AT THE CALL OF THE SCHOOL BELL

An event this summer, of interest to present and past pupils of S. S. No. 13 Egremont, (Dromore School) is the reunion of its former sons and daughters. The old school bell will never ring more joyously than on this occasion, for it spells to old as well as to the young, the culmination of years of service.

There are many things in the life-period of a school and its teachers and scholars, that carry a strong heart appeal in the after years—the old pump, the silt leather strap, playing hooky, etc., not to say the sags played on the teacher of the time. S. S. No. 13 is no exception to the general rule in this regard and the tricks performed and got away with, are always memory teasers.

But more went on within the walls of this Egremont school than nonsense. It has sent forth since 1868 a long line of educationists and business people, who are filling responsible positions in many avenues. One of No. 13's old boys became a university president, another is president of a prominent mine in Ontario's northland, while three of its graduates became ministers of the gospel. The rating of teachers sent forth is very high. The moral tone of the community has always been a subject for laudatory comment.

If anything, the section has been "over modest" in publicizing its merits, so that trustees of this school section are to be congratulated in taking steps to hold the first reunion.

NO COUNTRY FOR A WHITE MAN!

Mrs George Black, M. P. (Yukon) is not afraid to extol her country, the Yukon, when the need arises. And she knows its moods, good and bad, for she has been a resident there forty years. They have their slacks too, however, who carry a grrouch and who think the country owes them a living. One such man came to her door the past fall asking for help. He did not want to work his way. She told him he could not get anything for nothing in that country, to which he retorted "This is no country for a white man to live in."

Such a story she told her fellow members in Ottawa recently, as part of a lengthy speech in response from the speech from the throne. She remarked that the words she used to this slacker, would be banned by the speaker in the House of Commons as unfit language. But nearing the close of her speech, Mrs Black hits a high plane when she says this tribute to her riding, the Yukon:

"The Yukon is a good country; it is a cruel country; it is a kind country; it is a wicked country; it is a country that you can love; it is a country that you can hate, depending upon your attitude. I have lived there for forty years; I have travelled from one end of Canada to the other, as well as across the United States; I have travelled overseas but I have never in my life seen a country that could thrill me as does the Yukon. We have our cruelties; we have our hardships; we have our glories, and we have our magnificent summers. We have our flowers, our vegetables, our gold and silver, but only when we work for them. If we come down here, it is because we have worked, not because we have sat back and folded our hands."

A NEW BEAVER SANCTUARY

The great friend of the busy beaver died a few months ago. Grey Owl for years had been trying to teach trappers that the needless destruction of these animals would eventually mean their extinction. He met with some success. His lectures and stories about wild life interested people in Canada and other countries. Our own country became beaver-conscious, and the famous colony in Prince Albert National Park is a memorial to his work. Now there is to be a new sanctuary made in northern Quebec.

This new haven will serve two purposes. In the first place, the number of beavers caught will be restricted and this will prevent them from being totally destroyed. The other purpose is to give the Indians

Will Re-organize Grey County Police

Declaring that 60 of the 67 constables in Grey County were absolutely inactive and rendered no service whatever in the enforcement of the law, Provincial Constable Harry Noble, High Constable for the County of Grey, addressed the County Council on Thursday afternoon and urged that immediate steps be taken to dispense with every county constable and then rehire them for periods of one year at a time, depending upon the degree of satisfaction that was forthcoming from each one.

"The police work in Grey County is being done entirely by two provincial officers, and some of the constables who are still listed as being on the force are not even capable of standing up in court," said Mr. Noble.

The discussion with regards to County Constables arose out of a report brought in by a special committee of the council, headed by Reeve D. J. MacDonald. It was pointed out that crime in Grey County was steadily increasing, and it was felt that now was the time for something to be done to curb this. Following Mr. Noble's statement, a recommendation was incorporated into the report that the County Constables be retired and a commission composed of the Warden, the Crown Attorney and the High Constable, Harry Noble be empowered to appoint a new force for a term of one year. The expenses of these will be paid only on the authorization of the commission, and they will be given mileage on the same basis as are the councillors themselves.

Grey will Spend $160,000 on County roads

At County Council session Friday, requests were received for Bruce Co. to snow-plow the Co. line highway, Chesley to Hanover; also from Wellington Co. to snow-plow Grey-Wellington highway, Mt Forest to Conn. The Co. Roads Com. decided to ask these two counties to do necessary work this winter, and Grey will pay its share of the cost.

