

Fined for Car Accident on Hanover Street

James Braithwaite Assessed $25 and Costs After Accident

The Sunday evening car smash at corner of Main and Queen Sts. in the west end of Hanover on Dec 4th was settled in court so far as the Highway Traffic Act was concerned.

On the night in question two London youths, Herbert Penner and Arthur Rushmore in company with two Hanover girls, Thelma Bell and Mabel Oppertshauer, were driving east on main street and when approximately fifteen feet east of the Queen St. intersection, a car driven by James Braithwaite of Durham crashed into them. The latter was essaying to make the turn onto Queen St. and evidently turned too soon and crashed into the London car.

Braithwaite's counsel pointed out that the accused had never been in trouble before and came from a good family and asked his Honor to be as lenient as possible.

The Magistrate said this sort of reckless driving was all too prevalent where motorists take chances and cut corners, and in this case two people were injured.

He fined the accused $25.00 and costs or 15 days in jail and cancelled his driver's license for six months.

The recent school entertainment, held on Tuesday the 20th, passed off equally successful with former concerts. The gradual occupying of Scotland in its earlier days of the Picts, Romans, Vikings, their mode of warfare by swords (wooden) and shields (cardboard) were well represented, with running explanations by Principal Bell. The 'mock trial' was a humorous skit. The judge, with a claw hammer for a gavel, binder twine for a handcuff, affirming to tell anything but the truth, by the witness, and the climax of guilt proved, when a white chicken was brought in as evidence against the colored culprit, were side-splitting. Other items were all good. There are some fine young singers among the scholars.

The S.S. entertainment on Friday proved equally clever and well acted in the various acts and dialogues. The entrance of the Shepherds in their various odd garments, among a group of singing young girls, was a grand number, the shepherds too, joining in stentoriously. Drills and singing by some dozen young S. S. girls, proved very interesting as a nucleus of future choirs with altos already well developed, in ones so young. So many other good things were given, we find it impossible to mention any but a small fraction of what was given. Santa Claus soon appeared, after the names of those who had been diligent in church work during Jubilee month, and throughout the year: Mr. and Mrs. Thos. Weir and Mrs. J. C. Harrison as organists; Miss Belle Weir in School work; W. G. McBride, treasurer, and W. W. Ramage as choir leader. The two latter voiced their thanks to the congregation through the Managers, for the gifts, which were presented to each, in recognition of services.

Mr. Lauchie McArthur is keeping about the same after the recent stroke, sustained about two weeks ago. No improvement, says the son home from the West. Rev. H. E. Wright and Mrs. Wright, the patient's daughter, have made occasional visits.

Mr. Farquhar McKinnon, caretaker of the Presbyterian church here, suffered a fracture of the leg in carrying a table upstairs, and falling. He lay for some time till his daughter came to see what was keeping him from supper.

Visitors for the holidays were Miss Anna McLean at her parents' here; also Mr and Mrs Bowes and daughter Mrs Lucas and Mr Lucas; and the Misses James, at Mr. and Mrs. H. B. McLean's.

Miss Laura McArthur of the Glen was also a visitor with her parents.

It is again our sad duty to be called upon to pay our last tribute of respect to one of Egremont's finest young men, Alex. Renwick, who in the act of cutting a tree, suddenly dropped to the ground with a heart attack, with the axe still standing in the snow at his feet. His team waiting, started and turned into the farm of a neighbor, who knowing the team and suspecting something wrong immediately drove back, and found him as above stated. This has cast a gloom over the entire neighborhood. Alex. was popular with all, and faithful in the discharge of his duties to home, community and to Amcs church, of which he was the chairman of the Managing Board. Diligent in his duties wherever required as stated by Rev. Kaye in his announcement.

Much sympathy is felt for his sister Florence who lived with him, to his brothers Percy and Wilfred, and sisters Bertha in the West, and Amanda, wife of Mr. Sam. Patterson, popular reeve of the township. H' brother Christopher, was wounded and missing in the Great War. His father died last September, and his mother in a tragic fall downstairs, one year before that, all deeply regretted. Our deepest sympathy goes out to the sorrowing ones of this kindly and hospitable family.

IN DAYS OF YORE

25 YEARS AGO

(from Review file Dec. 25th 1913)

Messrs Wm Boyce and John Baird of this town have leased the sawmill at Glenroaden from McKechnie Bros. and will operate the mill this winter. In summer it is the intention of the lessees to run it for chopping.

