

Watchdog Will Guard Quints

Great Dane Purchased by the Guardians of Five Little Sisters

The police constable on night duty before the home of the Dionne quintuplets is to have company during his lonely watch. And maybe, just maybe, Cecile, Yvonne, Marie, Annette and Emilie will have a pet all their own to play with this winter.

A Great Dane watchdog has been purchased in North Bay by the guardians of the famous little girls. Not quite a year old, the dog is to be trained strictly as a watchdog and will make the nightly rounds with the constable on guard at the Dufour Hospital. The quintuplets aren't allowed to have pet dogs and it was believed they wouldn't be allowed to play with the Great Dane.

Resigns from Chairmanship

The Hon. N. W. Rowell, chief justice of Ontario, and chairman of the Royal Commission on Dominion-Provincial Relations, has resigned from public life. Mr. Rowell has been suffering from ill-health for some time and had tendered his resignation some months ago. Prime Minister King accepts it in the hope his recovery would allow him to carry on his duties.

King To Receive Elk And Beavers

On His Visit to Canada Next Summer He Will be Offered Them As His Right Under an Ancient Pledge

When the King visits Canada next summer he will be offered "two elk and two black beavers" as his right under an ancient pledge. Hon. Vincent Massey said last week.

The Canadian High Commissioner declared the charter of the Hudson's Bay Company provided that "whenever the Sovereign visits the territory of the Governor and Company of Adventurers of England trading into Hudson's Bay" he shall be presented with two elk and two black beavers.

"King of Canada" The offering will be made "on some appropriate occasion," Mr. Massey added.

He declared His Majesty will reach Canada "not as a visitor but as the King of Canada," and that the Dominion is happy at the compliment paid her.

Chicken Thief Gets 61 Years

C. Schneider, of Kitchener, last week heard sentences totaling 61 years passed on him by Magistrate Watt for chicken theft, false pretences, escaping custody and possessing an unregistered revolver.

The terms, which run concurrently, actually mean that Schneider will only serve three years in Kingston Penitentiary. Schneider pleaded guilty to 23 charges, the majority of which involved chicken thefts in Wellington, Waterloo and Oxford counties. More than 600 chickens were stolen in raids on farms in the three counties.

Resurgam

When wrapped in earth I lie apart. The sweet white roots will find my heart. And, by their silent alchemy, Transform me into plant, or tree; To breathe again; to taste the bliss Of wind and rain and dawn's first kiss;

To share the God-born energy Of singing stars and throbbing sea; Assured that Winter's blasts but bring The thousand ecstasies of Spring.

—Mary B. Huber, in Canadian Poetry Magazine.

HAVE YOU HEARD

A newspaper correspondent in Hollywood was heartily sick of his job. He decided to take a holiday, and when someone asked him where he was going, he replied:

"I'm going to paste a big picture of Clark Gable on the outside of the car and drive until someone asks, 'Who's that?' That's where I'm stopping."

"Really, Arthur, your argument with your wife last night was most amusing."

"Wasn't it? When she threw the axe at me I thought I'd split."

"Well, did you get any surprise present for your birthday?"

"Yes, rather. I got a book from Bill I lent you last year."

"Brown hasn't had his hair cut for ten years."

"He must be mad."

"No, only bald."

"Why on earth do they make so much fuss of that singer, Miss Smith?" Miss Jones has a much richer voice.

"Yes, but Miss Smith has a much richer father."

A genius is a young man who can get through the whole summer without getting a severe sunburn, a case of poison ivy, a job of writing silly letters to the girl he just met.

Sunday School Teacher—What is the difference between cherubim and the seraphim?

Silence followed. No one seemed to know. Suddenly a little hand went up.

Scholar—There was a difference, but they finally made it up.

When a person begins to tell white lies, it isn't long before he becomes color-blind.

How Can I?

BY ANNE ASHLEY

Q. How can I make brooms and mops last longer?

A. Don't let the brooms, brushes, and mops stand on their straws, bristles, and strings. Bore a hole through the handle of each, near the far end, and insert the ends of a wire in each end of this hole, forming a loop for handling.

Q. How can I avoid an awkward and messy job when melting chocolate?

A. Place the chocolate on a piece of waxed paper and allow it to melt by putting it over the top of a boiling tea kettle. The chocolate will readily run off the waxed paper.

Q. How can I clean and polish silver?

A. Sprinkle a little carbonate of soda into a damp cloth and rub thoroughly. Then wipe well with a dry chamois.

Q. How can I remove varnish from fabrics?

A. Saturate with turpentine, rubbing between the hands, and then sponge with alcohol.

Q. How can I make use of apricot seeds?

A. The kernels of apricot seeds impart a delicious flavor when used in the same manner as nuts, in cake, cookies, and candy.

Q. How can I remove spots from light kid shoes?

A. Rub the spots with art gum.

News From Northern Mining Camps

Interest of the week centred on news of a new find reported in Montbray township, Quebec. The find is a few miles to the northwest of the location of excitement some years ago when Robb Montbray made a rich ore discovery. Engineer A. H. Stewart, acting for Rouyn Reward Mines, has increased its holdings in the section to over one thousand acres. The already important looking showing is being opened up. Scouts for the big companies are moving into the area.

FRANCOEUR officially reports new ore developments. Aldermac Copper, also under MacAlpine management, has a new copper-pyrite ore zone.

MARTIN BIRD officially confirms its important new ore to the east of any previous development. Kerr Addison shows constant expansion. Wright Hargreaves proves that the ores of Kirkland Lake go to great depth, with rich ores reported below six thousand feet. Preston East Dome's new 300 ton mill is expected to handle close to 400 tons daily, with grade of $17. Milling is expected to commence in February.

