

NORTH EGREMONT

S.S. No. 12 had a fine night and good crowd for their Christmas concert held Dec. 21st. The school was nicely decorated with streamers, evergreens and Christmas tree. Reeve S. M. Patterson was chairman, and had a lengthy program of choruses, dialogues, and recitations. Jimmie Pollock sang three songs and got a big hand from the crowd. Jas. Hargrave and Chas. Scales on violins and Hazel Watson on banjo supplied the music. At end of program Santa Claus arrived from Cobalt or Timmins, or somewhere, and helped to distribute the presents off the tree. Mr. Irvine Matthews, teacher, also had a present for each scholar, and thanked all who helped in any way to make the concert a success, and invited everybody to come again next year and bring their friends. Sandwiches, cake and tea were served to all at close, and Joe Lawrence, door keeper collected only 10c admission. Mr. Reg. Hamage sold a colt rising 2 years old recently. Will Moore also sold a fine black team to Stanley Mead.

Mr. Thos. Harrison Sr. has been confined to his bed the past two weeks with sciatica.

Messrs Martin, Goldie and W. G. Wilson attended the funeral of the late Mrs. John Wilson of Milverton on Monday of last week.

Mr. Clarence Moore was a visitor in Toronto recently.

Miss Margaret Leith, teacher, and pupils of Boothville school held their Christmas concert Tuesday evening, Dec. 21st, when a good crowd gathered to see and hear the children perform. A short play "Our awful aunt" was given by the young people. Mr. and Mrs. Santa Claus paid a visit at the close, much to the delight of the children. Proceeds amounted to over fifteen dollars.

Miss Hazel Moore of Brampton and Miss Beulah McKenzie of Toronto are spending over New Year's at their homes here.

Mr. and Mrs. Richard Regan of Caldon East are spending over the holidays at Mrs. J. M. Allan's.

Mr. Chas. Small with his buzzsaw, was cutting wood in this burg the first of the week.

The young people of Amos held their meeting at the home of S. M. Patterson on Monday evening.

Congratulations to Miss Hazel Wilson and Mr. Wilkinson, who are being married this Wednesday at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Jm. J. Wilson.

Mrs. Abe. Hooper is spending this week with Mr. and Mrs. Earl Mead.

"Believe it or not", John G. Johnston had a horse die last week which was 35 years old. "Season's greetings" to publisher, and readers of the Review.

KNOX CORNERS

A happy New Year to Review editor and family, the staff and all its readers.

The ministers who have taken the services at Knox the last two Sundays have both had Christmas messages. The text for the sermon on Sunday was "The Lord is my Shepherd." The shepherds have been known to give their lives for the sheep, and Jesus was born and lived and died that we might have life. Have we entered His fold? For only there can we be safe.

Mr. and Mrs. Andrew Marshall and family spent Christmas day at the Wallace home.

Miss Mary McAllister of Toronto is spending the vacation with her mother and family.

Mr. and Mrs. Albert Kress and children of Toronto visited Friday at the McAllister home.

Last Week's Items

The Christmas season is with us again, and we celebrate the birth of Jesus, our Saviour, may we have room for Him in our hearts and homes.

Death has again been in our midst and called away another old neighbour. Mr. Wm. Carson died on Wednesday of last week and the funeral which was held on Saturday was attended by many old friends and neighbours. The deceased was kindly in his home and devoted to his children who will miss a kind father. We extend our sympathy to Mrs. Carson and the family, to his only brother, and to all who mourn his passing.

Miss T. E. Byers spent Sunday evening at the Smallman home.

The annual school concert was held in the schoolhouse on Tuesday evening Dec. 21st. There was a good attendance and a good program by the children for which Miss Jennings deserves credit for their training. Mr. Albert Marshall was chairman. Santa Claus arrived at the close of the program and distributed the gifts from the beautiful decorated Christmas tree and also candies to all the children, after which lunch was served.

ALLAN'S CORNERS

(Intended for last week)

The A.Y.P.A. met at the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Queen with a fine attendance. Progressive crokinole was enjoyed by all and the prizes were won by Mrs. Robert Wilson and Stuart Pollock. A hearty vote of thanks was tendered the host and hostess and the National Anthem closed the meeting. The next meeting will be held in the church and opened devotionally by the rector, Rev. M. H. Farr.

The teacher, Mr. B. J. Firth, held his Christmas concert on Tuesday afternoon last with a fine attendance of parents and children. The Christmas tree was laden with presents for the pupils and teacher. Lunch was served before closing. Christmas greetings were extended to all by the teacher, who will spend the vacation at his home in Durham. Congratulations to Mr. and Mrs. Robert Davis, who were recently joined in the holy bonds of matrimony.

Little Murina Lee, daughter of J. and Mrs. Art. Lee, has been under the doctor's care with an attack of pneumonia, but at present is recovering.

Norma Lindsay is indisposed at present and under the doctor's care. Hope to hear of a speedy recovery.

Glad to hear that Mr. Walter Ferguson who was not feeling in the best of health, has returned home from Allan Park, and is much improved.

DROMORE

Wishing the editor and staff and readers of the Review a Happy New Year.

The young people are holding their meeting at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Sam Patterson tonight, Monday, with Howard Keith taking the sleigh and taking the young people from these parts.

The Women's Institute will meet at the home of Mrs. Gordon Leith on Jan. 5th at 2.30 p.m. Topics by Mrs. R. Taylor and Miss Florence Renwick. The ladies all welcome.

Quite a number from around our burg attended the concert at No. 14 Tuesday night and report a good time. Christmas passed off quietly around Dromore. Nearly everyone was at relatives', celebrating the day. Some spent part of the day hunting jack rabbits, Wm. Small getting two.

S.S. No. 13 held a successful concert in Russell Hall on Wednesday night and Miss Smith and her pupils put on a good concert, composed of Christmas songs, recitations, dialogue, music, Highland fling by June Small and Betty Taylor in costume; also a Scotch song by Alex. McGilivray. Mr. Wm. Eccles acted as chairman. At the close of the program Santa Claus arrived in his jolly mood and was glad to see all the boys and girls and gave them presents off the tree, also a big package of candies and oranges; afterwards leaving to come back early Christmas morning.

The sympathy of this community goes out at this time to Mrs. Hugh Baird and family, in the loss by death of a kind husband and father.
