

Excursions To See Majesties

C. N. Railway Makes Provision For Visits to Points Where the King and Queen Will Stop Off—

With indications that the visit of the King and Queen will bring about one of the largest mass travel movements in the history of the Dominion, extensive preparations are being made by the Canadian National Railways to handle the vast throng of travellers who will want to see Their Majesties when visiting Kingston, Toronto, Sudbury, Guelph, Kitchener, Stratford, Windsor, London, Ingersoll, Woodstock, Brantford, Hamilton, St. Catharines and Niagara Falls, during their tour across the Dominion. A huge network of special low excursions have been arranged.

Converge on Large Cities.
During the visit of Their Majesties in Toronto on May 22, it is expected that an unprecedented number of visitors will reach the city, and to accommodate these travellers, coach excursions will be operated over Canadian National lines from stations Port Arthur, Armstrong, Windsor, Sarnia, Niagara Falls, Ont., and east and including Hawkesbury, Glen Robertson, Balgownie, Goodwin and all intermediate stations, going May 21, 22 and 23, valid to return up to May 23.

For the visit to Guelph, Kitchener, Stratford and Windsor, on June 6, excursion tickets will be good from stations Toronto, Niagara Falls, Ont., Fort Erie and west to and including Windsor, Sarnia, Goderich, Kincardine, Southampton, Warton, Owen Sound, Durham and all intermediate points and branches, good going June 5 and 6, valid to return up to June 6.

Cars Are Called A Safety Valve

Play Big Part in Spending Of Man's Leisure Time — "May Yet Save Civilization."

The automobile is the safety valve which may save present-day civilization, said Dr. J. F. Thompson, D.D., retired high school principal, at a meeting of the Kent Motor Club at Blenheim last week. Civilizations have perished in the past because they restricted man's movements and tied him down to one place too much. All men long for individual freedom and are liable to tire of being held to one job and one place. The result, Dr. Thompson said, is that the citizens will conclude such a civilization is not worth defending.

Diversity in Travel
"That is the reason civilizations have perished in the past and it is the reason our civilization may perish in the future," the former teacher warned.

Man's individual freedom, he said, depends upon the number of his leisure hours and it is here that the auto plays its part. It is this invention which makes it possible for persons to find the diversity they require by travel.

Sunday School Lesson

LESSON VIII
Beverage Alcohol and the Home
(A Social Aspect of the Liquor Problem)

Jeremiah 35:5-10; Ephesians 5:15-21; 6:1-4
Golden Text — "Drink no wine nor strong drink, thou, nor thy sons with thee." Lev. 10:9.

The Lesson in Its Setting
Time — The prophecy of Jeremiah found in chapter thirty-five cannot be located with great exactness during the years when he prophesied, but may be put, with a fair degree of certainty, about the year 604 B.C. Paul wrote the epistle to the Ephesians in A.D. 61.

The Rechabites were a nomad tribe, not of Jewish, but of Kenite race, 1 Chron. 2:55, and connected with the Amalekites, Num. 24: 21.

5. And I set before the sons of the house of the Rechabites bowls full of wine, and cups; and I said unto them, Drink ye wine. 6. But they said, We will drink no wine; for Jonadab the son of Rechab, our father, commanded us, saying, Ye shall drink no wine, neither ye, nor your sons, forever: 7. neither shall ye build houses, nor sow seed, nor plant vineyard, nor have any; but all your days ye shall dwell in tents; that ye may live many days in the land wherein ye sojourn. 8. And we have obeyed the voice of Jonadab the son of Rechab, our father, in all that he charged us, to drink no wine all our days, we, our wives, our sons, or our daughters; 9. nor to build houses for us to dwell in; neither have we vineyard, nor field, nor seed: 10. but we have dwelt in tents, and have obeyed, and done according to all that Jonadab our father commanded us. Acting under the command of God, Jeremiah called the representative men of the Rechabites into the house of Jehovah, and offered them wine. It was done in order to give them the opportunity to refuse, and thus prepare the way for the message that men are more loyal to the commandments of men than they are to the commandments of God.

Through Evil Days
15. Look therefore, if belivers are bound to dispel the darkness from the hearts and lives of others how careful they should be not to be dark themselves, but to walk as wise men, carefully how ye walk. Not as unwise, but as wise. Wise men are those who not only know the truth, but live according to the truth. Paul is writing to Christians who have the truth, spiritual truth, moral truth, all centered in Christ, and because of which they know what is right and what is wrong, as we do.

16. Redeeming the time, because the days are evil. When days are evil, Christians themselves are in great danger of being allured into evil, and will be delivered from such temptations only as they keep near the Lord Jesus Christ, ever alert to witness for him, and transacting, with consuming earnestness the business of the King whom they adore.

17. Wherefore be ye not foolish, but understand what the will of the Lord is.

18. And be not drunken with the wine, wherein is riot, but be filled with the Spirit.

We are accustomed to oppose excessive drinking by the claims of abstinence; but here the alternative counsel is the reception of the Holy Ghost. The fundamental need of life is not a sensation, but an inspiration. It is folly to seek to spur the essential powers of life by a stimulus of the flesh.

Filled With Holy Spirit
19. Speaking one to another in psalms and hymns and spiritual songs, singing and making melody with your heart to the Lord.

