They will not flower so early as those carried over, but will do nicely later in the season.

Then, too, it is none too early to be starting verbenas, ageratum, petunias and other annuals that require quite a long season of growth before they begin to bloom. Petunias especially are extremely decorative in window and porch boxes, and it is of course desirable to have them begin to make a showing as soon as possible after they are set out.
