PRICEVILLE AND VICINITY

PRICEVILLE

On Thursday last Mr. H. R. McLean had his sheep power clipped, some 50 in number, by Mr. Lawrence of near Durham. Quite an improvement on the old style sheep-shears.

Misses Bertha and Edith James, after spending the winter helping their sister, Mrs. W. Boves, near Markdale to restored health (which we are

They are all fine singers, even to the reading. Mrs. Sutherland read a cute little four-year-old girl. Mr. Shiels accompanied on the piano, without notes or guiding sheet of any kind. A wonderful family, eight years out from Bonnie Dundee.

Saturday passed without note, except that many farmers were taking home, loads of fertilizers. 'Tis to be hoped that all manure is out of the barnyard first.

Harry Richardson, up on a visit to relatives in Proton and here, visited over the week end, bringing with him the clever Anna McLean, who had secured the award for beautiful penmanship in the business college. She had that distinction before, having won the medal given by the N. B. College, Owen Sound. She brought with her, her young niece, Anne Lynne Shantz. Miss Mary Runciman also accompanied them up for the week end.

On Thursday evening it was our lot (no, the word "lot" seems too harsh) it was our good fortune to take in the silver tea given by the gracious ladies of the Presbyterian Church. Tho' assured by the two leading ladies that men were welcome and expected, there I was "as for I sprang up the Brae, I dinner'd w' the laddies." The enjoyment was ours in meeting so many cheery feminine friends. We are not like one who can't appreciate worth and friendliness.

On Friday evening the noted Shiels family of Chesley, held forth in the Agricultural hall to a large audience. Somewhat tardy in commencing (8.53) it was fully made up in the reading of their many fine selections, with little pause between. To mention any one piece as being the best is beyond us. In notes taken, all were recorded "good", while "Coming thro' the rye" was noted as the "best yet". The selections on the piano-accompanied by Mr. Shiels were highly pleasing, and responded to with encores "gold mine in the sky" and "speed the plow."

Mr. David Harris of Markdale, occupied the pulpit of St. Columba church on Sunday, in the absence of Rev. H. E. Wright, called away. For a young man, the first time in a strange church, he did remarkably well, from that grand verse: "For God so loved the world."

Mrs. John McFarlane (nee Anna Mary MacLean) arrived on Saturday for further recuperation, in company with her brother Innis MacLean, at her parents' home.

Mrs. Fred Karstedt, on a visit to her father and other friends at Toronto for several days, returned on Saturday, her brother driving the car.

The monthly meeting of St. Columba W.M.S. and W.A., was held on April 20th, at the home of Mrs. F. McKinnon. Mrs. Ritchie, presiding, read an Easter story. Miss Saunders read the scripture lesson. Miss B. Weir took the study period, dealing with our missions in Trinidad. A group of ladies sang an appropriate Easter number. Miss Sadie Oliver, president of the W. A., led in discussing current business. Two hymns to be used on Mothers' Day, were introduced by Rev. H. E. Wright. Refreshments were served by the hostesses, assisted by Mrs. Harrison and Mrs. Whyte.

The Mission Band met at the home of Isabelle Weir. Under the direction of their leader, Miss Anna Shortreed, the girls are making a pretty star quilt.

The Holdfast U. F. O. Club members with their husbands and families met at the home of Miss May Stewart before her marriage to spend a social hour with her. The evening was spent in progressive euchre. A mock wedding was a humorous feature which brought gales of laughter. Mrs. Dan Campbell, the minister performed the ceremony to the bride, Mrs. J. A. Nichol and the groom, Mrs. J. R. Sinclair. At an appropriate time Miss May Stewart was called upon and a complimentary address was read by Mrs. Dan Campbell and the presentation of 9 pieces of graniteware in red and cream was made by Mrs. Neil Cameron, Mrs. Wm. Beaton and Mrs. W. J. Hincks. Miss Stewart fittingly replied, thanking the Club kindly for their lovely gifts. All joined and sang "For she's a jolly good fellow." A bountiful lunch was served to all and a social time was spent over the tea cups.

On Thursday afternoon the W. H. Society held a "Silver Tea" in St. Andrew's Church. A good crowd was present and all enjoyed the lovely supper served on little tables. Mrs. T. Nichol and Mrs. Dan Campbell poured tea.

Miss Beth Hincks spent a few days last week visiting in Toronto.

Mr. Bob Brodie, Alex and John Brodie, Toronto spent Easter week at the home of Mr. Ben McKenzie.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Pedlar and son Dick, Toronto spent Sunday at her parental home, Mr. Donald Carson returned with them after spending the past week here.

Miss Marrie McLachlan who took a course at Hamilton is visiting at her home.

On Tuesday afternoon the W. M. S. and W. H. Societies met at the home of Mrs. T. Nichol with a good attendance. Mrs. J. McMeekin presided. Roll call was answered by a favorite supper dish. Mrs. Sutherland gave a reading, also Mrs. D. Campbell. It was decided to have a reception in the church for Mr. Taylor and his wife in May.

Mrs. Sutherland presided over the W. M. S. Miss Nellie McLean gave a splendid reading on "Faith." Mrs. Dan Campbell also gave a humorous

THE PAST

The past is clothed in beauty now, But beauty not her own— A garment woven by the years. Of joys and sorrows grown. For memory clothes with beauty's art All but life's starkest hours; Even they are lightly wrapped in robes Of mist and myrtle flowers. Our yesterdays are rosy-wreathed Their skies a deeper blue, The nights are strewn with silver stars And every love is true. No heart can feel forever then The stinging shafts of pain; And tho' the wound be wide and deep Years heal the wound again. And thus across the vale of years We turn and backward gaze, Where wrapped in bright illusions stand The unforgotten days.

IN DAYS OF YORE

25 YEARS AGO

(from Review file April 24 1913)

The induction of the Rev. Archibald McVicar, B. A., as pastor of Chalmers Church, Fiesherston and an associated congregation took place on Thursday.

Nothing but a heavy rain which was falling at the time, prevented a large congregation this Wednesday morning. Robt Ewen's livery barn was in flames. The rain checked the rapidity of the blaze but the stable was doomed and a bucket brigade extending on the roof saved Robt. Burnett's stable in close proximity.

SWINTON PARK

(intended for last week)

The weather is very reasonable. April showers and sunshine, mingled with much fog. Not the best weather for those in delicate health and many are ailing. Mr. Neil McLeod makes very slow progress in regain-ing his health.

Little Elwood McKay, just 3 1/2 years old, injured his eye with a replid, thanking the Club kindly for their lovely gifts. All joined and sang "For she's a jolly good fellow." A bountiful lunch was served to all and a social time was spent over the tea cups.
