Mrs. John Vessie Celebrates 80th Birthday

Mrs. John Vessie celebrated her eightieth birthday in a pleasant family gathering at the home of her daughter Mrs. Jack McKechnie at Glen-roader on Sept. 6th. At noon a boun- tiful dinner was served to forty guests on the lawn at which time a three storey birthday cake was en- joyed.

Paralysis Toll Continues to Mount

Despite the warnings and treat- ments broadcast in the daily and weekly press by the Department of Health, the infection is not yet mas- tered. It is thought the heat wave over, the germ will not be so infec- tious and gradually wear itself out.

Lightning Destroys Large Barn at Boothville

Last Friday night's violent electric storm while it cooled the sultry at- mosphere, wrought destruction at several points. The greatest damage in this locali- ty was in East Egremont at Booth- ville where the fine large barn of Mr. John Hill was struck and totally de- stroyed, together with crop and im- plements. The flames were visible miles away.
