Special Interest to Women Readers

SKY GIRL

over a lot of hooey. Just what hap-

Elinor told him, omitting no detail.

"Whew," Jack whistled. "Old Man

Trouble is sure camping on your trail

But don't worry-you're okay. Naturally, you'd never suspect such a trick. Ho, ho, what have we here?"

Jack started toward the door answer a quick, demanding knock but, before he could reach it, it opened abruptly and Sally Nelson rushed

"I've news, Elinor. It was Judith who tampered with your supplies.

Kay Esterly told me all about it. Kay is a pretty sick girl and she wanted way, Jack, it's all your fault.'

"My fault?" Jack queried.

much!" wailed Elinor.

should know first."

"It's about Leola."

with Ned Cathney."

but she wouldn't. . ."

disappeared."

are married?"

Ned willingly."

City paper.

to get it off her mind. And by the

"Yes, for taking Elinor as your

"Oh, how can she hate me so

"You won't need to worry about her," said Sally. 'I shall dismiss her at once. I've got to rush-get back to the airport. But I thought you

Disappeared

After Sally had gone, Jack said,

"I've got more news for you," Elinor was amazed at the hard expression on his face, the harshness in his voice.

"Leola! Jack, where is she? Norm was just here. He told me she had

"I've seen her." Jack said grimly.

"In a small town near here, at a hotel

"You mean," Elinor gasped, "they

"Jack-not Leola! There's some mistake. Leola is wild and reckless,

"I had hoped not," Jack replied

Elinor frowned, "Did Leola see

"Jack, you don't mean - Leola wasn't drunk! You're mistaken. Norm had a wire from her. She told him I was in danger. You remember her telephone call to me before I left for Fort Worth. She said she had to see me at once. Leola knows something,

Jack. I do not believe she went with

"But it isn't any use, Elinor."

"You would shield her." Jack said.

Betrothed

The day Elinor was to start on her next regular trip, she noticed a silver

"It belongs to a Dr. Norman Rogers of Atlantic City," one of the stewardesses said. "He flew in this morn-

Elinor walked over to the silver ship. Norm's! She climbed into it. A coat lay on the pilot's seat. She touched the sleeve timidly, lovingly,

Then she sat down and buried her

"Norm!" The word was a call, an

She lifted her head. A crumpled newspaper on the floor caught her eye. She picked it up. An Atlantic

She began to turn the pages, idly.

Then she saw Francine's face. "Betrothed." In bold, black type. Elinor read the account of the coming marriage of Francine Bayless and Dr.

Norman Rogers, word by word.

Again she buried her face in the weep who has lost the man she loves.

(TO BE CONTINUED)

A huge forest, covering about 300 square miles, has just been found in the heart of the Australian desert,

by Mr. P. S. Hossfield, senior geologist to the North Australian Survey.

It is mostly of desert oak and is situated in likely gold-bearing country

Issue No. 2—'38

face in the folds of the garment.

plane in the hangar. It looked like privately owned plane.

curtly. "But I cannot doubt my own

"She wouldn't have known it."

stewardess. Judith thinks you two are pened, anyway?"

By NELLIE GRAF

SYNOPSIS

Elinor Ames tries to escape the heartbreak of her postponed marriage to Dr. Norman Rogers by becoming an air stewardess. Dr. Rogers' mother approves an alliance between Norman and wealthy Francine Bayless, Norman is jealous of Jack Newton, the pilot who helped Elinor get her job. Leola Rogers, Norman's sister, is in love with Jack. Leola and Jack have quarreled over Leola taking a position with Ned Cathney of the Cathney Powder Co. Elinor plans a dinner to bring them together. Norman arrives unexpectedly and leaves, jealously angry when he finds Elinor alone with Jack. The next morning, Elinor takes off for Fort Worth and, while administering medical treatment to a passenger, fails to notice that someone has tampered with her supplies. She is put on probation. Norman returns, and they quarrel.

