PRICEVILLE

The old-time social, after a postponement, owing to death in town, two weeks previously, was held on Tuesday evening, when several ladies held forth in frills, furbelows, flithery-diddles, even to the ubiquitous bustle. It was a pleasant reminder of olden times, of skirts sweeping the floor.

IN DAYS OF YORE

25 YEARS AGO (from Review file, Nov. 13 1913)

Some fifty or sixty members of the Baptist congregation here, with a sprinkling of other denominations met last evening at the home of Mr and Mrs Burgess, Upper Town, to spend an evening with Rev and Mrs McCausland before their departure for his new charge in Palmerston.

Last week and within the week, two new furnaces were put in the basement of the Presbyterian church and changes made in the piping.

The Furniture Factory here ever progressive, has added to its equipment a Linderman Glueing Machine. It is some twenty-seven feet long, and weighs enormously, cost over $4000 and was made in Woodstock, Ontario. The management employed the Rogers' house-moving gang to transfer it from car to factory, and it proved a tough job, upsetting during the unloading in the sloppy weather.

Inspector Beckett of Owen Sound and our own License Inspector Allen stepped into the Middaugh House on Saturday night to interview the proprietor, but he it seems was not at home. They decided to wait till he came home, as they wished to have the bar opened for inspection and it is alleged that those in charge of the house refused this request. They waited and the night went by, but on Sunday forenoon early they left the premises we believe ungratified.

Neighbours and friends numbering 70, gathered at the home of Mr. and Mrs Adam Weir, con. 3, E.G.R., Guelph, on Thursday night and presented them with a fine hallrack as a remembrance and a token of their esteem prior to the departure of this respected couple and their family to live in town. An address was read by Mr Robt. McFadden while John Newell made the presentation. A short programme of music and short addresses followed, Mr. Geo Binnie taking the part of the chairman.

Scotchtown: Messrs Malcolm McMillan and Joe Firth are engaged to put in the cement floors in the stable of A. McMillan's new barn.

Priceville: It is needless to make any comment on the weather as we all feel the effects of the change from the beautiful weather of last week. Nearly every body has his cutter out now but they may be obliged to use the wheels again this year.

When the weather gets cold bachelors will be huddled up in bed to keep their feet warm and what about the maids—they will keep themselves warm anyway. Dhoibill am faobhar sa tsamhaidh sa tuach a aheamhraidh teachd aluth orn or the summer and autumn is past and the cold winter is near us.

Miss Ella Renton of Dromore, spent her last Sunday in Egremont at the home of Mr and Mrs W. Ramage, before taking her departure Tuesday of this week for a course in Guelph General Hospital.

Holstein Corr: If present plans do not miscarry, Holstein will soon boast a branch of Canada's latest and fastest growing industry, that of fox-farming. A number of citizens headed by Dr W. P. Ellis have taken the matter in hand and intend to launch the project in the form of a joint stock company with a capital of $20,000.

Little Eva, 'Mother, what is a book-worm?' Mother, 'One who collects books.' Among the guests next evening was Miss Sparks wearing many rings. Little Eva, very observant, suddenly cried out: 'Look at Miss Sparks, mother, she must be a ring-worm!'
