Golden Jubilee of St. Columba in October

The Golden Jubilee Committee of St. Columba Church is hard at work under the energetic Chairmanship of Mr. W. G. McBride...

Rev. Sinclair Jones, B. A. of Watford, Ont. returns to the pulpit of St. Columba for Jubilee Sunday, October 9, and will preach both morning and evening.

Invitations by the hundred are being mailed to former members of the church now living in other parts of Canada and the United States.

Already many from a distance have signified their intention to be present at the Jubilee Fowl Supper on October 10th, when in addition to the many old timers whose presence will be of great interest, the Owen Sound Quartette under the leadership of Mr. Ashton Kellough and assisting artists will be on hand. October 2nd will be the Jubilee Sunday School Rally when thoughts will be turned back through the years, Sunday Oct. 16th is to be "Former Minister's Sunday" when Rev. F. Sullivan will occupy the pulpit morning and evening, and also preach at Salem Church in the afternoon.

An important Jubilee event will be the Jubilee Communion Service to be held October 23rd, when it is hoped the President of Toronto Conference will be present and conduct the service.

HOW'S THIS ONE A negro Baptist minister was exhorting: "Now, breddren and sistern, come up to de altar and have yo' sins washed away."

All came up but one man. "Why, Brudder Jones, don't yo' want yo' sins washed away?" "I done had my sins washed away."

"Yo' has? Where yo' had yo' sins washed away?" "Over at de church cross de road."

"Ah, Brudder Jones, yo' ain't been washed; yo' jest been dry cleaned."

The concert put by the W. I. proved interesting. It was by Joe McGreggor Co. Absent herself, her place was taken efficiently by Miss Irene Baker, Hamilton.

Mr. Davies, Hamilton a ventriloquist, did some good work with his boys, especially in their singing, rather overdone in keeping one of them quiet so often repeated.

Mr. and Mrs. W. R. Dickie were in Toronto a few days last week attending the wedding of his nephew.

Mrs. James Dingwall and daughter Miss Emma, Cedarville, Mr. and Mrs. Herb Campbell, Montreal, were callers Thursday at Mr. William Dingwall's and Mr. George Christie's.

Mr. and Mrs. Elwin Hood and little son Ronald visited with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Bailey, Shelburne last Friday and attended Shelburne Fair.

A number from this vicinity attended the splendid anniversary service at Swinton Park church on Sunday and noted the improvement of the splendid electric lighting system installed through the generosity of Mr. John Campbell, Toronto.

Mrs. Geo. Warren, Toronto is a pleasant visitor the last three months with Mrs. Salter of the "Helland Hills."

A large list of old-time residents has been made. Their presence will be requested to our Oct. month's Jubilee beginning Oct. 9th and continuing to the end of the month. Fowl supper on the 10th.

Miss Bertha James returned on Friday from assisting her sister, Mrs. Doves near Markdale, over their 3 days threshing.

Mr. and Mrs. John Parker and daughter Shirley, Mabel Everist, Elia Riddagh and Mr. Jimmie Bartlett of Toronto visited on Sunday at Ed. Everist's.

On Tuesday afternoon, Mrs. Donald Campbell was hostess to the W. M. S. and W. H. Societies, when 26 ladies were present.

Mrs. Mary McEachern presided over the meeting. Mrs. McArthur gave the topic of "Beauty Inside the House" which was much enjoyed.

The roll call was answered by "hints on canning." Mrs. J. A. Nichol gave a humorous reading. Mrs. Sutherland presided over the W.M.S.

nise the thoughtfulness of the gift you have conferred upon us by having electric lights installed in this your "Home Church."

We pray that God, whom we believe has guided you all these years, will continue to bless you, Mrs. Campbell and your daughters.

On Sunday, the 9th of October, Thanksgiving services will be conducted by Rev. Mr Taylor at Swinton at 3 p.m. You'll enjoy them if you can be there.

Threshing, taking up the potatoes and mangels, are keeping everyone busy these days. Roots are not so large as last year, yet a very fair crop, considering how little rain we have had during the summer.

Visitors at the home of Mr and Mrs. R. T. Cook, Sunday were: Mr. and Mrs. John Hamilton of Green Grove, and Mr. and Mrs. Lorne McNally of near Durham.

IN DAYS OF YORE

25 YEARS AGO (from Review file Sept. 25, 1913) "Albert McClinton of Flaxcombe, Saskatchewan, won the watch donated by President Gordon for the farmer winning the most points. Mr. McClinton made a very strong showing of grasses."

Mayor Black in spite of the fire and trouble it brought is attending to a proposition of a firm in Michigan to re-establish a Creamery in Durham.

Mr. Nat. Harvey's venture into the fox raising is certainly proving successful. Two weeks ago he sold eight of the furry brown animals for the sum of $1200.

Pulling his gun out of his boat by the barrel, Francis A. Green, accidentally shot himself at Regina Beach on Saturday, sustaining serious injuries from which he died three hours later.

"That dam should last as long as the English language," said a spectator watching the construction of the new dam John McGowan is building for his large flour mill.

The bedwork and breastwork also cement, has been placed directly on top of old dam while the whole structure will enjoy the height of 19 feet.

Priceville Corr: The pall bearers at the funeral of the late Donald Matherson were: Donald McKinnon, Angus McMillan, Ray McLean, Robert Patton, Dave McLeod and Neil E. McKinnon.

Holstein Corr: Mrs J. H. Brown and family leave this week for a month's visit at Ottawa, previous to their departure for the West.

Mr. Will Coburn had a narrow escape from serious injury Monday. When gathering cream in going down a steep hill, a tug became unfastened, allowing the whiffetrees to strike the spokes in the front wheel.

The noise frightened the horses and they started to run away. In turning a corner the wagon was upset, throwing the cream cans down a bank.

How the driver escaped unhurt it is hard to say. The tank with cream in it was fortunately landed right side up and none of its contents lost.

A professor was one day walking near Aberdeen when he met a well-known "natural." "Pray," said the professor, "how long can a man live without brains?" "I dinna ken" said the old man, scratching his head: "how old are ye?"
