Weather Affects Human System

There Is A Definite Relationship Between Disease Epidemics And Weather Changes.

The direct effect of weather in producing diseases in man is usually obscured by a variety of factors which are blamed for being the original cause of the disorders. Prof. Bernhard de Rudder, of Frankfurt, reported to the convention of the Society of Natural Scientists and Personal Physicians in Berlin.

The direct effects range from the well known weather pains to the seasonal incidence of a variety of epidemic diseases and the geographical distribution of physical disorders.

Individuals Affected Differently

A particular weather change can produce a variety of effects in a group of individuals. The most generalized effect, he said, is found in the sympathetic nervous system. How the individual reacts depends on his individual condition. The factor in the weather that seems to be responsible is the change in the vapor content of the air.

Sergeant Hugh Williams, of Saskatoon, will be in charge of the party of four R.C.M.P. officers, selected to be personal orderlies to the King when His Majesty visits Canada this May. Butter Prices Will Increase

Rise Is Expected Before May 1

Huge Surplus Of The Product At Present Time.

Belief that the matter of the depressed price of butter in Eastern Ontario will be corrected by May 1, is expressed by Allan C. Fraser, secretary and manager of the National Dairy Council of Canada.

"The situation created by surplus butter at the present time is difficult. Surplus butter over-hanging the market is held very largely by speculators, but it is expected that in the ordinary course of events, the butter will move out before May 1, and the situation will assume its normal course.

Would Prevent Repetition

"The dairy industry is endeavoring to develop an advisory committee which would operate in co-operation with Federal Government authorities to prevent as far as possible a repetition of what has occurred this year. The industry feels that the dissemination of facts with proper evidence on the unbalanced conditions which arise from time to time, is probably all that is needed to prevent the recurring butter surpluses.

PETER INTERPRETS CHRIST'S SUFFERINGS AND DEATH

1 Peter 1:17-23; 2:20-25

Golden Text—Christ also suffered for sins once, the righteous for the unrighteousness, that he might bring us to God. 1 Pet. 3:18.

17. And if ye call on him as Father. Of course this has reference to prayer, and to prayer as engaged in by Christians. Who without respect of persons. "To be partial" to one or another. Judgment according to each man's work. The Father will judge our work not according to our great achievements, nor according to results as the world estimates results, but according to our faithfulness in the task he assigns us in proportion to the ability which he has given us. Pass the time of your sojourning. In fear. While "Father" expresses love, we should remember that we are not only to love God, but to fear God, as the Lord Jesus Christ taught (Luke 12:5); and both can certainly exist in this life in the same heart when speaking of our relationship to God.

Our Redemption

18. Knowing that ye were redeemed. The primary meaning of the term "redeemed" is to deliver from slavery, or captivity under the power of enemies, by the payment of a ransom. The two ideas of ransom and sacrifice pass into each other. What was effected by the ancient sacrifice was the removal of a threatening captivity. A man was considered a captive or prisoner to a divine retribution if this was not rendered. In the death of Christ his blood is thus a ransom, and the atonement accomplished by him is a redemption. Not with corruptible things, with silver or gold. From your vain manner of life handed down from your fathers. The apostle Peter is probably referring to the emptiness of the life of pagan people in the Roman world, before they were redeemed by the Lord Jesus Christ.

19. But with precious blood, as of a lamb, without blemish and spot, even the blood of Christ in the Scriptures it is always the blood that makes atonement for the soul, because the blood represents life, and in sacrifice blood implies life given up, life sacrificed, in other words, death.

The blood of Christ is worth an infinite price, first of all, because it is sinless blood, the only sinless blood this world has ever known.

20. Who was foreknown indeed before the foundation of the world. Nothing that God undertakes is the result of some sudden decision on his part; he knows all things from the beginning, and he knows from the beginning what he is going to do throughout all the ages.

21. Who through him are believers in God, that raised him from the dead, and gave him glory; so that your faith and hope might be in God.

Love For One Another

22. Seeing ye have purified your souls in your obedience to the truth. The instrument by which this work of purification is to be accomplished is found in "obedience to the truth," the truth standing here for the sum and substance of the revelation of God in Christ. Unto unfeigned love of the brethren, love one another from the heart fervently. So often on people who are supposedly holy in life seem to be aloof from common humanity, to be cold and indifferent to life about them, in such a way that no one is ever conscious of any love in their hearts. How important real love is in winning others to the Lord!

23. Having been begotten again, not of corruptible seed, but of incorruptible, through the word of God, which liveth and abideth. As the first creation was through him, so is the new creation.

24. For what glory is it, if, when ye sin, and are buffeted for it, ye shall take it patiently, this is acceptable with God. Any one who does evil should expect to be punished for it, and in patiently bearing such punishment there is absolutely nothing to be proud of, nothing in which one might glory.

Follow Christ's Steps

21. For hereunto were ye called: because Christ also suffered for you, leaving you an example, that ye should follow his steps: 22. who did no sin, neither was guile found in his mouth: 23. who, when he was reviled, reviled not again; when he suffered, threatened not; but committed himself to him that judgeth righteously. The particular experiences to which the apostle Peter here refers are those which our Lord suf-

King Maps Out Route Of Canadian Trip

While making a visit to Earl's Court exhibition hall in London, it was only natural that the King should evince great interest in a huge map of Canada on display there. Here he is seen with Hon. Vincent Massey, Canadian high commissioner to London, as they go over the proposed route to be taken by his majesty's entourage during his Canadian visit this summer. Mr. Massey is pointing at one of the places to be visited.

