Completing the Picture of a GOLDEN WEDDING

Mrs. Allen Quickfall, of Bridgeport, Ont., had just arranged a huge bouquet of Chrysanthemums, their Golden Wedding Remembrance from assembled children and grandchildren, when the telephone rang. It was a call from Kinderley, Sask., and the voice of Roy, her son, greeted her. What a surprise on such a day! Mrs. Quickfall writes: "We like to pass on to other sons and mothers the value and satisfaction to be obtained through the medium of telephone contacts, particularly so when the dear ones are scattered over the country."

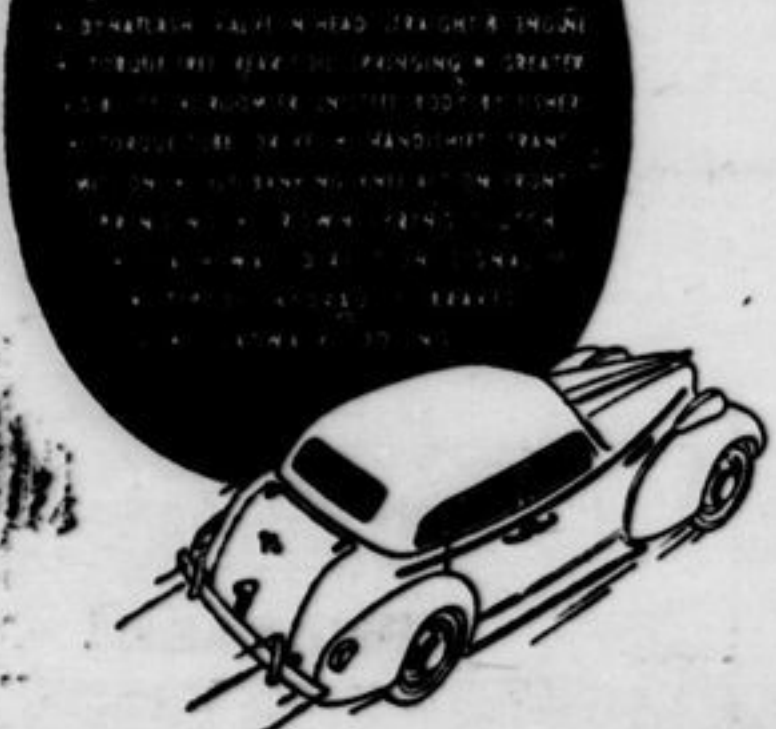

Why wait for a Golden Wedding? Next time there is a family celebration call up by Long Distance. Make it a real surprise. And remember this, it costs so little, you too, will be surprised!

The Durham Review
 P. RAMAGE, Editor and Proprietor

DURHAM COUNCIL SHOULD MAKE A START

In the Review of Feb. 23rd last, was published an article, telling how the town of Russell, Massachusetts, had planted a municipal forest, which will enable the citizens of that town to live tax free in a few years. It was begun 15 years ago, with less than 100 acres, and an appropriation of $100.00. Over 1,800 American towns now own forests, which prove a source of substantial annual income.

Ontario towns are we note planning along similar lines. Orangeville's reeve plans to plant 50 acres of municipal land in forests, and Mt. Forest has started a small nursery plot. If Durham Council were to secure government trees, and make a start on any waste land in its domains, it would cost nothing beyond initial planting, and in coming years, yield liberal returns.

MOVIE STARS DRAW EXORBITANT SALARIES

Truly, one half of the world does not know how the other half lives. Can the Hollywood movie stars, with incomes in hundreds of thousands, realize the plight of the millions of unemployed, and on relief in the States and in Canada?

The U. S. treasury has published 1937 salaries and bonuses over $15,000 paid by U. S. corporations, and they reveal that of the 20 highest, 15 went to actors and actresses and motion picture executives. Topping the list was Mr. L. B. Mayer of Loews and Metro-Goldwyn—Mayor, with $1,296,503 for his year's work. Fredric March drew $484,667; Greta Garbo $472,499; Marlene Dietrich, $370,000; Claudette Colbert $355,555; Joan Crawford $351,538; Carole Lombard $314,000; Wm. Powell $289,443; Clark Gable $289,000. Many other screen stars drew salaries in the $200,000 and over $100,000 class.

