In the reorganization of the ac phone Company, in which the Wessize, another promotion has been given to E. G. Hildebrand, a former Durham boy, who left here as a High School student when his parents moved to Toronto about twenty years ago. This most recent advancement is from General Traffic Supervisor, Western Area to Division Traffic Superintendent, Western Division made up of five large districts. His School Children Tour responsibilities for the firm expand over a wide area, as the Western Division reaches from Peterboro to Windsor and Northward to North Bay. Durham is situated in the London district which manages the company's business from Southampton to St. Thomas and from Sarnia to a line scuth from Durham.
