauder, Misses Margaret Hunter, Franc Davidson, Margaret Harris.

Taken from Review file June 22/22.

The case of Rex vs T. J. Jackson at the June Assizes came to an end on Thursday at noon when Jackson was sentenced to at least 3 months in jail and not more than six. He comes from Mt. Forest and established the Jackson Manufacturing Co. at Durham to manufacture phonograph cases. He wished to obtain a loan at the bank and so made a false statement as to the assets and liabilities.

The railroad crossing on the side-road in Egremont, east from Barber's Corner, was the scene of a serious accident, Monday when the south-bound freight train collided with J. Levine's fine Oldsmobile car, and left it partially wrecked. Mr. G. McKechnie who accompanied Mr. Levine, was on the side struck first and he suffered a broken fore arm and a gash in the forehead, while Mr. Levine escaped with a slight bruise on one leg.