20. Giving thanks for all things in the name of our Lord Jesus Christ to God, even the Father. The apostles preached in the name of the Lord Jesus; they wrought miracles in his name; believers are commanded to pray in his name; and here we are told to give thanks in his name.

21. Subjecting yourselves one to another in the fear of Christ. "The primary point in the spiritual ethics of the gospel is humility. Self is dethroned as against God, and consequently as against men.

An ideal Christian home, Eph. 6:1-4. 1. Children, obey your parents in the Lord; for this is right. 2. Honour thy father and mother, (which is the first commandment with promise). 3. that it may be well with thee, and thou mayest live long on the earth.

4. And, ye fathers, provoke not your children to wrath. A parent

Governor Leverett, Saltonstall, of Massachusetts, can't make up his mind. A woman in Santiago, Chile, wrote him: "I saw your picture in a newspaper. You look like my father who died years ago. As I have no picture of him, will you please send me one of yours."

had better sow seeds in a field from which he expects to derive food for himself and family, than by his own ill conduct nurture evil in the heart of his child. But nurture them. In the chastening. The word here translated "chastening" refers to the whole training and education of children. And admonition of the Lord. This last word means generally training by word, and in actual use, mostly, by word of reproof, remonstrance, or blame. Here is a brief but priceless word for the parent's heart. It lays a fresh stress upon his responsibilities in the guidance and the fore-warning of his child; but that the spirit of self must be banished from the work. If it is to be done indeed.

Books And You

BY PAUL HAMILTON

PRIZE CANADIAN NOVEL

Announcement that Gwethalyn Graham has been awarded the Governor-General's award for the best Canadian fiction of 1938 makes timely a brief notice of her book, Swiss Sonata (Published by Thos. Nelson & Sons $2.50). Published last year, it won immediate recognition and a second printing is now selling in England where three times more copies have been sold than were sold in Canada.

A first novel begun when the author was 21 and finished when she was 22, Swiss Sonata is a book of exceptional maturity and depth. In England critics hailed it in most laudatory terms. The story is slight and not overburdened with plot. What gives it impact and interest is sharp insight into character and broad understanding of humanity. Placed in a girl's school overlooking Lake Geneva, it tells what happens during three eventful days in this tiny, remote community where the conflicts which mar Europe and the outer world are reflected among girls at school.

A book for thoughtful people, it is not one to be read hastily and set aside. Nor is the reader likely to forget it. It has faults, but the most critical reader will agree, from the first page on, that Miss Graham is a born story teller with exceptional ability for making real the trivia which afflict the mind of youth, and for sustaining suspense in schoolgirl and schoolmistress conflicts. Rich in material (a more seasoned novelist would have written three novels, two or more short stories and perhaps a play with the same material) its greatest merit is the conversation. Rich, brilliantly entertaining, the conversation of some of the characters has a hard, bright, underlying quality of gaiety which perhaps not everyone fully appreciates.

Vicky Morrison is a character you could wish to know, and that wish is a tribute to the success of the author's efforts. The breadth of Vicky's humanity, as portrayed here, shows that Miss Graham has what Arnold Bennett described as the essential qualifications of the great novelist, "A Christlike and all-embracing compassion."

ONTARIO SCORES AGAIN!

Competitive rifle shooting is without doubt one of the most popular sports enjoyed by Ontario sportsmen, both young and old. Almost every village, town and city in the province boasts its group of marksmen who are continually participating in one contest or another. But it's when national shooting competitions are held that proof presents itself of how this sport is enjoyed and practiced by the average Ontario citizen.

The most recent national shooting tournament to furnish such proof is the recently completed first round of the 1939 Dominion Marksmen Junior Small Bore Rifle League annual competition. Of the 169 five-man teams, representing 845 shooters from all over Canada, competing in the competition, 81 teams or 405 shooters were Ontario marksmen representing all sections of the province. Think of it, almost half the entries in this nation-wide shooting tournament were Ontario shooters!

Brockville Best Shooters
And there are many expert marksmen among these, as shown in the final scores posted. Sharpshooters of the No. 1 rifle team of Brockville Collegiate Institute and Vocational School posted second high score among the 169 entries to fall slightly behind the high scorers, the crack No. 1 Team of the Saint John, N.B., Vocational School. The Ontario team scored 1485 out of 1500 points while the Maritimers posted a score of 1491 out of 1500.

The Brockville shooters also became the new holders of the Ontario provincial shooting championship when last year's finalists, the Peterboro Collegiate and Vocational School, failed to compete. The Brockville boys had to shoot it out with 80 other teams from all parts of Ontario and the five-man team certainly outshot their 400 rival marksmen. Second place went to the No. 1 Team of the Sarnia Collegiate Cadet Corps who scored 1464 out of 1500 pts.

Place 100,000 Trout In Saugeen River

Saugeen River, below Paisley, has been restocked for the season.

More than 100,000 brown trout have been placed in the stream, which has become a favorite with fishermen in Western Ontario. Coming of milder weather has revived what is a big "industry" in the spring. Sucker fishing goes on day and night in the Penetanguishua River, and its tributaries, in the district. Catches of suckers and mullets are reported as good. Fishermen report netting more than 100 fish in the course of a few hours.
