MISS MACPHAIL'S WEEKLY LETTER

In Parliament—the Senate and the House of Commons—many matters have been talked of, numerous pieces of legislation advanced a stage, several committees have sat and in all offices the increasingly heavy routine business has been carried on.

The Prime Minister, in a brief statement, spoke of the momentous happenings in Europe and Asia, and said: "Canada is a part of the continent of North America. Unless it is the desire to have it appear that our country is anxious to participate in these events and to become a party to or a part of what is happening...

Mr. King thought that we should, at all costs, avoid embarrassing the countries faced with the present appalling situation. At this juncture, Mr. Woodsworth asked him if the government would put an embargo on war materials going into Japan, but received no answer.

If a discussion such as reported in the newspapers could be carried on in the British House of Commons, Mr. Bennett could not see what harm would come from having the head of the government in this country indicate what the government's appreciation of the situation is "in the light of their fuller information."

As Mr. Bishop, writing in the Citizen, says, the power export question "comes on and goes off." And that's about it. In the second reading of the Bill, transferring the authority from the Governor-in-Council (the cabinet) to Parliament, to grant licenses for the export of power, an interesting statement was made by the Prime Minister. He said that if this Bill passed and a private Bill based on it was introduced, that is, a Bill from a province requesting the right to export power, Liberal members are to be free to vote as they please.

Last week I was telling you that Mr. Dunning admitted and even defended a managed currency, but at the same time attacked Mr. Tucker the member for Rosthern, for wanting to manage it some more—shall we say, better. They are not unlike. They even look alike, and they are both stubborn and smiling and have the same kind of square jaw.

So one wasn't surprised to hear Mr. Tucker saying "I'm still unrepentant and unconvicted." He then went on to rejoice in the fact that the Finance Minister had attacked his theory. He thought it a distinct step forward that the Minister took notice of it at all. He had noticed, he said, that when things are brought up in the House first they are generally ignored as being beneath notion. "I can remember when the suggestion that the banks loaned out ten dollars for every dollar of cash by which they increased their cash reserves was treated with a great deal of derision." But if things are brought up often enough, some notice is eventually paid them and the first thing we know the suggestion is enacted into law. He thought he had reached the second stage. Mr. Tucker's idea is the one advanced many, many times by G. G. (Continued on page 5.)

Lawn Bowlers Reorganized Tuesday

For the lawn bowlers, spring is just around the corner. Durham, bowlers are the first to reorganize for summer sport, holding their annual meeting Tuesday in the Library. The club has had a satisfactory year, with a number of new members, though unfavorable weather and other causes lessened outside attendance at tournaments.

Dr. T. H. Sneath was re-elected as President for 1938, Rev. W. H. Smith is Vice-President, and T. G. Goodchild is again Sec'y and caretaker, and G. E. Webster, Treasurer. Dr. W. C. Pickering is convener of Games Com., the others on com. being: A. Ries, H. Cross, Robt. Campbell and W. S. Hunter. With an early start and active organization, it is hoped to make 1938 the best year yet.

REPAIRS TO LAMBTON ST. BRIDGE

Near the centre of Lambton St. highway bridge last week a four inch sag was noticed, through the water conduit at north side leading. Two iron cross supports were found broken, and Mr. Frank Simmonds of Highways Dept., of Owen Sound is this week in charge of repairs.

KNOX EVENING AUXILIARY

Knox Evening Auxiliary held their March meeting at the home of Mrs. Jas. Mather. The president, Miss Barbara Ritchie, presided. Mrs. W. H. Smith led in prayer, and the devotional topic, "The World-wide Church" was given by Mrs. E. Bennett. The study group, under the leadership of Mrs. C. McGillivray gave an interesting review of what the church is doing at various places in Canada. Mrs. J. B. Duffield gave the mission work at "Church of All Nations" in Toronto. Miss Barbara Ritchie, the work in Vancouver; and Miss Florence MacDonald in Victoria. The roll call was answered by naming a missionary and where stationed. It was decided to hold a sale of homemade baking April 2 in Mr. W. J. Vollett's vacant store.

Houck, vice-chairman of the Ontario Hydro-Electric Power Com., will introduce a bill in the Legislature amending the rural power district service charge act, whereby farmers may get hydro service with only two power purchase contracts to the mile, instead of three as at present.

Owen Sound Trappers Out

With an 8-2 defeat by Preston in the deciding game at Midland Saturday, Owen Sound Trappers hockey team was eliminated from Int. A playoffs when in the final, Irvin Elvidge of town aided the team in their march to the top, but was used only about 5 minutes in final game. Had he his regular post, we doubt if Preston would have gained such a decisive lead.

THE ROLL CALL

WM. R. WALLACE

In the prime of life, a widely known young man throughout this district, William Robert Wallace, died on Monday evening, after a three weeks' illness from heart trouble. He was almost forty-five years of age, and with a weak heart, has been forced to relinquish work at times, and live a quieter life during the past few years. His passing was sudden and has occasioned deep regret throughout the town and district.

