Outdoor Rink for Meaford?

Without a skating rink since being burned down, Meaford skating and hockey fans are behind the idea of an outdoor rink on the Market Square. A number of years ago the quare was flooded and the idea was a very popular one. At the present time the children are risking their lives on the thin ice above the Randle dam and other such danger-

There is a distinct possibility that Meaford may have a fine new $10,000 arena before another season rolls around. A sportsman is definitely interested in the project.

DURHAM POST OFFICE HANDLED H. Breese, C. Bye. HEAVIER CHRISTMAS MAIL

After the Christmas rush, the local post office staff is enjoying a breathing spell, with little mail to sort. During the week before Christmas, the heaviest mail ever was handled, with parce's clogging almost all available space behind the wickets during Wednesday and Thursday. In the last six days it estimated that about fifteen thousand Christmas cards were despatched from Durham and probably many or more delivered here. So days it was well on towards evening before all was sorted ready for delivery, but postmaster Smith and his efficient staff kept the decks clear, and had the mail out with as little delay as possible.