We wish to congratulate the Durham students who attended the Hanover Model School. The results came out last week and while two failed out of a school of forty, the fourteen who came from this town passed and will engage as teachers. Following are the names of those who passed: Victoria Al Joe, Alex Bell, Julia Clark, Vivian Crawford Sarah Fulton, Nathan Grierson, Susie Kelsey, Margaret Kerr, Robt Marshall, Ernest McGirr, Belle Petty Agnes Petty, Emma Ritchie and Morrison Smith.

The Horse and Produce Fair held on Thursday last was a great success. Sufficient snow fell to make it feel like a real Christmas season and the farmers and towns people alike turned out by hundreds and made it one of the best days for business this town has seen for a long time. Merchants state that they did a great trade, reaping several hundred dollars above the average shopping days.

Public School Junior 4th, Stella McCrae, Edna Browning, Clarence McGirr Ethel Whitmore, Ralph Catton.

Mr Morrison Smith takes up the school at Welbeck after Christmas. We wish him every success as this is his first venture.

Among the Model students who have taken schools are Ernest McGirr who goes to Swinton Park Morrison Smith, to the Welbeck school and Miss Victoria Aljoe has been engaged near Chesley.

Mr and Mrs Ham, Allen are spending Xmas in Hopeville. Mrs Allen's mother, an aged lady nearing the century mark, is seriously ill and not expected to recover.

Miss Lily Ritchie, Sask, came home on Monday night to spend the winter with her parents, Mr and Mrs. Wm. Ritchie.

Priceville Corr: We are very pleased to see all our young friends home from their different places of learning and other employment: Miss Agnes Harrow from Stratford Normal School, Miss Mazie Tryon from Medical School, Toronto, Misses Edna Ferguson, Myra McLean, Margaret Tryon from Owen Sound Collegiate and Miss Louise Watson from the Faculty of Education, Toronto.

Swinton Park Corr: Messrs Jno Aldeorn, Robt. Knox, G. G. Wilson, and R. R. Kinnell attended the Pat Stock Show in Guelph.

Edge Hill Corr: Teachers spending their Xmas holidays at their homes here are: Miss Maggie Firth, Bolton, Mr and Mrs T. Firth, Lindsay; Miss Mary Edge, Dayton; Mr J. W. Greenwood, Novar.

Holstein Corr: Mrs James Swanton announces the engagement of her daughter, Susan Estella (Easle) to Mr Hugh Renwick, of Ottawa, the marriage to take place quietly the end of the month.

On Thursday last, at the home of her son, James, on the 18th on there passed away one of Egremont's pioneers in the person of Isabella Elliott relict of the late John Renton.

Just Suppose that He's YOUR BOY!

AND, while we're still in a fanciful mood, let's suppose he has suddenly become seriously ill—

Then, imagine yourself to be in financial difficulties—your income, never more than $900.00 a year, has ceased altogether because the factory has shut down temporarily.

You think your little boy may be dying—the doctor orders you to rush with him to the Hospital for Sick Children — you learn it's Pneumonia of the most serious type — that serum alone will cost over $400.00, to say nothing of the special graduate nursing and expert medical attention required, nor of the cost of hospitalization itself.

Could you be turned away because of this? There is only one answer to this question. It has been the answer of the Hospital for Sick Children for 63 years—a youngster's real need for hospital care and medical attention is the only ticket of admission required. Race, creed or financial circumstances are not considered. We know the people of Ontario want it that way.

This Hospital has met every emergency which has developed during the 63 years of its existence. It is famous throughout the civilized world for the success and efficiency of its medical and nursing staffs and for the low cost at which it is operated.

The HOSPITAL FOR SICK CHILDREN
67 COLLEGE STREET, TORONTO

And who pays for this humanitarian work? The doctors give their time absolutely free. The Ontario Government pays 60c per patient per day and the patient or the patient's municipality pays $1.75 on the same basis. That leaves over $1.00 per patient per day of bare cost for which we must appeal annually to humane and generous citizens. This Hospital does NOT share in the funds collected by the Federation for Community Service because patients are admitted from all over Ontario.

This year, over $83,000.00 is needed. That means over ten thousand donations if they were to average $8.00 each—or over twenty thousand averaging $4.00. Certainly, a staggering total! So, please make your gift as large as you possibly can. If you cannot afford more—remember that even a dollar bill helps pay for the care of somebody's baby.

Kindly mail your donation to the Appeal Secretary, 67 College Street, Toronto. We cannot afford to use any of our much-needed revenue for canvassers or other organized effort to collect money.