CHAPTER VI

As Norman, his eyes averted, walked slowly toward the door, Elinor stood for a moment quite still. Then, suddenly, she sped to him, took his arm, clung to it. "Norm, you can't go like this!

won't let you!" He looked down at her, his eyes hostile. Then-his arms were about her again,

Elinor, I'll ask you once more, Will you marry me-now? Will you go back with me to Atlantic City?" Elinor wavered - trembling. Why not leave everything? Run away from it. Find sanctuary in Norm's arms. Run away-away-like a coward! She drew away. "I'll marry you, Norm, but not until I can prove to the Modern Airways that I'm competent -not until Jack knows his confidence was not misplaced."

The mention of Jack's name was unfortunate.

"You'll marry me now or never,"

Norm gritted. "It's Jack or I." "Norm, if you mention Jack again

. . . He's in love with Leola." "Don't lie," Norm said harshly, "A man has to believe his own eyes. Francine told me-"

"Francine wants you herself," Elinor interrupted hotly. "She went to Atlantic City to be with you. She's a cheat-a ruthless cheat."

"Leave Francine out of this," growled Norm. "She's been a real friend to me. Once and for all, are you going to marry me? Or are you going to let your crazy notions and your infatuation for Jack Newton get you into a lot more trouble? I'll marry you, Elinor, for the sake of the girl

"So that's the way you feel!" Elinor stood proud and straight, quivering, "All right, then-I won't marry you used to be."

Tense silence followed her words, "Is that final, Elinor?"

"Yes." It was just a whisper. Norm turned and went out.

What Happened?

Elinor made no attempt to detai him. She slumped down on the davenport. She'd never forgive Norm! No matter what he would do. But even as the angry thought went through her mind, she little dreamed of what Norm would do before many days had passed. The house phone rang. Jack Newton's voice answered her listless "Hello."

"I'm coming right up." She wondered if he were coming to reprove her, to tell her how miserably she had failed him on the job he had

"Beautiful heiress. Prominent surgeon." She dropped the paper. secured for her. coat, and wept, as only a girl car

His first words were reassuring, "I hear the cock-eyed world isn't treating you so good. The whole force is agog

DO YOU FEEL SLUGGISH? Maybe you need more wide world. All druggists have Tanol Tab-

When you feel you haven't a friend in the about 70 miles from "The Granites" goldfield, the scene of the latest that's the time your liver is getting you down. Don't fall for it. Make your liver "rush." Mr. Hossfield estimates that there are at least two million trees irectly on the liver, stimulating the liver's whch are valuable for building and of certain laxatives, Tanol Tablets include a small proportion of calomel, probaely the most effective liver stimulant known. In a day or nining purposes. two your liver is at work again as well as

Princess Takes To Shoplifting

Starving Woman Thief Identified As Member of Royalty

A thin, gray-haired woman, dressed in old clothes, walked up to the counter of a Warsaw grocery store, glanced over her shoulder, and put a packet of butter into her bag.

Then a shop detective stopped her. An hour later-at police headquarters -faded identification papers revealed her as Princess Maria Tatiana Tungutov, born 56 years ago-a Russian princess, once famous for her bigscale entertainments.

Her husband, Prince Tungutov, shot by Bolsheviks in 1921, was one of Czarist Russia's wealthiest men and owned gold and silver mines in

She told the police. "For ten years have lived in Poland, struggling to keep alive. Recently I have been almost starving."

Spelling Match

Do you know what are your most common mistakes in spelling? Since the publication in a recent book of the eleven words suposed to be the most common spelling mistakes people are springing impromptu spelling matches on each other at every social gathering. Over in Hamilton the school children have been participating in a radio spelling match sponsored by the Jackson Bread Co. From those in charge of the spelling bee we secured a list of the twenty most common mistakes. You might like to try them out on your family. Here are the words: pedestal, couragyous, indelible, kernel, appetite, consequence, cession, manoeuvre, avaricious, mediate, illiterate, extravagant, benefited, linoleum, solicit, accelerate, docility, alteration, conconant and wield. You may think these are pretty simple but remember they are for public school chil-

Museum Seeks Odd Lampreys

Wants Specimens of Small Eel-Oceans.

Here's a chance for a few Stratford boys to earn a bit of spare cash next spring and at the same time help the Royal Ontario Museum of Zoology in its study of the trek of parasitic | tea with caramel frosting. lampreys from habitual ocean haunts to little streams in this part of the province, says the Beacon-Herald.