Will was born at the family home, con. 3, Normandy, in April 1893, a son of Mr. Thomas Wallace and the late Mrs. Wallace who passed away last fall. He attended No. 1 Normanby, Public and Durham High School, later securing his certificate as a model school teacher. He taught five years successfully at Zion in Glenelg, and has since lived on the home farm, and the last five years in Durham. Eight years ago he was wedded to Miss May Davis of Egremont, who survives him, with his aged father, one brother, Thomas on the homestead in Normandy and four sisters: Mrs. Ed. Smith, (Mary) of Toronto; Mrs. Wes. Storey (Nellie) of Durham; Mrs. Andrew Marshall (Grace) of Normandy; Mrs. Wm. Eden (Mabel) of Varney.

Since coming to Durham Will has been a valued employee of the Durham Furniture Co. He was an active Orange worker, being a member of the Black Chapter of the Lodge; and also an Oddfellow. For four or five years he was the efficient Sec'y-Treas. of Durham Agricultural Society. Possessing a keen mind, a willing spirit and a friendly disposition with his fellow-men, he was an exemplary young man, whose loss will be deeply mourned.

The funeral service will be held on Thursday at 2.30 from the home of his brother-in-law, Mr. Wes. Storey, with interment in Maplewood cemetery.

MRS. JOHN THOMPSON

Another of the pioneer residents of North-east Normandy, Mrs. John Thompson, passed to her reward on Sunday last, having just passed her eightieth birthday. For several years she has been an invalid and early last October, went to the home of her daughter, Mrs. Allan Wise, Bentinck, to spend the winter under her care, and here the end came, after a week's serious illness.

On March 10, 1858, the deceased was born at Ball's Corners, Normandy, her maiden name being Elizabeth Ball. All her life she has been a resident of the township. 56 years ago she was wedded to John Thompson and they have since resided on several East Normandy farms; for many years on the present homestead, lot 19, con. 2, owned by her sons John and William, since the death of her husband about six years ago.

To them was born a family of four daughters and three sons: Mrs. Geo. Stockley (Olive) of Toronto, who died 25 years ago; Wellington of Disley, Sask.; Maude and Dinah of Riverdale Hospital staff, Toronto; Mrs. Allan Wise (Lydia) of Bentinck; John and William on home farm. There are eight grandchildren. Also surviving are one sister, Mrs. J. Thompson, Toronto, and six brothers: Thos. Ball of Hanover; Jack of Neustadt; James of Normandy; Hugh of Flesherton; Eph. of Bentinck; and Joe at Michipicoten.

The deceased possessed a whole-hearted, sympathetic disposition, and was a tried and true friend and neighbor. All her married life she was a member of Knox Church Normandy, and held a life membership in the Women's Missionary Society. Her former pastor, Rev. Robt. Honeyman, Durham, conducted the funeral service on Tuesday afternoon, taking for his text, Tim. 4: 7: "I have fought a good fight." Favorite hymns of the deceased were sung: "Blest be the tie that binds"; "How firm a foundation"; "O God our help in ages past." Interment was made in Maplewood cemetery, the pallbearers being Jas. Petty, and Marshall Sr., John Marshall, Jas. McC. Marshall, Elgin Wilton, Geo. Ball.

PERSONAL MENTION

The flower bearers were Leslie and Albert Ball, Arthur Wise, Gordon Thompson. Beautiful floral tokens of love were given: a basket pillow by the family and Mr. Wm. Thompson Sr.; sprays from Knox church, Normandy and the Nursing staff of Riverdale Hospital, Toronto; wreath from the Alumni Ass'n of Riverdale Hospital.

EARL BARBER

The funeral services of the little son of Mr. and Mrs. Cecil Barber was conducted by Rev. W. H. Smith who gave a comforting message to the bereaved based on the words of Jesus, "For where your treasure is, there will your heart be also." The children's hymn "When He Comes" was sung and Mrs. John Petty sang as a solo "Does Jesus care." The many floral gifts brought their own tribute of love and sympathy and these were carried by seven small girls and boys. The remains in a tiny casket was carried by four cousins and laid to rest in Maplewood cemetery. There was a large crowd of friends and neighbors present for the service, some coming from Toronto, Owen Sound, Singhampton, Holstein and other places.

Spring's Official Opening is Summer-like

The warmest Spring opening in ninety years, says the weather bureau man in Toronto. The same springlike brand visited Durham this Monday and Tuesday, and judging by the look on her citizens, the change was a welcome one. All who could, grasped an alibi to be outside. Whatever may come in the remaining days of March, we will at least remember for a long time that the 21st ushered in the mildest Spring weather for decades. That day saw the mercury climb to 61 or 62 degrees, while Tuesday saw almost midsummer heat, when 71 degrees was the highest recorded here.

We usually have the odd hot day in March, but rarely a three-day heat wave. Tonight, Wednesday, it has become much cooler and we may look for at least a couple returns of Winter's blasts before Spring is here to stay. With such climatic conditions, little wonder the snow has now all disappeared, while off the pavements, the roads are soft and muddy.

No. 10 Highway between Chatsworth and Holland Centre has been temporarily closed, owing to impassible condition of road for motor traffic.
