Sweet-Scented Jams, Jellies

Unusual Exhibition Features Rose And Violet Petal Conserves-Common In Middle Ages.

Much that is new to women of this continent was displayed in a herb demonstration arranged by the New York unit of the Herb Society of America. Among the exhibits were savory jelly, wonderful with veal; thyme jelly, to enrich the flavor of poultry; and sage jelly for duckling. There were jel-Hes made from flowers that scent the English gardens; rose petal and violet petal jellies; the petals thick in the jam. .

In the Middle Ages violets were a regular item on the menu, and stewed roses was a dish every hostess knew.

Herb vinegars were shown. Such are always highly concentrated and should be blended, a few drops at a time, with the other ingredients of a salad dressing. Each has its own distinct flavor-basil, elder, eachalot, garlic, tarragon, raspber-

This gay young lady who has recent-ly completed personal appearance tours in New York and Cleveland, where she charmed audiences with her magnificent voice, is now on her way back to California. Judy Garland will soon be seen as Dorothy in Metro-Goldwyn-Mayer's production "The Wizard of Oz."

Fashion Flashes

A full-length wine skirt developed from a wide rib-hugging waistband with a wine and white check skirt; topheavy outfits consisting of abbreviated shorts and full cut long-sleeved shirts; printed jersey dirndl frocks or plain jersey tailored coats both over matching swim suits, and slacks suits with alternate skirts were highlights of a recent dress show.

Accent on shoulders is a highlight of the first high-grade cashmere sweater lines arriving in London from Scottish mills. The majority seen so far are either padded or fully gathered. One house buttons wide knitted silklined matching belts over the ribbed welts of classic pull-overs, emphasizing a sleek hipline.

Sheers of every description in mousselines, chiffons, nets, laces, cottons and silky jerseys and for day as well as for evening . . . "stiff," but not starchy mousselines in line with the feeling for more flow in evening skirt full-

Tropical weight worsted dresses with matching fitted jackets are prominent at London dressmaking houses specializing in tailored glothes. Neutral mannish mixtures and black and white and also navy and white Glen checks are reported leaders for ensembles of this type.

Joan Crawford wore a large Breton sailor in black felt with brilliant purple and red anemoaes posed over forehead and under chin on her recent visit to New Lace a-plenty is seen for summer newest in 1900 band insertions in all-overs . . . a revival of silk laces and combined with satin. very English-looking . . . heavy aces, Irish crochet and linen lace dso 1900's.

Smart guests at a recent fashonable wedding wore pink acents with dark costumes.

Moires are used a great deal for wo-piece suits with unlined jac-

Suits of the bona fide jacket and skirt type ride through into ate spring and summer with linrerie blouses . . . There hasn't seen more interest in the silk suit or years. Linen suitings promise vell too.

Schiaparelli accents rough traws in new color combinations neluding pinky beige or white straw with brown wide ribbon rimmings; white with canary yellow; and also navy with deep vio-

Quality You'll Enjoy

CHAPTER XVI Mr. and Mrs. Sunny Tucker were entertaining at Sunday dinner in their new house in Douglaston.

"Fancy," Mignon sighed, "an old married couple of one year! You'ye borne up wonderfully, Sunny, what with acquiring a wife, a son, and fame and fortune all in twelve short months!"

Jed grinned broadly. "Dog my cats, if he hasn't now! Still smilin', too." Moleen, bending over the crib of Jed Patrick Tucker, clapped her hands. "He-smiled, Daddy! Truly be Sunny hurried to the crib. "No foolin'? I think you imag ined it. Do they smile when they're only three weeks old?"

A New Son "Let's let the godmother decide this momentous question." Mignon joined the parents. "I'm a better judge, maybe," Jed drawled drily, "with nine brothers and sisters."

He stroked his chin. Young Jed made another grimace. "See! I told you," Moleen said

"I hate to disillusion you," Jed grinned, "but it looks like a little touch of colic to me."

"Shame on you," Mignon laughed. "Have you no imagination?" Moleen sighed happily.

"Wouldn't it be wonderful," she put her arms around her beaming husband, "if every year of our lives could be like this one!" "And why can't it be?" Mignon picked up the baby's hand and kissed it. "Of course, the excitement of being the most sought after band maestro in the country is bound to wear off some day." Looking Back

"We've got to realize, sooner or later," Jed broke in, "that another dog will have our day. But I'm not letting that worry me now."

"You shouldn't." Moleen smiled, "Starring in a Broadway showtwo hit pictures this year. No matter who comes along, the old-timers will always look back and remember when Jed Patrick was the Gentleman Hillbilly on Broadway and Sunny Tucker's the greatest swing band in the country."