In the spring of 1931, Dr. W. T. Gemmell, of Stratford, found a small eel-like water animal in a stream near Harrington. The object was sent to the Zoology Museum in Toronto for identification.

First In Ontario

Now Dr. Gemmell has received letter from the museum officials stat ing the "eel" is a Ichthyomyzon fossor (that's not a typographical error) and was probably the first ever taken in

The museum officials have asked Dr. Gemmell to get in touch with boys or anyone else interested, and ask them to try to find a few more similar lampreys. The museum would be interested in ascertaining how the lampreys were able to reach as far inland before being discovered. Previously they have been found only in oceans, This particular specimen of lamprey is a parasitic animal that fastens onto other fish. Eventually it eats its way inside the fish but before the victim dies the lamprey gets enough nourishment to live and later fastens onto another fish or water

A Parasitic Animal

The species is believed to spawn in ate May or June so anyone who wants to help the museum by finding the lampreys might choose that as the best time for a search. The museum will pay 50 cents for the first specimen received and 10 cents for each additional specimen. It will be found in streams, never in lakes or ponds and is described as four to seven inches long, very dark green (almost black) in color. The lamprey has several small holes through which it breathes.

A Body Builder

WHEN you feel out - of - sorts. when you've no appetite, or stomach gives trouble, with gas or acid indigestion, why not try Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery? If you want to put on healthy flesh—this is the tonio for you. Read what Mrs. Frank Lamothe, 27 North St., St. Catharines, Ont., said t "I had no appetite, was underweight, didn't sleep well at night and after eating I suffered a good bit with acid indigestion and gas. Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery soon had me feeling better again. My appetite improved, my digestion was better and I was much stronger." It's a great

Delicious Cakes For Winter Months

Along with your New Year's resolutions, add one about making fine cakes for the family, throughout the whole year. Gladden your table with home-made cakes which are so far ahead of store-bought ones that there just isn't any compar son. Make lots of different cakes too, the old standbys are good, but most people get tired of the same cake and the same old frosting.

Fine cakes are really a work of art and a credit to any cook. And the success of a cake is not just an accident. Cake bakers often experiment for a long time before they acquire the knack of always turning out a perfect product. Science has eliminated one hazard of cake baking by producing a fine cake flour. Flour that is sifted and sifted through silken sieves till it is twenty-seven times finer than ordinary flour, has been produced especially for cake making. The light, feathery texture of this flour provides a fool-proof main ingredient and provided the other rules of cake baking are followed exactly, every woman should be able to turn out light, evenly textured and delicious cakes every time.

Here is a brand new cake with which to start the New Year. It is a special kind of spice cake and easy to make. It will be especially popular with youngsters and is perfect for teas and luncheons.

Feathery Spice Cake

21/2 cups sifted cake flour.

21/2 teaspoons baking powder. 1/4 teaspoon salt.

1 teaspoon cinnamon

1/2 teaspoon cloves. 1/2 cup butter or other shortening.

1 cup sugar. 2 eggs, unbeaten.

1/3 cup molasses.

4 cup milk. Sift flour once, measure, add baking powder, salt, and spices, and sift together three times. Cream butter thoroughly, add sugar gradually, and cream together until light and fluffy. Add eggs and molasses and beat well, add flour, alternately with milk, like Water Animal Formerly a small amount at a time, beating Thought to Live Only In after each addition until smooth Bake in two greased 9-inch layer pans in moderate oven (375 deg. F.) 30 minutes or until done.

This cake is delicious served warm and unfrosted with baked apples or apple sauce. It is especially good for

Caramel Frosting

11/2 cups brown sugar, firmly packed ½ cup granulated sugar. 1 cup milk.

1 tablespoon butter.

Boil brown sugar, granulated sugar, and milk until syrup forms a soft ball in cold water (232 deg. F.). Add butter, and remove from fire. Cool to lukewarm (110 deg. F.); beat until thick and creamy and of right consistency to spread. Makes enough frosting to cover tops and sides of two 9-inch layers. Decorate with pecan halves or chopped nuts, if

Here is a real treat in the form of Creole Fudge Loaf, a rich velvety. square loaf, beautifully frosted in a two-tone frosting of white and brown. For all its good looks and taste, this cake is surprisingly economical - i requires only one egg.