OFFICIAL CONFIRMATION comes from the Pioneer mine of British Columbia that the Orpitt Company, owning over 2,000 acres in Southwest Porcupine, is to have the backing of the British Columbia Co. in a deal involving control of the Orpitt Company.

IN THE LITTLE LONG LAC camp Hardrock, Macleod Cockshutt and Bankfield show constant development expansion.

can send thousands screaming into the streets. By next July 27 it will be practically upon us—only 36,000,000 miles away.

What Science Is Doing

WEATHER THREE MONTHS AHEAD

Arctic weather forecasts so far in advance they could guide Canadian and United States farmers in their crop planting are predicted by Capt. Clifford MacGregor, explorer and meteorologist, who would recommend the establishment, through international co-operation, of six weather stations all above Canada, north of a latitude of 70 degrees. No meteorological data are collected in this vast area at present.

CHEAPER GASOLINE

Cheaper gasoline with higher efficiency will soon be produced for motorists by means of the Houdry catalytic process for refining the crude oil.

It will bring a saving to motorists, because the process makes it possible for a return up to 80 per cent. in gallons of gasoline from each barrel of crude oil, compared with an average return under today's refining process of 44 per cent.

METAL THAT "SHIVERS"

A new magnetic metal that can "shiver" and turn on the heat was announced last week at the Battelle Institute, Columbus, O.

The shivering of this metal consists in losing its magnetism. It can be made to do this at any temperature from 150 below zero to 1100 above.

This makes possible use of magnets of the new alloy for numerous automatic controls. Losing or regaining their magnetism, they operate electric switches.

They can be made to turn on the heat at 50, and shut it off when the temperature again rises.

MARS COMING CLOSER

Don't be alarmed, but Mars is getting closer to the earth every day.

The blood-red planet that recently became the biggest bugaboo in American history is even now a mere 210,000,000 miles from this dizzy globe where a radio drama is being broadcast.

Modern Etiquette

BY ROBERTA LEE

1. When introducing two persons should one repeat each name, such as, "Mr. White, this is Mr. Black, Mr. Black, Mr. White?"

2. What should a girl wear to a dance when she does not know whether she should wear an evening dress or not?

3. When eating soup, should a person lower his head slightly towards the spoon?

4. When stopping to speak to a woman of his acquaintance, what hand should a man use to take off his hat?

5. If the host at a Thanksgiving dinner is short of stature, is it all right for him to stand while he carves the turkey?

6. At a wedding reception, who usually proposes the toast to the bride and bridegroom?

Answers

1. It isn't necessary to repeat the names. Any such repetition is usually tiresome. 2. The best plan would be for her to ask her escort.

3. No; the body should be bent slightly forward, but the head should not be dropped. 4. His left hand, leaving the right free to shake hands if the woman should offer her hand. Or, he may take it off with his right hand and transfer it to the left. 5. Yes. This is far preferable to keeping his seat and going about the task awkwardly, and probably with a mishap. 6. The best man.

The BOOK SHELF

By ELIZABETH EEDY

"ALL THIS AND HEAVEN TOO"

By Rachel Field

Here unfolds the strange, true story of Henriette Delany, the author's great-aunt. It is a fascinating tale of murder mixed with everyday life.

Suspected of having helped to kill the Duchess de Praslin, her mistress, Henriette leaves the Paris household she has served for several years, comes to the New World to seek—and find—peace and refuge from danger and distress.

This is a powerfully written book, in which the author has given us a series of highly impressive pen pictures of those stirring and strenuous times in France during the age of Louis Philippe.

"All This and Heaven Too," by Rachel Field . . . Toronto: Macmillan Company of Canada . . . $2.75.

Daisy, an old cart horse at Old Windsor, Eng., and a favorite with the children, went on a rampage the other day and ended up in a ditch with the cart on top of her. A wasp had stung her muzzle.

BOYS TOWN

SYNOPSIS: Boys Town is a refuge for boys, founded by Father Flanagan (Spencer Tracy). One of the newcomers is Whitey (Mickey Rooney) sent there by his gangster brother. Whitey is belligerent and quarrels with everyone except six-year-old Pee-wee, who adores him. One day Whitey decides to campaign for the majority of Boys Town, a "fat job" he calls it.

"You'll listen!"

"A lousy joint."

"I didn't mean it. Say something, Pee-wee."

"Pee-wee, lad, I'll keep the candy on tap."

"Listen kid. Remember. No squawkin'!"

Whitey is walking about aimlessly in the night. Suddenly, he hears a noise. A bank is being held up. The bandits dart out of the building and to Whitey's amusement, one of them is his older brother Joe. He calls out and suddenly one of the other gangsters fires. Whitey falls to the ground, a bullet in his leg. Don't miss reading the powerful concluding episode.

Registration figures at University of Saskatchewan this year topped the 1937 total by nearly 100. Students this year total 1,230, compared with 1,143 a year ago.

Britons Keep Bomb Shelters

In Spite of the Passing of the Czech Crisis, They Are Preserving Them "For Future Contingencies"

Since the passing of the Czechoslovak crisis householders and institutions have been showering the British War Office and the A.R.P. with inquiries as to what should be done with the bomb-proof shelters recently dug and constructed. The War Office has remained silent, but the A.R.P. in a brief circular advises that they be preserved "whenever convenient, for future contingencies."

How it is possible to do this, Alfred Herbert shows in The London Times, with text and diagram. These in terms of A, B, C, D show the trench, the soil covering it, the surplus soil used to fill in the space between the trench to a uniform level and the line of the new turf over all. In this way he has preserved for "future contingencies" his trenches at Coventry, while continuing to play all sorts of games on the new soil above.