Sunny bent over, his hand on his

"Yes, by cracky, them was the good old days!" "It-all happened so suddenly," Molly smiled dreamily. "Everything -was so strange-as if it were all a pattern that had to be worked

RIO DE

JANEIRO

IS NEARER TO

BOSTON

NEW YORK.

THAN TO

THIS CURIOUS WORLD By William Ferguson

The MOST BEAUTIFUL BIRDS

OF THE WORLD HAVE HARSH,

UGLY VOICES!

THE LARGER WHALES,

MORE THAN 100 POUNDS IN WEIGHT

EVERY DAY.

ALTHOUGH there are some exceptions to the rule, beautiful birds seldom have beautiful songs. This, of course, is only reasonable, since gayly colored birds would be made more conspicuous by song. Most of the world's most brilliantly colored birds content

NEXT: How Far Does the Moon Travel in a Trip Around the Earth.

IN THE PRIME OF LIFE, INCREASE

themselves with a few raucous notes.

out. I ran into Jed's arms in a doorway in a storm, Mignon picked me up in Central Park when I was ill. We took Jed out to meet Sunny and Minnie made him ask Jed to sing."

There was no mention of Charlie Farro, although for a few seconds a small cloud came between them. Molly said suddenly, "Jed, come out and let me show you the garden. I--- I want to talk to you." He looked down at her, surpris-

"Dirty work afoot," Sunny grinned after them.

"Shush." Mignon picked up the baby. "Now I have a chance to hold the infant. Don't you tell Molly." Help yourself," Sunny offered proudly. "I don't imagine he'll break."

Jed Gets A Hint Watching her, Sunny's face sob-

"Minnie," he looked down at the lovely blonde girl with the baby in her arms, "you ought to have a

"I-I'd love to, Sunny," she sighed softly, "But I guess I never Sunny walked over to the window. Molly and Jed were sitting on a bench among the roses. Jed grinned affectionately. "Well, what have I done now,

"It-isn't what you've done, Jed," Molly looked away, "it's what you haven't done."

Molly?"

"Well, now suppose you tell me what it is, and maybe I'll do something about it."

What Moleen had to say wasn't so easy. If Jed really weren't in love with Minnie, it would be embarrassing. Suddenly she plunged. "Tell me, Jed," she put her small hand over his, "do you care for Mignon?" Jed was taken completely by surprise. He dropped his head. "I-what good would it do me if I did love her?" His voice sounded

"That's not answering me," Molly said firmly. "Do you or don't Jed looked up. Moleen was shocked at the pain in his eyes. "As long as I live," he said miserably, "there'll never be any one for me but Mignon."

"Then," Molly flared at him, "why in the name of goodness don't you tell her so! You idiot!"

Jed shook his head. "I've wanted to-a hundred times. But what would she want with a hillbilly like me?"

Seawy for YOU The Secrets

In The Garden "No-foolin'? Do you really think she'd have me? That the district attorney would give his consent?"

"Tom Laine would be tickled to death to have you for a son-inlaw, you big silly." Moleen gave him a little shove. "He told me so. I'm going to send Mignon down here and if she doesn't come back engaged, you can just go home without your dinner."

tention is being focussed more on Mignon was putting little Jed back in his crib when Moleen walkshades of stockings often create a ed in the door.

searched her eyes. "Mommy! What have you been up to, holding hands with that man in the garden?" Molly led him to the window. "You'll see." She hugged he

Down in the garden Mignon walked into Jed's waiting arms.

Feminine Hearts,

Young Dr. Kildare Is Irresistible

"Calling

Begins . . The Inside Story of a Young Medico Fighting to Keep His Place on the Hospital Staff, Forgetting All About His Sweetheart

Polka Dancers Oust Jitterbugs

Jitterbug jumpers are giving place to polka dancers, say the dancing teachers-who think it's about time.

"There isn't much jitterbug dancing being done on public floors anymore," said Pearl Allen of Culver, president of the Chicago National Association of Dancing Masters.

Allen said the polka was gaining in popularity because it's not strenuous. He described it as a mixture of folk song, fox trot and castle walk.

Murder Among Friends

"Women who possess natural Elvin Wood (Illinois) killed his red hair are not anxious to part friend, Abner Nelson. He was arwith it at any price-or their husrested, and prosecuting counsel bands will not permit them to cut was Mr. S. J. Holderman, who, twenty years before had acted in a school play in which he accused or different shades showed a crim-Wood of murder. Judge of the Court was Justice F. H. Hayes, an old friend of the murdered man, the murderer and the presecutor. Wood pleaded guilty.

