Fall Fair Dates Changed Now Thurs. and Friday

Durham Agricultural Society's annual meeting was held Friday afternoon in the Public Library, with a good attendance of officers and members. President John Hamilton briefly thanked the officers for their co-operation during the past year.

The auditors' report was presented by Harold McKechnie showing a balance of $93.89 on hand, after paying 75% of the prize money, and putting a new roof on the main building at the Fair grounds.

A Delegation from the "Better Business Men's Association of Durham" was present, and expressed their willingness to co-operate with the Agricultural Society in every way possible, and also suggested that the Fair date be changed from Saturday as it interfered with business for that day. It was decided to hold the 1939 Fair on Thursday and Friday, Sept. 7th and 8th, providing it did not interfere with other Fair dates. W. G. Bayley was appointed to attend Fall Fair Convention in Toronto in February. Convenors of the different committees reported favorably on their respective classes.

Joseph Crutchley presided for the election of officers which are as follows: Hon. Presidents, George Ritchie, John McGirr; Past President—Jos. F. Crutchley; President—John Hamilton; 1st Vice-President—R. C. Robinson; 2nd Vice-President—Thos. Bell; Secretary-Treasurer—W. G. Bayley. Honorary Directors—Mrs. T. Davis, Mrs. Mather, Mrs. McIlraith, Col. F. F. Hunter, M.P.P. Directors—W. Ferguson, W. A. Lindsay, D. Allen, John McGirr, S. J. Wilson, Rev. M. H. Farr, Arthur McGowan, J. Milligan, Lady Directress—Mrs. Hamilton, Mrs. N. S. Whitmore, Mrs. Jas. Nichol, Mrs. W. A. Lindsay, Mrs. Chas. Reay. Auditors—Peter Ramage, Harold McKechnie.

Correction.
In the name of one of the boys committed to Guelph Reformatory last week, the Review regrets that an error occurred. It should have read "Lorne Long" of Durham, instead of "Lloyd Long".

In Glenmount United Church, Toronto where Rev. Walter Almack formerly of Durham is now pastor, active membership is 355 of which 48 are new members the past year. 85 are on the reserved and non-resident list. A total of $9,829 was raised, an increase of $695. The W.A. raised $1,275.

Held Crokinole Social.
Knox Church Evening Auxiliary held a pleasant crokinole social in the schoolroom Tuesday night, when twelve tables were in play. Mrs. Robt. Campbell and George Hfy were the winners. A dainty lunch was served at the close.

Held Military Bridge.
About twenty-six tables, of three partners to a table, enjoyed an evening of military bridge last Thursday, under the auspices of Can. Greys Chapter I.O.D.E. The prize winning table comprised Mrs. W. C. Pickering, Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Zilli. Lunch was served after the play.

OBITUARY

MRS. NEIL McCANNEL

One of the most widely known and highly respected residents of South Grey, Mrs. Jane McCannel passed to her reward Saturday last at noon, in her seventy-third year. She was a native of Glenelg and resided in that township all her life until five years ago, when she moved into Durham. Always bright and in good health until a year ago, she underwent an operation last summer and was making a good recovery, when a fall about a month ago injured her hip, and confined her to her bed again. Since then she gradually sank, and lost consciousness the last two days.

Deceased was born on the farm on the south-east corner of Glenelg, now owned by Wm. Mather. She was Jane McLean, one of a family of nine children (four sons and five daughters) of the late Hector and Catherine McLean, of whom only two now survive: Mrs. McPherson (Flora) of Durham, with whom the deceased resided, and Mrs. James Black (Mary) of Oak River, Manitoba.

She lived on the home farm until her marriage in 1891 to Mr. Neil McCannel, after which they resided on his farm on south line, Glenelg, until 1906, when they sold out owing to his impaired health, and bought a home on Lambton street, east of Durham, now owned by Mr. Jno. Burgess. A short time after their removal there, Mr. McCannel made a strong run as Liberal candidate for the Provincial House. He passed away in April 1919, and later Mrs. McPherson retired from business in Toronto and came to live there with her sister, Mrs. McCannel. Five years ago they bought the Harding home on Elgin St., Durham where they have since resided.

Besides the two sisters, there mourn a large connection of nephews and nieces, these most intimately associated being Miss Ada McLean of Toronto; Miss Kate, Messrs Hector and Archie MacDonald of Glenelg.

The late Mrs. McCannel was a woman of outstanding mentality, and the soul of Scotch hospitality. Her friends were wide-spread and many a home has been cheered by her presence and counsel. She was an early President and a member of the Women's Institute, and an active worker in, and faithful member of the Presbyterian Church; also in its auxiliary organizations, the Ladies' Aid, and the Women's Missionary Society, of which she was a Life Member.