Creole Fudge Cake

2 cups sifted flour. 2 teaspoons baking powder.

½ teaspoon salt.

1/2 cup butter or other shortening.

1 cup sugar.

1 egg, well beaten.

2 squares unsweetened chocolate melted. % cup milk.

1 teaspoon vanilla. Sift flour once, measure, add baking powder and salt, and sift together three times. Cream butter, add sugar gradually, and cream together until light and fluffy. Add egg and beat well; then chocolate and blend. Add flour, alternately with milk, a small amount at a time, beating after each addition until smooth. Add vanilla. Bake in greased pan, 8x8x2 inches, in moderate oven (325 deg. F.) about 1 hour. Cover cake with Creole Fudge Frosting.

Creole Fudge Frosting 2 egg whites, unbeaten.

11/2 cups sugar. 5 tablespoons water. 11/2 teaspoons light corn syrup.

1 teaspoon vanilla. Put egg whites, sugar, water, and corn syrup in upper part of double boiler. Beat with rotary egg beater until thoroughly mixed. Place over rapidly boiling water, beat constantly with rotary egg beater, and cook minutes, or until frosting will stand in peaks. Remove from fire, add vanilla, and beat until thick enough to spread. Makes enough frosting to cover tops and sides of two 9-inch

Pickpocket Expert Teaches Convicts

Standing in front of 250 prisonerssome of them "lifers"—a stage "pickpocket" earning more than £100 a week, demonstrated the finer points of pocket-picking.

Giovanni was the artist. With Maurice Winnick, his orchestra and the entire cabaret company of 30 from the Piccadilly Hotel, London, England, he entertained prisoners at Maidstone

For the time being, the prison | chap picking his own pocket, chapel became a music hall, with curtained stage and loudspeakers above the walls.

Then came Giovanni, who asked that he should not be introduced as a pickpocket.

"In the Same Business"

He chose two prisoner sfrom the audience, and with these, and with Padre Davis, proceeded to show what an expert can do.

He removed the padre's waistcoat without touching his coat.

But as he was picking the pockets of the prisoner, he caught the smiling

Crocheted in No Time with Laura Wheeler's Help

Let winter winds blow, this saucy hood won't blow off, for it is joined to the scarf and has snug-wristed mittens to match. The set, crocheted in double crochet, will keep you practically air-tight on coldest days . . nothing better for skating or skiing. Use soft Germantown yarn with bright border accents . . . the brighter the better. Pattern 1656 contains directions for making hood with scarf and mittens; material requirements; color suggestions; illustrations of the set and of all stitches used.

Send 20 cents in coins (stamps cannot be accepted) for this pattern to Wilson Needlecraft Dept., 73 West Adelaide St., Toronto. Write plainly PATEERN NUMBER, your NAME and ADDRESS.

FILM INDUSTRY ENCOUNTERS ODD IDEAS OF CENSORSHIP

In Other Countries - Japan Is One of the Most Difficult Markets to Supply With Movies.

A film censor exists in every coun try to-day. But he works by very different standards in different countries. What goes for one nation wil not please another. So difficult are these people to please, that the film makers of Hollywood and Britain have a constant headache deciding whether certain pictures will pass the censor and make money for them in the various countries that buy these

Here in Britain the censor is, perhaps, the most broadminded of any country, says Pearson's Weekly. But even Britain lays down certain taboos for foreign films. American film magnates know that the British censor is perhaps more careful about the dignity of the British Army and Navy than about whether some adolescent is going to carry away a moral blot from seeing a picture.

Certain Nations Susceptible But more worying to the film producer in search of world markets are the growing susceptibilities of various nationals. Make your villain in the film a Japanese, and the picture is promptly banned in Japan and a protest forwarded to Washington by the Japanese government.