Humble Turnip Goes Highbrow

Canadian Product Is A Real Delicacy To Our Southern Neighbors — They Call It "Rutabaga"

Canadians habitually regard the turnip, even when it is offered for sale with its seal-coat of wax, as rather a despised root, says the Brockville Recorder and Times, and we have seen some people express indignation when it was presented to them at the table and wave it away with an imprecation.

But our humble turnip is a real delicacy to many of our international neighbors who prize it highly and who, apparently unable to grow it as we grow it, buy it by the carload each year. They call the turnip a "rutabaga" and some restaurants in the South feature an exotic fruit imported from a tropical climate.

Western Ontario seems to have captured the bulk of this turnip export trade, and the counties of Middlesex, Huron, Perth, Oxford, Waterloo and Wellington have been profiting from it for years. Now Bruce county is beginning to develop a similar trade with the country to the south and it is expected that from that new district alone fully 300 carloads will be shipped to the United States before the waxing season is ended.

24. Who his own self bare our sins in his body. By saying that Christ bore our sins in his body we do not mean to indicate in any way that Christ was sinful, but that he took to himself all our sins, and therefore took our place as a sinner, and bore the penalty for those sins. Upon the tree. That we, having died unto sins, might live unto righteousness. By whose stripes ye were healed.

25. For ye were going astray like sheep. But are now returned unto the Shepherd. The word "shepherd" includes all that Christ does for our souls—loving care, feeding, instruction, guidance, government. And Bishop of your souls. The word here translated "bishop" refers fundamentally to "an overseer."

AMOS 'N' ANDY

In moving from NBC to Columbia on April 3, Amos and Andy have now been heard on every major network on this continent. They have been broadcasting for the past eleven years, undoubtedly creating a record in radio.

They must have made all these moves for the purpose of seeking new audiences, something broadcasters have to do no matter how popular they are. It is a question now of what the blackface team will do following the Columbia stint, which, after all, must end sometime.

Will they go back to Mutual and start the rounds again?

TRAVELLING PROGRAMS

The latest and most expensive hobby to be taken up by broadcasters, is that of the travelling program. So far the circuit has just included Hollywood and New York, with occasional Chicago stop-overs. Rudy Vallee, prime radio originator, was one of the first to start shuttling back and forth. The latest travellers were Charlie McCarthy and his Chase and Sanborn company, who have just spent two weeks in New York and will return to their home studios in Hollywood on Sunday, March 26. This trip is their first venture. Bob Benchley will move his show to Hollywood on April 3. Lawrence Tibbett spent the winter commuting back and forth to appear on the "Circle" in Hollywood and at the same time had to keep his scheduled appointments with the Met. In New York, Rudy Vallee is back in Hollywood for eight weeks. Jack Benny has been back and forth this year, as has Fred Allen. "Tune Up Time"

Modern Etiquette

By ROBERTA LEE

- 1.—Is it permissible for a guest to use his own fork or spoon to help himself from some dish?
- 2.—Should a girl of sixteen offer her seat in a street car or bus to a man of fifty who is standing?
- 3.—Should one ask permission of the one referred to, when furnishing a reference?
- 4.—When a young man has been introduced to a girl, would it be all right for him to say, "I am pleased to meet you"?
- 5.—When a single man is invited for dinner to the home of married friends, should he take the hostess a box of candies or flowers?
- 6.—Is it all right to use sealing wax on the envelope of a social or a business letter?

ANSWERS

No. If the dish does not contain a fork or spoon, it is an indication that whatever is on it is to be taken with the fingers. It is rather grotesque to see a guest trying to spear a stalk of celery with a fork, or dish out potato chips with a spoon. 2. It is not necessary, unless the man seems feeble or ill, or is carrying a baby. 3. Yes; one should always ask for permission of the individual whose name is given as reference. 4. No. Such phrases as "I am pleased to meet you" and "I am glad to make your acquaintance" are not in good taste. The accepted acknowledgment is "How do you do?" 5. This is a thoughtful thing to do, particularly if the man is not in a position to return the invitation. 6. It is all right to use it on a social letter, but not on a business letter.

Broom Corn Found A Profitable Crop

Added to the already great activity in tobacco growing in the Strathroy (Ont.) district, local farmers have, during the last few weeks, been contracting for the growing of broom corn, a product that is entirely new for that area. It is claimed that the district is ideal for the growing of broom corn, which in other districts has produced crops ranging from $50 to $75 per acre and in some cases reaching the $100 mark. The growers are guaranteed at least $35 per acre for the poorest of crops.

ONLY a pitiful remnant of the once glorious ranks of sea-otters is left today. The coastline of the west, from California to Kamchatka, was the home of millions of these animals, but their fur was too beautiful. In 1785 a sea-otter fur sold for seven dollars. Today, when they can be had at all, they command prices of several thousand dollars apiece.