Commemorate the Royal Visit In Needlework

Auburn Tresses

It's Best To Be A Red-head

up Expert Claims.

redhead.

ounce.

reflect.

it off," he said.

When It's A Question Of

Cold Cash, Hollywood Make-

From a fiction standpoint, the choice may lie between blondes and brunettes, but when it comes

Perc Westmore, a make-up auto cold cash, it's better to be thority, disclosed today that he paid $1,920 for 24 ounces of natural red hair to fashion a wig for Bette Davis-which is $80 an

He said tests of dyed red hair son reflection on Miss Davis' features under white technicolor lighting. Only natural red failed to Pay Dividends

PATTERN 2248

Needle art has always played an important role in commemorating colorful events in the world. Now, with King George VI and Queen Elizabeth in Canada on their first visit, needlewomen will want to do some simple embroidery to mark this occasion. In Pattern 2248 are portraits of their Majesties with the Coat of Arms of Canada, to be embroidered in simplest stitches. Frame them as a picture or use them to decorate a pillow top. Souvenir tea cloths and scarfs are appropriate and delightful needlework when decorated with the rose, thistle and maple Pattern 2248 contains a transfer pattern of 1 large motif 121/4 x 111/4 inches; 10 motifs ranging from 7 x 51/4 inches to 41/4 x 35/8 inches; illustrations of stitches; materials required; color chemes. Price of pattern 20 cents. Write Wilson Needlecraft Dept., 73 West Adelaide St., Toronto.

Moleen sighed. "You crazy man! Do you want her to die with a broken heart? Can't you see she has gone around for a year with her heart on her sleeve, walting for you to see it. Oh, Jed, you're such a fool."

Jed looked incredulous.

"Caught," Snnny smiled guiltily. "But I told her I didn't think she'd damage him just this once." "Aunt Minnie may hold him all she likes." Moleen reached up and kissed the surprised Miss Laine. "Jed would like to see you in the garden, honey." Mignon hurried out. Sunny tilted his lovely wife's chin and spouse rapturously.

THE END.

Beware!

NEXT WEEK

Dr. Kildare" By GERTRUDE GELBIN system. Complete leg treatments (slimming and fattening) may be obtained, as well as leaflets on Face, Eyes, Hands, Bust, Feet, Slimming, Underweight, Superfluous Hair, Reducing in Spots, by sending 3c stamp for each. Please write direct to: Miss Bar-

Good Looks arbara Lynn

HAVE YOU SHAPELY LEGS?

calves and ankles.

plumper effect.

Shorter skirts are here, and at-

FOR THIN LEGS. Lighter

Massage will help. Use gentle stroking movements, working from the instep to the ankle, and from ankle to the knee. A good fattening mixture is made with 3 parts of olive oil to one of lanolin. Put the lanolin in a jar and stand in very hot water until it melts, then slowly add the olive oil, beating all the time. Apply it generously to the legs, massaging as described above. Keep the jar handy for future use and heat before using.

fat legs, massage as follows: Cover legs and ankles with a good lather of palmolive soap. Massage well in, then rinse dry, cross the legs and dust talcum heavily on the upper leg. Next pinch firmly between fingers and thumb, using quick vigorous movements.

this, take the ankle between both hands, and wring it mercilessly, twisting one hand to the right and the other to the left. Repeat with Whilst undergoing these leg treatments, take a dash of Kkovah health salts in a glass of water every morning, to tone up your bara Lynn, 73 West Adelaide St.,

Room 421, Toronto, Ont.

the other leg.

After at least ten minutes of

FOR FAT LEGS. To reduce

Jacket Dresses

Coat Can Be Removed, Should Have Long Sleeves

NEW YORK .- Two-piece jacket dresses are the most practical choice on a normal day of fair sight-seeing. It's a little better if the jacket has long sleeves, too. For you know how undessed you feel in bare arms when a wind enough enroute and for dining, yet they are practical since the jacket can be removed. If it's cool, or you're staying out for dinner, remember how unpredictable our weather is and take a wrap crash, because they are so cool and non-crushable.

Here is a clean, stainless antiseptic oil now dispensed by chemists at trifling cost, that will do more to help you get rid of your trouble than anything you've ever used.

