THE NATIONAL WAR MEMORIAL, OTTAWA

Canada's National Memorial to the sons who participated in the Great War was unveiled by His Majesty, King George VI, on his visit to Ottawa last week. The monument, called by its designer "The Great Response" depicts in bronze, representative figures of the various services with which Canada answered the call, and the crowning figures of Peace and Freedom are both a symbol and a prayer.

"HIT AND MISS"

One admirer of Queen Elizabeth commented to the Review in amazement at the manner and agility in which she changes her costumes. Sometimes she appears in four different costumes and this admirer was wondering if by any chance she donned them all in the morning and shed them as wanted!

It would be interesting to know how often their Majesties hear the National Anthem played on this tour.

We feel the greatest thrill of their trip is ahead of them in crossing the Rocky Mountains. When the King's grand aunt, the Duchess of Argyll (still living) crossed the mountains, she viewed their grandeur from a specially constructed box enclosure in front of the cow catcher of the engine.

RURAL MAIL CARRIERS TO GET MORE HOLIDAYS

Believed to be the aftermath of a meeting held in Guelph some weeks ago, Canada's rural mail delivery carriers have been granted four more holidays a year. Postmaster-General McLarty announced last week.

Rural mail carriers from all parts of Ontario gathered for a weekend meeting in Guelph recently and at the close of their deliberations, appointed a deputation to go to Ottawa to interview the Postmaster-General on the question of more holidays during the year.

Heretofore the carriers have received only Christmas and New Year's Day as official holidays. Now they will receive Dominion Day, Good Friday and Thanksgiving Day as well.

VICKERS

A pleasant evening was enjoyed at the home of Mr and Mrs Jos. McCulloch Friday last in honor of Mr and Mrs Norman McIlraith, Durham, who are moving to Owen Sound. Mr and Mrs. McIlraith have always been a very popular young couple in our community and we join in wishing them the best of luck in their new home. Following is the address:—

Dear Friends,—

We, your friend and neighbors of this community have gathered here tonight to spend a few social hours with you.

It is with deep regret that we learned that you were removing from our midst. This community wishes for you the best of success and happiness in your new home and we would like to have you back amongst us at anytime.

We felt we could not let you go without some memento of our friendship for you both. We wish you to accept this purse as a slight token of our high esteem for you. Signed on behalf of the community:—

Harry Reay, George Turnbull