The committee designated as a county connecting link, Queen Street in the village of Neustadt to join in Neustadt to the Bruce County road in Carrick township.

Inspection will be made as soon as occasion permits regarding grading on road 10A in Egremont, but recommended that no action be taken toward snow-plowing this road this winter. There will be no more snow fences purchased this winter.

There was a recommendation in the laws designating the streets in the various urban municipalities on which they want their rebates spent which they prepared, and the names of the streets be submitted to the County Clerk.

The committee will purchase an Adams power grader from the Suburban Area Commission at its turn-in value on a new machine, using the machine's depreciation fund as part payment.

The committee will also purchase an extra power grader similar to the caterpillar grader purchased last year, as a maintenance machine. This was decided on after the County Engineer had reported that the townships were making requests for its use to a much greater extent than last year.

Reeve D. J. MacDonald on Co. Road Committee

Always one of the features of the January session of the County Council, the Warden's address was delivered by Warden John A. Davis, newly acclaimed to that office Wed. afternoon, and the note of optimism and hope that rang clear throughout its length was most encouraging indeed. Grey County he felt, was scheduled for a really successful year; agricultural prices were moving upwards to their old levels, and livestock prices had been better also.

County roads, he felt, should not be kept open in the winter. This work was costing the committee in charge a good deal of money annually, and he suggested that this work be kept well within the appropriation.

He urged full cooperation from every member of the Council that Grey County might enjoy the best legislation that could possibly be administered.

Reeve D. J. MacDonald of the Township of Bentinck was elected member of the County Roads Committee for the next three years. Reeve MacDonald defeated Reeve John Kingston of St. Vincent in the balloting for this office. Reeve MacDonald will act with the two others. Deputy Reeve Thomas Randle of Meaford, and Reeve Sam Patterson of Egremont who hold office from previous years. On motion of Deputy Reeve Thomas Randle, the by-law to this effect was given the necessary readings and engrossed in the by-law book.

By-laws were also passed naming Reeve William McGregor of Sydenham as member of the Judicial Board of Audit, and Reeve John McGirr of Glenora Township as member of the Reformation Committee of the County of Grey.

County Council Makes Memorial and other Grants

A grant of $2500 to Grey County Peace Memorial was authorized by the Grey County Council on Saturday morning as they gathered for their last session at the County Court House. Reeve Wm. Jack of Court House, brought in the bylaw authorizing the memorial. A similar grant has been made by Owen Sound Council.

Among other other grants passed were: $2820 for maintenance of Children's Shelter; $500 each to Durham, Hanover and Owen Sound hospitals; $300 to the Salvation Army Rescue home, London; and $150 for the Can. Institute for the Blind.

It was recommended that the sum of $30.00 be paid the Town of Durham, being a provincial subsidy received by the County for work done upon the highway, which was paid upon by the Town of Durham.

It was further decided that the County Council should become a member of the Ontario Educational Association of the Ontario Educational Council, and that Reeve William S. Hunter of Durham be a delegate to the convention.

Dep-reeve Randle of Meaford suggested the Co. Council do as some municipalities have done: adopt the system of having the farmers along the highways erect the snow-fences, the highways erect the snow-fences, and store them down in the spring, and store them through the summer. For these duties, they were paid $1.20 per hundred feet. This matter will be dealt with by the Council at another assembly.

WALKERTON MAN IS RETURNING OFFICER

Norman Archibald of Walkerton has been appointed Returning Officer for the Riding of Grey-Bruce for the coming Dominion election. A. E. Moore of Owen Sound is R. O. for North Grey. Already 236 Returning Officers have been named in 243 Ridings in the Dominion, and while reports are current of a general election this Fall, Jules Castonguay, chief electoral officer, states there is no special significance in naming them now.

The present appointees are all new because the new Electoral Act passed at last session of Parliament wiped out previous appointments.

Substituting Officer Noble's statements, former Warden Howard McCauley of Flesherton stated there was a well known bootlegger in Grey County who was wearing the badge of a County Constable.

There had been a suggestion to name a County Constable for the entire County of Grey, however on motion of Reeve D. J. MacDonald, it was decided that the Dept. of Prov. Police be requested to station another Provincial Officer at Meaford.

Royal People to travel C.P.R. The royal party this spring will travel West by C.P.R., which is rather strange, since the Canadian people are supposed to have a railroad of their own, supported by national monies, and if any special favors are to be conferred, why not on the people's railway? —Sheburne Economist