The funeral service was held in Durham Presbyterian church on Monday afternoon, conducted by her pastor, Rev. S. W. Hirtle, assisted by Rev. R. Honeyman. Interment took place in McNeil's cemetery, Priceville. Beautiful floral tributes surrounded the casket from: Mrs. F. McPherson (sister) and Ada McLean Rev. and Mrs. D. McQueen of Dunnville; the MacDonald family, Edge Hill; Mr. and Mrs. Neil McMillan and son Carlyle, Swinton Park; Mr. and Mrs. Gordon Geddes, Durham; Mr. and Mrs. Den. Campbell and Miss Nellie McLean, Priceville; Mrs. Bellwood and Miss Cameron; Mr. and Mrs. Alex. Brandon; Miss Catherine McLean; Mr. and Mrs. Fred Patterson and son David; Miss Anna and Alex. Gillen, all of Toronto.

Friends from a distance attending the funeral were Mr. and Mrs. S. Kirstine and son; Mr. Fred Patterson of Toronto; Mr. and Mrs. Dan Campbell and Miss Nellie McLean, Priceville; Mrs. Neil McMillan and son Carlyle, of Swinton Park.

ROBERT LINDSAY

A former deputy-reeve and a native son of Glenelg township, Robert Lindsay, died at his home on the third occasion, two miles east of Durham, on Sunday evening. Deceased has been a sufferer from cancer the last three or four years, and despite the best efforts made for his recovery, he gradually grew weaker, the last two months being bedfast.

The late Mr. Lindsay was in his 77th year, and was born and lived most of his life in Glenelg. He was one of a family of eight sons and daughters of the late Andrew and Mrs. Lindsay, of whom only one brother, Edward in Invermay, Sask., survives. In 1886 he was wedded to Mary Heald of Allan Park, and they lived in Bentinck for seventeen years, returning to the old homestead in 1903.

Surviving to mourn his loss are his bereaved wife, three daughters, and four of their six sons: Mrs. Arthur Hunt (Nellie) of Durham; Mrs. Prosper Porter (Margaret) of Glenelg; Mrs. Wm. Eccles (Grace) of Egremont; Robert of Brantford; Edward of Egremont; Andrew and Arthur of Glenelg.

The deceased was a genial, public-spirited man, ever interested in the welfare of his family and the community. He served two years as a Councillor of Glenelg, and was the last Deputy-reeve of his township in 1913. He also was a member of No. 9, Glenelg, school Board for several years.

In politics he was a Liberal and Presbyterian in religion, his pastor Rev. S. W. Hirtle conducting mortuary services on Tuesday at his late residence, burial taking place in Durham cemetery. The pallbearers were neighbors and old friends: John Grierson, Wes. Arnett, Lawrence McFadden, Thos. Bell, John McGirr, Ed Pratt, Wm. McGirr. The flower bearers were Nelson Clarke, Nelson and Ed Hunt, Clifford Lindsay. Hymns sung were "Nearer My God to Thee," and "Abide with Me."

Miss Matilda Cain, a niece of the deceased from Walkerton, was present for the funeral, besides many friends from Hanover, Hampden, Priceville and elsewhere.

Mr. Harold Lawrence of Egremont strained his heart by attempting too heavy a lift last week, and is recuperating from its effects, for a couple weeks at the home of his brother Roy in town.

Held Skating Party.
On Friday evening of last week the Junior Young Peoples' Society of the Presbyterian Church held a skating party in the local arena. After about two hours of enjoyment, the group assembled in the church basement, where about 35 young folk partook of a light lunch and cocoa. (which some of the group termed as "dislawater"). After singing a few songs, the happy members left for their respective homes.

Chesley Group Leaders by Win over Durham

The season's biggest crowd in Chesley Tuesday night saw the Chesley Colts capture a 3-1 verdict over Durham, and thus win first place in this Int. B group. Durham can finish in second place by a win in Kincardine, but should Kincardine defeat both Durham and Hanover, Durham will be relegated to third position. However, as the first four teams enter the playoffs, it makes little difference as to the order of finish. Walkerton, by their recent default, are out of it, and the other four teams will begin the playoffs next week.

Durham had opportunities galore to take the game in Chesley, but fumbled their chances by erratic shooting and hitting goalie Marklevitz's pads too frequently. It was fast, comparatively clean hockey, with Chesley drawing the lion's share of the 12 penalties handed out by referee Greg of Kincardine. Both goalies starred, keeping the score low.

In first period, Durham should have clinched it, but were held to a 1-1 tie. Morton first scored for Chesley on Phillips and B. Murphy's assists and Orval McDonald tied it up from Wilson's pass. The second frame was scoreless, but in third, Chesley counted 2 more, on breakaways from Durham gangling attacks, A. Phillips from Fenton, and Ebel from B. Phillips.

Beat Kincardine Friday, by 9 to 4

Kincardine furnished the best hockey of the season here last Friday when the lakesiders made Durham travel in their top form to carry off a 9-4 decision. The game was featured by some pretty passing plays, few penalties and two disputed goals, one for each side, neither of which were allowed. Durham outscored the visitors 4 to 1 in 1st, 2 to 1 in 2nd, and 3 to 2 in last period, having a slight edge on the play throughout, though Kincardine put on the pressure in the last frame.

The visitors were without three of their forwards, Peard, J. McDonald and Sutherland owing to illness or injury, while Durham was without L. Elvidge, Ken Wilson, who was refereeing at Wingham. Johnny Jones of Guelph refereed and let considerable rough stuff go, giving Durham the three penalties imposed.

