The Friday night the Owen Sound Dramatic Club are entertaining in St. Andrew's Church. Come and see a good play, Dec 9th.

Miss Elsie Scmers, teacher here has resigned and is leaving at Xmas. She has been engaged in her home school, Meaford.

SWINTON PARK

Your old scribe and wife have been away on a rampage for a couple of weeks at Corbston, Shelburne and Mount Forest.

Since the deer hunt, when several were lucky to get their deer, and treated the less fortunate kindly, the farmers are doing the chores, and killing off the surplus fowl.

The lantern views of India in the school room of St. Columba, Thursday evening, proved to be highly interesting, but scarcely enough of it. All over by 9.30.

We were sorry to read in the Review last week of the death of Hamilton Allen, whom we knew well as a young man while he worked in Mr. Booth's shop at Boothville some fifty years ago.

Sorry to say that Mrs Mary McKay of Swinton Park is in Toronto hospital, seeking better health. We hope she may soon be home with her family.

Wm. J. McMillan, who has been with the Campbell Construction Co. near Gananoque all summer, is home at present. He expects to go back soon for all winter's work, cutting rock.

Mr and Mrs Findlay Clark of Dromore, were Sunday guests of Mr and Mrs Neil Clark and attended church here.

Next Sunday communion services will be conducted at the usual hour in St. Andrews church.

Preparations for Christmas tree socials are being made both at Salem United and Swinton Park churches. Trees are being cut and loaded for the cities now. Cut them carefully boys; they are getting scarcer.

The Glenelg Junior Farmers met for their annual meeting when the year's work was reviewed and new officers elected.

Jas T. Dickson, official receiver for Grey County under the Farmers Creditors' Arrangement Act, has received notice from Ottawa that the Act will cease to have effect after December 31 of this year.

The Act was put in force by the Bennett Government in 1934 for the relief of farmers who were in danger of losing their farms as the result of the depression.

The duties of the official receiver were to try and effect an arrangement between the creditors and farmers who were on the verge of bankruptcy, by which the latter could carry on.

THE PATH THAT LEADS TO HOME

The little path that leads to home That is the road for me: I know no finer path to roam, With finer sights to see, With thoroughfares the world is lined

That lead to wonders new, But he who treads them leaves behind The tender things and true.

Oh, north and south and east and west

The crowded roadways go, And sweating brow and weary breast Are all they seem to know.

And mad for pleasure some are bent, And some are seeking fame, And some are sick with discontent, And some are bruised and lame.

Across the world the gleaming steel Holds out its lure for men, But no one finds his comfort real

Till he comes home again. And charted lanes now line the sea

For weary hearts to roam, But oh, the finest path to me Is that which leads to home.

'Tis there I come to laughing eyes And find a welcome true;

'Tis there all care behind me lies And joy is ever new,

And, oh, when every day is done Upon that little street,

A pair of rosy youngsters run To me with flying feet.

The world with myriad paths is lined But one alone for me,

One little road where I may find The charms I want to see,

Through thoroughfares majestic call The multitude to roam,

I would not leave, to know them all, The path that leads to home.

DURHAM CAR RAN INTO REAR OF BUGGY

An accident occurred Saturday night about 10 o'clock at the gateway to Brunt's farm, just east of Hanover, when a car ran into the rear of a buggy, throwing the occupants to the pavement.

It seems that two Rody brothers from Bentinck were coming into Hanover, as was a car driven by Orville McDonald of Durham.

The latter claims he did not see the buggy until, when only a few feet away, he noticed a white light flash from the side of the buggy. He swerved his car to the left and the front end got past the buggy but the right rear fender struck the wheel of the buggy, smashing it and the axle.

The two brothers were thrown to the pavement and one complained of an injured leg.

The boys claim that they had no light on the buggy but they had a flashlight burning while they were driving into Hanover and that this was a warning light to car traffic.

COULD NOT READ OR WRITE

Five young men were charged with cattle stealing. Four of them were convicted in a Barrie court, and given what was considered lenient sentences.

A reason given for the favorable consideration was because it was shown that "none of the five could read or write, and because of their illiteracy were probably easily led."

One would scarcely expect to find that number of persons in any Simcoe district in such a state of ignorance. We have laws to enforce school attendance and here are five men, the oldest 26, who with their parents have been permitted to disregard them.

Much is heard about additional legislation to cure the ill from which the country suffers. Law enforcement, rather than enactment, would appear to be the more pressing need.

The FIRESIDE PHILOSOPHER

By ALFRED SIGGS

Time dries all tears.

Don't advertise your good deeds.

We generally get what we deserve.

Say neither too much nor too little.

Advice is the cheapest kind of help.

Only a small part of what we learn stays with us.

Nature provides strength enough for most burdens.

Deeds are greater than words, but thoughts can be greater than both.

IN DAYS OF YORE

At the cost of $600, thirty-five new seats were installed in St. John's Catholic Church, Glenelg this week.

When a Review scribe was in Toronto last, he chanced upon Angus McKelvey of New Liskeard and well known locally, hurrying stationwards.

Mr McKelvey is one of the large owners of the Temiskaming and Hudson Bay Mining Co., and in company with a Mr Taylor another partner in the mining company, was leaving for the north, following the purchase of an extensive property wherein the Dome Lake gold mine at Porcupine passes into their control.

Through their broker over 400,000 share of Dome Lake at 17 1/2 cts. a share were purchased, the whole cost being slightly more than $70,000.

The popular and genial old Edmonton boy is fast becoming one of the big industrial men and capitalists of the north.

The congregations of Dornoch, Rocky Saugeen, and Williamsford on Tuesday of this week made an unanimous choice of Rev. Mr Mills for their new pastor.

Mr Mills is from Shelburne district and has student-missionary experience in British Columbia.

Priceville Corr: Hector and Donald McKinnon, the former on the Globe staff and Donald mail clerk on C. P. R., paid a short visit over Saturday and Sunday.

These are two fine boys and their employers appreciate their services.

Holstein Corr: Mr John Swanson has sold his two hundred acre farm to Mr Shand, who will take possession in the spring.

Mr Swanson intends locating in the West. Rev. Dr. Marsh and family arrived his week and the Holstein congregation will hold a reception on Friday evening, Dec. 12th.

Several new telephones have been recently installed, and the Bell system is rapidly spreading out its lines in our district.

The phone may be a good thing to have, but don't expect it will help out our bachelor friends, as there are too many listeners on the line.

Those who have had them installed this week are J. T. Brown on the 20th, Nelson McGuire, Victor Adams, and Major Eccles on the 18th, J. D. Drimble on the 16th and Alex. Ross on the 14th.

Commenting on our assertion that the 1939 mayor of Toronto must be qualified to properly receive the King Queen on their visit to Canada next year, the Toronto Star says: "An even more important qualification, however, is that he be an Ace at looking after the ratepayers' Jack."

"Right you are. And if he doesn't do the job right he'll get the Deuce." -Shelburne Economist.