No Kissing Allowed Japan, in fact, is one of the most difficult markets to supply with films. Close-ups of kissing - considered obscene-must be cut out as a matter of course. Nor is anything savouring of revolutionary ideas permitted. Scenes which are hostile to royalty or police are cut on sight. And I myself have experienced the uneasiness of a Japanese audience when a man is seen opening a door for a woman. Such politenesses are considered to give false ideas to Japanese women, and not to be encouraged. Choice of Killers Stuns Italy

America discovered during its gangster warfare that many of the ruthless killers were of Italian origin, some coming from that island of hot-blooded killers--Sicily. So it was that in nearly all gangster films the most murderous character was an Itaian. Mussolini and his advisers writhed under this indictment of the Italian in America. They proceeded to ban all films in which the Italian is not the hero.

The Scandinavian countries have an almost fanatical dislike of horror, and this has led to the banning of several Walt Disney cartoons and all the Dracula and Frankenstein thrillers. France, on the other hand, seems one of the most tolerant of nations. France resents no legitimate mixture over cake, letting it run down layers. Melt 2 squares unsweetened on sides. Makes enough frosting to When frosting is set, pour shorolate layers.

French villains or comics, but will not permit a slur upon the French I

Where Censorship Is Strictest In Quebec divorce may not even be mentioned on the screen, while affectionate scenes even between actors who are playing happily married folk, are forbidden.

Ask film producers where they find censorship most strict, and they point to two cities on the world map -Quebec (Canada) and Singapore (Malaya).

Rates: $3 per day single LEXINGTON AVE., at 49th ST. NEW YORK

And The Shelton's location is ideal... on the edge of the Grand Central zone.

buys a new guaranteed REMINGTON PORTABLE

with all essential features FREE_ CARRYING CASE TOUCH TYPING INSTRUCTOR

Remington Rand Limited Toronto

Woollen Heavies Again Favor

Items Popular In Grandma's Day Are Coming Back - Ear-Muffs and Mittens

The feminine younger generation has gone "sensible" in wearing apparci. It is their mothers and grandmothers, who still think they must freeze in sheer this-and-thats to be fashionable. Their college-age daughters have gone in for such items as:

Ear-muffs, hoods, mittens, wool socks, galoshes, flannel night gowns, long-sleeved and high-neck cotton pajamas and woolen heavies. Some of the latter are in the red.

Silk and wool underwear in the knee length variety in colors-red, green blue, yellow - are favored by the younger generation for winter sports. It was observed co-eds crowded the counters in department stores where long-sleeved and high neck lightweight flannel gowns-some with tiny rose-bud patterns-and ski-suit pajamas were being sold. Their mothers were at other counters buying sleeveless, backless gowns.

Child Must Sleep To Develop Well

Refusal to Sleep Means It Has Not Been Well Trained

Children who go to bed unwillingly, at a reasonable hour, or who sleep too little, have not been trained properly. If you accustom a child to a regular bedtime from infancy, you not only help his chances for normal development of body and mind, but also you simplify your own problems of child management.

Long hours of sound sleep are one of the essentials for a child's mental and physical development. The night rest depends largely upon how the day has been spent. An exciting day without a nap may leave a child literally too tired to sleep. Especially should the end of the day be free from excitement. The half hour before bedtime should be devoted to quiet pleasures without romping, exciting games or stories. A child who goes to bed tranquilly is likely to sleep well and to be easy to manage the next day. Clashes between parents and child are often due to the fact that the child is worn out from lack of sleep,

If your child is well developed, if he has firm muscles, sturdy body, erect posture, a clear skin, clear eyes without circles under them, a happy disposition, and a good appetite, he is probably getting the right kind and amount of sleep.

A Revised Bible

Arguments that are "somewhat vague" in the books of Job and Romans will be clarified in a revision of the American standard edition of the Bible, Prof. William R. Taylor, only Canadian on the revising committee, said in an interview at Tor-

The best results of modern scholarship expressed "in the simple, classic style of the King James' version" would be embodied in the revised work, Prof. Taylor, white-haired chief of the department of Oriental languages at the University of Toronto, said. With him will work 14 United States experts on the fiveyear task.