Hap McGirr on Tucker's pass, drew first blood for Durham, thence Griffith tied it up for Kincardine with a long drive from centre ice. Joe Noble with 2 and Moses 1, then put Durham safely ahead, and the visitors never made it close afterwards. Joe Noble was in the limelight with 3 goals, Tucker had 1 and 4 assists, Lawrence 2 and 1 assist, so the younger players are coming strong. In last period Kress made a pretty play when he swept in close on nets to convert Tucker's pass, and 3 minutes after Capstick of the visitors, beat McDonald after a lone end to end rush. The score sheet below tells the story:

First Period	Second Period	Third Period
1. Durham—R. McGirr (Tucker)	6. Durham—Lawrence (Tucker)	9. Durham—Tucker (Lawrence)
2. Kincardine—Griffith	7. Kincardine—McDonald (Goodwin)	10. Durham—Kress (Tucker)
3. Durham—Noble	8. Durham—Noble (G. McGirr)	11. Kincardine—Capstick
4. Durham—Moses (O. McDonald)		12. Kincardine—Thompson
5. Durham—Noble (Tucker)		13. Durham—Lawrence (G. McGirr.)

Durham: goal—E. McDonald; defence—C. McGirr, Noble; centre—R. McGirr; wings—Tucker, Moses; alt.—Kress, G. McGirr, Lawrence, O. McDonald.
Kincardine: goal—B. Biggin; defence—McNair, Graham; centre—McDonald; wings—Anderson, Capstick; alt.—Thompson, Burnside, Goodwin Griffith.

Juniors Lose Two More

Losing 6 to 7 to Hanover last week in that town, then by 2 to 10 to Kincardine here on Tuesday, Durham's Junior O.H.A. club is now almost eased out of the play-offs. They have yet 6 games to play, but prospects of taking half of these are poor. As the first 4 of the 7 teams enter play-offs, Durham's hopes are not so bright. The present standing is:

Won	lost	tied	pts.	to play
Kincardine	5	1	11	5
Hanover	5	1	0	10
Walkerton	4	1	0	8
Niplov	4	3	0	8
Teawater	1	4	1	3
Durham	1	5	0	2
Paisley	0	5	0	0

After leading 5 to 1 at end of 2nd period last Thursday, Hanover was lucky to nose out Durham 7 to 6 on their own ice. Durham put on a garrison finish scoring 5 to 2, but fell one short of tying. Hanover had the best of it first two periods, but Harry Schenk's fine work in nets held the score down.

When Kincardine beat Durham 10 to 2 here Tuesday, again Schenk was the local star, as he blocked dozens of shots, at times with the visitors having none else to beat. Durham's defence was unsteady, while the forwards had no systematic attack. The lakesiders were stronger skaters and stick handlers, and as well exhibited superior team play, scoring 6 to 0 in 1st, 2 to 0 in 2nd, while last period, a 2-2 tie, was Durham's best.

INTERMEDIATE O.H.A. STANDING

Won	lost	tied	pts.	to play
Chesley	6	1	0	12
Durham	4	2	1	9
Kincardine	3	3	0	6
Hanover	1	4	1	3
Walkerton	1	5	0	2

WALKERTON DEFAULTS GAME

Walkerton was unable to get an Int. team together to play in Kincardine Monday night and defaulted to that town. Owing to sickness, some of the regulars were not available.

Mr. John and Miss Kate McFayden, Mr. and Mrs. Malcolm McKechnie of Glenelg, attended the funeral of a cousin, the late Mrs. McGillivray in Paisley last Saturday. The deceased was 93 years of age.

Winter's Coldest Snap Here this Week

After a cold Sunday, moderate temperatures prevailed until Tuesday night when the real old-fashioned brand of winter set in, with a blizzard and sharp change to colder. The mercury dropped 35 degrees in a few hours, hitting the 10 below mark Wednesday morning. The main highways are promptly snowplowed, and both Nos. 6 and 4 are open for car and truck traffic. This Wednesday night will likely set a lower mark—possibly to 12 or 15 below, for the coldest so far this winter. Fortunately there is tonight no wind as well.

DURHAM A.G.L. SOCIETY SPONSORED EUCHRE PARTY

The Durham Agricultural Society were sponsors of a euchre party in the Armouries when a splendid crowd gathered for a social evening. Mrs. C. B. Lawrence and Mrs. Alfred Watson, and Mrs. E. J. Schenk and Mr. Joseph Watson tied in high points and played off, the former couple winning. Music for dancing was supplied by David Allen. Aljoe brothers, John Teeter, Alfred Weppler and James Langrill.

Mr. John Snell of Chatsworth visited with Mr. and Mrs. John Burgess one day last week.

Miss Kate McFayden, Glenelg, spent a day last week with Mrs. Maitland in Owen Sound.

Miss Ada McLean, Toronto and Mrs. N. McMillan, Swinton Park, were with Mrs. F. McPherson for a few days, during the last illness of the latter's sister, the late Mrs. McCannel.