Its action is so powerfully penetrating that the itching is instantly stopped; and

Household Science

By SADIE B. CHAMBERS

DELICIOUS CANADIAN DISHES What could be more patriotic than a loyalty to Maple syrup on your bill of fare? Nothing will bring more loyalty to the cook and adherence to the slogan "Just like Motrer Made." Three recipes follow one for pancakes; one for waffles for those who are fortunate enough to have an electric waffle iron, and thirdly a simple maple syrup dessert. PANCAKE RECIPE 2 cups sifted pastry flour or 1½ cups pastry flour and

1/2 cup whole wheat flour 3 teaspoons baking powder 1/2 teaspoon salt 2 eggs

1% cups milk

34 cup melted butter Measure flour and sift with baking powder and salt. If whole wheat flour is used, toss in after sifting the white flour and baking powder. Add beaten egg, milk and melted butter. Add slowly the liquids to dry ingredients. Some eggs vary as does the flour; if batter should be thin, add more milk if necessary. Pour or drop rounds of batter on hot frying pan. When bubbles appear turn and brown on the other side. Serve piping hot with maple syrup. MAPLE SYRUP CREAM 1 1/3 cups (1 can condensed milk) 2/3 cup maple syrup 1/2 cup whipping cream

2 tablespoons granulated su-1/2 cup pecan nuts

1 pint envelope plain gelatine Boil milk and syrup in double boiler. Remove from heat and stir in gelatine, which has been soaked in 14 cup cold water. Beat with egg beater a few rounds to insure smoothness, then pour into wet moulds. Chill. Unmold and serve with the whipped cream, with sugar added sprinkled with the nuts. Serves six. WAFFLES

11/2 cups sifted flour, 1/4 cup whole wheat flour or 2 cups pastry flour 3 teaspoons baking powder 16 teaspoon salt

3 egg yolks 3 egg whites beaten stiff 2 cup cream

1/2 cup milk 4 tablespoons melted butter Sift flour, baking powder and salt. If using whole wheat too, toss in after sifting other dry ingredients. Then add well beaten egg yolks, milk and cream, and lastly, the melted butter. Drop and cook on electric waffle iron in the usual way. Serve with plain maple syrup or a thinly whipped cream with shaved maple sugar added. Waffles are not synonymous with breakfast any more for they can be dressed up with a varied wardrobe, making them a well

Your Household Problems

evening as well as breakfast.

behaved addition for luncheon or

Have you fussy eaters in your family? Do you have trouble providing a varied and interesting menu? Do your cakes fall? Then write, enclosing a stamped, self-addressed envelope to iss Sadie B. Chambers, care this paper, and she will endeavour to solve your problems.

For Sightseeing

Choose Washable Fabrica These jacket dresses are formal

In fabrics, consider pure silk frocks, for they can be washed. Consider cotton for the same reason, and spun rayon and linen

Fiery, Itching Toes and Feet

A FLASHING

... teeth kept bright and attractive with the help of WRIGLEY'S GUM. SPEARMINT CHEWING OUM GET SOME TODAY

Accessories Are Very Important

They Form The Luxurious Part Of A Woman's Costume This Season-Choose Them Carefully.

Accessories are the really luxurious parts of the feminine costume this season. Carefully chosen, they can give a woman a most elegant appearance, even when she is wearing a simple tailored suit or a dress devoid of special decoration.

The accessories include a bag. an umbrella, a portable waterproof rain cap, a scarf with matched handkerchief, gloves, a boutonniere and fanciful jewels, and even the decorative shoes now in vogue fall into the category of accessories.

Blending Colors

One important rule is to be followed in choosing such accessories: There must always be one, two or three harmonious combinations. Thus the bag blends with the gloves and sometimes with the shoes, or there is color or tone harmony between the gloves, the scarf and the handkerchief or between earrings, brooches and clips.

SYRUP it's open! Click ::. and it's closed!

At Big Saving A smooth aluminum band snaps over the opening and cuts off rip. It is a grand ju Mail requests to the manufacturer—the addressisonevery lab

$1.00 FOR YOUR OLD IRON

Your old iron — no matter what its age, condition or make—is worth $1.00 on the purchase of a new Coleman Self-Heating Iron. Ask your dealer (any store handling hardware) for FREE TRADE-IN CERTIFICATE worth $1.00 toward the purchase of your new Coleman fron, or write The Coleman Lamp & Stove Co. Dept. WO-325 Toronto, Ontario oleman lesue No. 20 — '39 The

Palesti Syria Domini Urugua Argent Bolivia Haiti .. Union Peru .. Turkey Puerto Mexico

Dutch Siam . Salvad U.S.S.I Algeria Ecuade Jugosli Albani Chile. Tunis Japan Win

from t izer to give m

Tobacc Wasto Flesex

Tobacc

Less

2,672 Prai