STILL PURSUING THE SPY RING

United States Attorney Lamar Hardy, and his daughter, Michelle, are pictured on the S. S. Normandie as they sailed from New York for Europe. The young lady is going to Europe for a vacation, but the attorney is going to run down several "definite leads" in his inquiry into the widespread ramifications of the Nazi spy ring. Sensational new disclosures were promised. He will not visit Germany where 13 persons, who are under spy indictments are said to be living.

Pick Miss Macphail as Canada's Greatest Woman

On a questionnaire submitted to the senior students of Toronto secondary schools, Agnes MacPhail M. F. was voted the greatest Canadian woman and Sir Frederick Banting the greatest Canadian man living, and Premier Neville Chamberlain of Britain, the greatest man in the world.

Madame Chang Kai-Shek, wife of the Chinese generalissimo, was by far the choice as the world's greatest living woman. Next to her came the queen mother and Mrs Roosevelt tied. Queen Elizabeth was fourth.

Next in the running to Premier Chamberlain, with only one-fifth of his vote, was President Roosevelt. For greatest Canadian, Sir Frederick Banting drew seven times as many votes as his nearest rival, Premier King. Others who secured listing were Premier Hepburn, J. F. Woodsworth, Hon. R. B. Bennett, Col. George A. Drew, Lord Tweedsmuir, Air Marshall Wm. Bishop, V. C., Arthur Robbuck, Denton Massey, Stephen Leacock, and others.

The voting was closer as to the greatest Canadian woman. Miss Macphail had a nice lead on Mrs George Black, the other feminine member in the House of Commons, and Maro de la Roche, novelist, was third.

The late Pauline Johnston, Indian poetess, drew a number of votes through, of course, she could not qualify within the terms of the question. Mary Pickford might have been expected to poll heavily, but she got only three votes. The present generation of students are not well acquainted with her.

There was scattered support for Norma Shearer, Hon. Cairine Wilson, Miss Jean Gunn, Mrs Bruce, Miss Helen MacMurchy, Nellie McClung, Miss L. M. Montgomery, Edna Jacques, the western poetess, and Mrs Albert Matthews.

The competition was close among the male screen stars. Errol Flynn was just in front, with Nelson Eddy second, one vote ahead of Gary Cooper and Clark Gable. Spencer Tracy was next. There was only one vote for George Arliss and one for Charles Laughton. The screen lovers have it on the character actors.

Myrna Loy was well in the lead among the film ladies, with Norma Shearer second and Deanna Durbin and Jeanette MacDonald tied for third place, Bette Davis was fourth, Katharine Hepburn fifth, Greta Garbo got but two votes. Strange as it may seem, there was only one vote for Shirley Temple.

"Robin Hood" was far in the lead as the best movie the students had seen in the past year, and "San Francisco" the best film. "Cavalcade" and "Tale of Two Cities" were the closest rivals of "San Francisco" for first place in favourite films. "Snow White" was far down the list. "Lost Horizon," with its blending of adventure and philosophy, drew a good vote. There were two votes for "Birth of a Nation"—too far back for present day students to remember—and two for "Romeo and Juliet."

The vote on books showed that the students were dipping into biography and philosophy. There were votes for "Seven Pillars of Wisdom," Bacon's Essays, "10,000,000,000 Guinea Pigs," Lincoln's Life, "In the Steps of St. Paul," "Inside Europe," and Shakespeare. And three students voted the Bible the best book they had ever read.

LIGHT DIVISION COURT DOCKET

Remembered Their Teacher. At a Halloween school held in S. S. No. 2 Egremont school on Friday, October 28th, the pupils presented their retiring teacher, Mr. B.C. Firth with an electric reading lamp. Evelyn Atkinson read the address below, while Cairne Pollock presented it. Mr Firth made an appreciative reply.

He has been a valued teacher there for over two years, but resigned at end of October to teach on the staff of his home school, Durham.

Dear Mr. Firth: We, the pupils of S.S. No. 2 have recently learned with surprise and deep regret, of your departure from our school.

During your teaching period here, you have endeared yourself to us all and have proved yourself to be a very efficient teacher, being kind, affectionate, and also impartial.

We feel sorry to know your term with us is about completed, but know the change you have made will be a step higher in your profession, and to much better advantage in your progression in life. Therefore, to show the estimation in which you are held in our section, we ask you to accept this lamp, and hope that it may be a benefit to you during your periods of study in the future.

With all sincerity we say good-bye. From the pupils, in behalf of the section: Evelyn and Cairne.

AMONG THE CHURCHES

LARGELY ATTENDED

COMMUNION SERVICE

There was the largest attendance of members present for years, at the November communion service in Knox United Church Sunday morning last, some 310 partaking of the sacred rite.

Rev. W. H. Smith had charge of the fine service throughout. Mrs. M. Wilson sang a sweet solo, "The Stranger of Galilee." Twenty-two united with the church, on profession of faith, and by certificate.

YOUNG PEOPLE TAKE SERVICE

IN PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH

The first service taken over by the young people of the Presbyterian Church, was held on Sunday evening.

The president, Gordon Greenwood, presided and led in the call to worship and opening prayer. The choir comprised members of the Junior Y. P.S. and Senior Y. P.S. and contributed a voluntary, "Brightly Gleams our Banner", while Mrs. Gordon Greenwood favored with a solo. Others leading in prayer were Messrs. Dan. Firth and Frank Ritchie, the latter also reading the announcements.

The scripture lesson was read by Sadie McEachern, while J. E. McEachern and Jack Cain acted as ushers. Rev. S. M. Hirtle's address was especially directed to young people, and the service was of a high tone throughout.

The Women's Auxiliary of the Presbyterian Church met on Thursday evening, November 2nd at the home of Mrs Lorne McNally with a large attendance of members and visitors.

The president, Mrs Clarence Barfoot presided. Mrs C. H. Darling and Mrs J. C. Howell took the devotional exercises. Ballots were taken on the election of officers, to be in charge of a committee for the annual meeting next month.

Mrs Herb Cross and Mrs Clarence Barfoot offered to be a visiting committee for this month. The topic from "The Life of Dr Jessie McBean" was taken by Mrs Albert McRonald.

Dr. McBean has visited Durham several times, and study of her work in China was very interesting to the Y. W. A.

Mrs McNally and assistants served lunch and a social period was spent. The December meeting will be held at the home of Mrs McDonnell.

KNOX WOMEN'S ASSOCIATION

Car Crashed into Occupants Escaped

About 9.30 a.m. on Sunday, a car accident occurred on "fat's Corner," 6 miles from town, when a Dodge sedan, driven by Mr. Ernest town.

Mr. Baxter and Mrs. Lawrence had been west of town and upon returning to town, No. 6 had a crash.

Mr. Lawrence looked to each behind no approach.

The truck then in front of the car, crossing the road when the front wheel hit the curb.

The truck was badly damaged, having a gross weight of 3,300 lbs., 13 feet in length and 6 feet in width.

The truck was badly damaged, probably to such an extent that it will not be worth the expense of repairing.

The car driver received extensive injuries which will involve a long hospital stay.

Fortunately the occupants of the truck were not injured, receiving a few cuts, including a shaking up.