"If a man has more than one wife, that's his business-or problem." he commented on the suggestion the committee might make textual changes in scriptural passages that have to do with polygamy. "We aren't planning anything sensational." he

Red Heads Can Wear Most Hues

Even Pink Is Smart On Some; Blue, Green, Rust Good

There used to be a prejudice against certain colors on people with red hair. but we are coming to understand how gorgeous this coloring is with many once-forbidden hues. Of course, no hair is really red; it is carrot, or copper, or russet, or titian, but not red. The general effect any special shade conveys is enormously modified by the skin and eyes that accompany it. so one would have to write at great length in order to lay down rules, but the writer knows a girl with brilliant carrot-colored hair and blue eyes who is marvelous in pink. "Red" hair should be played up, not down. Blues and greens, mahogany and rust, black, grey and white create luminous of It is frequently stated that bloods should not wear yellow. This theory, however, is contrary to fact, and the creative designers of costumes have always known the value of yellow will this coloring. Worth once said, "What is so beautiful as blondes in sunshine! Therefore, I love to dress them in you low." In this case it is the lustrous fabrics, such as satin, which are particularly enchanting. Of course there are blondes and blondes and the sallow skin may rebel against yellow, but the clear, creamy blonde with honey colored hair is never lovelier than "in

LESSON II PREPARING FOR A LIFE O

Golden Text-Make ye ready way of the Lord. Mark 1:3. THE LESSON IN ITS SETTIN Time.-We do not know exa when John the Baptist began preaching, but it is generally ass ed to the summer and fall of ! 26, while the baptism of Jesus place in January, A.D. 27, and immediately followed by the tem

SERVICE .- Mark 1:1-13

Place. - John's preaching place in Judaea, the southern par Palestine, which included the city Jerusalem, though most of it probably done on the eastern sid Judaea in the Wilderness near Jordan River, where also Christ baptized, and somewhere near wi possibly on the eastern side of Jordan River, he was tempted. 1. The beginning of the gospe

Jesus Christ This verse is a se scription or title, not for the fifteen verses of Mark's Gospel, for the entire book. All that records, may be considered only the beginning of the gospel of Cl The word 'gospel" meant si "good ne.g." in the parase "the pel of Jesus Christ" we are to ut stand the preposition "of" to I "the gospel which concerns the Jesus Christ," the message of new, which men would never hear I, and which never would had an existence, except through Tile and work of Jesus Christ. In the very title "Jesus Chris the cospel deeply embedded, for fact that there would come Or deliver his people, a prophet spefor God, all are to be taken as only good news, but the greate good news. The Son of God. Mark and early Clristians knew the Lord to be the very Son of God, part of God'- nature, of his power, of holiness, of his wisdom, the only gotten Son of the Father. John the Baptist 2. Even as it is written in I the prophet. The two passages quoted are from Mal. 3:1 and 40:2. Professor Lenski well ren us that Mark, by referring on Isaiah; and indeed the form of prephet's words makes them valuable. The words from Ma and added as of life nature. Be I send my messenger before thy who shall prepare the way." The ther is actually speaking to the concerning the messenger who w precede him and prepare for his 3. The voice of one crying it wilderness. Literally, the wilder , here referred to was that great d appearance. John was a living tration of how little man really here below, something we are I to forget." Make ye ready the way of Lord, make his paths straight. phus, when describing a mare Vespasian, says that with the guard of an Oriental procession 'such as were to make the road that hindered their march, that army might not be tired"."-Th 4. John came, who baptized it wilderness and preached the bar of repentance unto remission of The word "repentance" means turn around," "to change mind," "to reverse one's attitude recognition that the heart has pented of sin. Baptism for a unless there is repentance a washing away of sins by the Jesus, is of no value whatever really a mockery. 6. And John was clothed with el's hair. This probably means John wore a long, loose robe w from camel's hair, a garment coarse texture often worn by th and enabled it to be tucked up rapid walking." 8. And did eat locusts and honey. "The law permitted the for food, of locusts and certain kinds of grasshopper."

treme poor. And had a lea girdle about his loins. "The p kept the robe from flapping a

"There Cometh After Me" 7. And he preached, saying, 7 cometh after me he that is mig then I. John here implies the too is strong, the divine streng the word having been given to The latchet of whose shoes I an worthy to stoop down and unl In an Oriental household it was task of the slave to stoop down unloose the thongs which bound sandals of a guest or the slave's ter to their feet, and John here nowledges that there is such a Inite difference between Christ of his glory and perfectness and