She was a member of St. Peter's R. C. church, and the funeral will take place from Kress' undertaking parlors to the church at 9 a.m. on Friday, where service will be held. Interment will be made in St. John's cemetery, Glenelg.

Grey Presbytery of the United Church, meeting in Owen Sound, Tuesday, strongly opposed any proposal to amend the Lord's Day Act which would increase business and toll on Sundays, or permit commercialized shows or entertainment of any kind.

BROTHERS MEET IN OWEN SOUND HOSPITAL An incident stranger than fiction happened in Owen Sound Hospital last week when two brothers met. Both men are former residents of North Egremont.

Wm. Henry of Durham went to O. Sound Hospital before Christmas to receive specialist treatment for his eye, which had been injured at Lawrence's sawmill. A cataract slowly developed, which was removed last week, leaving him a fair vision.

Chesley Takes Group Honors after Tough overtime Battle

Tied in home and home games in final Int. B. play-off round, a third game Monday night on Waikerton's neutral ice sheet between Durham and Chesley, was won after ten minutes overtime, 3 to 2 by Chesley Colts.

Referee Kuntz of Kitchener was about the best official seen in these parts, dishing out the penalties impartially to force the contenders to play clean hockey. Chesley drew 11 of the 18 penalties, one a 10 minute misconduct to Schneider, the hero of the game, for back talk.

Marklevitz in Chesley nets, played a smart game, blocking Durham attacks consistently, while McDonald in Durham nets was also a stand-out, with meagre chance to stop the 3 which passed him.

While Durham had a slight edge most of the first two periods, Chesley showed most in third and overtime, with a little livelier team play. At no time was either team more than one goal up. The score sheet reads:

First Period	Minutes
Durham—Tucker (Elvidge)	7 1/2
Chesley—Ebel (Schneider, Murphy)	16
Durham—Elvidge (O. McDonald)	17
Chesley—A. Phillips (Schneider, Ebel)	10
Overtime	35 sec.
Chesley—Schneider	35 sec.

Durham—Goal, E. McDonald; defence, Noble and O. McDonald; centre, G. McGirr; wings, G. McDonald and Lawrence; alternates, Tucker, Elvidge, R. McGirr, Moses and C. McGirr.

Chesley—Goal, Marklevitz; defence, Merton and Allen; centre, B. Murphy; wings, Schneider and Ebel; alternates, B. Phillips, Graper and D. Murphy.

Chesley are worthy champions and we wish them luck as they enter the semi-finals play-offs trail. Their first opponents will be the Trapper Cubs of Owen Sound, and we predict the Colts will rout the Cubs and travel on.

Owen Sound's Int. A. entry—the Trappers were eliminated Monday night also, by Collingwood, in two straight games. It is a heavy blow to Owen Sound's new arena, when the Trappers ate out so early.

Alex. Murdock Dies from Monoxide Poisoning

The town was shocked Friday afternoon to learn that Alexander Murdock, who operated a vulcanizing and repair shop on Lambton St., was found dead in his garage from carbon monoxide poisoning.

Friday morning he had opened his shop as usual, but left about 10 o'clock and did not return. He usually informed Simons' next door when absent, but had not this morning.

Neighbors investigating could find no trace anyone being in barn, which was locked, but found a broken lamp with broken glass and a pool of blood, lying on woodshed floor.

Quickly stopping engine, Stanley then notified Dr. Jamieson and Constable Scott, who with Prov. Constable Cook of Flesherton investigated and had Coroner Dr. Rutherford, of Owen Sound down to view the corpse. An inquest was deemed unnecessary.

Mr. Murdock was a native of Gordonville, near Conn, and was unmarried. He was a good workman, had built up a nice business, and was highly respected in town.

DECEASED WAS C.N.R. STATION AGENT IN DURHAM FOR SOME TWENTY-ONE YEARS, being transferred to Stratford twenty-one years ago. His wife and one son, Cecil J., a dentist in Detroit, survive him.

He was a little over seventy years of age, one of the most popular business men ever residing in Durham, and his obliging and affable manner won him a wide circle of friends.

The remains are being brought to the home of Mr. W. H. Kress, Durham, where the funeral service will be held at 2.30 p.m. on Friday, Feb. 24th. Interment will be made in Durham cemetery, where an infant son is now buried.

Lambton St. Resident Badly Injured in Fall

Friday morning last, Mr. William Thompson, an elderly bachelor residing alone on Lambton Street one mile east of Durham, painfully made his way across highway to Mr. Cluchey's big neighbor advised that he had been assaulted and robbed the previous night by unknown men in the barn.

Neighbors investigating could find no trace anyone being in barn, which was locked, but found a broken lamp with broken glass and a pool of blood, lying on woodshed floor.

His watch was found, but not his purse, and while possibly it was assault and robbery, it does not appear probable, other than for his many cuts.

He was attended by neighbors and relatives that day, and is since recuperating in Durham hospital.