With such salaries in moviedom, far exceeding what can be earned in any other calling, it is small wonder there are so many movie aspirants, and small wonder there are increasing numbers of "reds" on this continent.

It may be had taste to talk about the weather, but some of our city dailies certainly excel in that regard. A bit of a snow storm can be stretched, with some repetition, to columns of text.

When will the world be happy? In the opinion of Major Vernon Bartlett, Independent member of the British House of Commons, "We shall not be able to enjoy ourselves until Franco's widow tells Stalin on his death-bed that Hitler has been assassinated at Mussolini's funeral." It sounds almost too much to hope for.

BADLY NEEDED
 (Chatham News)

Dr. Thomas Mann predicts that Germany eventually will accept the democratic system of government. At the moment, we cannot think of any other country more in need of it.

ANOTHER PUBLISHER PASSES

To the large number of editors who have passed on in recent years is added Fred B. Elliott of Alliston, editor and publisher of the Alliston Herald the last 28 years, who died Sunday in his 65th year.

Deceased had apparently been in good health. Rising early in the morning to look after the furnace he complained of not feeling well and returned to bed. Mrs. Elliott called a doctor, but Mr. Elliott was beyond help.

The veteran editor was a life member of the board of Stevenson Memorial hospital, president of the board of Alliston Agricultural society, member of the governing bodies of Wesley United Church, charter member and officer of Alliston Lions Club, and active in Masonic and Conservative circles.

NO WARTON HALF-HOLIDAYS IN SUMMER MONTHS

Warton merchants have agreed to close their stores every Wednesday afternoon at 12.30, throughout the year, except during the summer months of July and August. They will be open all week days except public holidays to corral all the tourist trade possible.

Another Horse Fair Thursday, April 20th

Mayor Bell has arranged to hold a second horse fair in Durham, Thursday, April 20th, when outside buyers are to be present. Last month's fair was hard hit when it fell on a stormy day, and very few horses were brought in. It is hoped farmers with animals to sell, or wishing to buy, will be in early, and with fair weather, the venture should be a real success.

THE ROLL CALL

A highly esteemed resident of Bentinck township, where her whole life had been spent, died in Dornoch on Saturday in the person of Mrs. James Walsh. The deceased who was in her 78th year, had been ill for the past six months from a general break down and her passing was not unexpected.

KNOX CORNERS

Our pastor had a good Easter message on Sunday on "The Resurrection, A New Life." The disciples were disappointed when Jesus was crucified, and not expecting His resurrection had gone back to their several tasks, and great was their rejoicing when He appeared to them again. Surely we should rejoice too in a living Saviour. For without the Resurrection, Jesus' death would have been in vain. The Jews tried to dispute the Resurrection, but in vain for even those who do not follow Jesus know that it is a fact.

If we doubt it how can we explain such things as the wonderful conversion of Saul of Tarsus and Multitudes more? May we know Him as a living, personal Saviour. Mr. Kaye had an Easter story from the Bible for the boys and girls. There was a very good attendance both of the congregation and the choir.

She was given two livingroom chairs, a fern stand and a beautiful table. Misses Irene Petty, Susie Marshall, Mrs. R. J. Marshall and Mrs. C. McAllister made the presentation. The bride made a fitting reply, thanking everyone, after which all sang "For she's a jolly good fellow." At the close, an abundant lunch was served.

(intended for last week)

Our pastor took for his subject on Sunday, "Pilate's conflict and guilt." Pilate knew that Jesus was innocent and wanted to set Him free but the people were determined that he should be crucified and fearing he might lose his high position and to please the people he gave Jesus up to be crucified. As we condemn Pilate, let us examine ourselves. Are we willing to follow our convictions of what we know we should do or are we afraid of people's opinion, willing to praise them rather than to stand up for Jesus? Jesus had to die a sacrifice for sin, but God's word says woe unto them by whom offences come and Pilate lost all that was worthwhile by his lack of moral courage. May we take warning by the sad story of his failure. It was a good message and worthy of a larger attendance. Mr. Kaye had a talk for the boys and girls from the Bible story of Moses being hidden by the waterside.
