Peoples Solid Against War

Veteran Correspondent, Just Returned From 50,000-Mile Trip Abroad, Says He Has Found It So

James A. Mills, veteran foreign correspondent of the Associated Press, reported last week as he completed a 50,000 mile trip abroad that in all parts of the world he had heard "people in the street" express "horror and dismay at the prospect of war."

Mills said that sentiment among the people against war had been particularly marked in Italy and Germany.

Marked in Germany, Italy
In discussing various trouble-spots in the world as he had seen them, Mills said that Palestine was "seething with bitter nationalism, and torn with inter-racial strife between Arabs and Jews and the British mandatory rulers."

After spending several weeks in Djibuti, one of the centres of the Italo-French controversy, Mills said the French army, navy and air force there appeared "well prepared against any attack."

Bad Meals Often Lead To Divorce

Says Mayor of Walsall, England—"Our Educational System Should Teach Young Girls to Cook"

Alderman Patrick Collins, eighty-year-old mayor of Walsall, Eng., asked a few days ago: "Where am I to find modern girls who are good cooks?"

And he said: "In my experience some of them can't cook a herring, let alone a leg of pork."

"Any sensible young man trying to find a wife looks for a good cook who can rear children properly. The trouble is that our educational system doesn't provide them."

Romance Not Enough
Alderman Collins says: "It is all very well training girls as typists and machinists, but if all they think about is titivating themselves up with lipstick and rouge and dressing up like so-called ladies, what hope is there of them cooking dinners and rearing children in the proper way?"

"It is all very nice marrying on love and romance, but bad meals lead to the divorce court."

Sole Canadian Woman In Royal Party

Only Canadian woman in the official party for the trans-Canada tour of the King and Queen is Miss Theresa Maloney, ABOVE, who is secretary to Dr. E. H. Coleman, under secretary of state and chairman of the inter-departmental committee for the royal visit.

Seven services a day are made on the dining car of the royal train while the King and Queen tour Canada.

W. W. Swinden, general superintendent of sleeping and dining car services of the Canadian National Railways, who is in charge of catering arrangements during the trip, says services consist of tea, luncheon, afternoon tea, dinner and a night collation.

LESSON IX
PAUL THINKS IN WORLD TERMS

Romans 1: 1-17; 3: 21-30; 5: 1-11; 10: 11-15.

Printed Text, Romans 1: 1-17
Golden Text: "I am not ashamed of the gospel; for it is the power of God unto salvation to every one that believeth." Rom. 1: 16.

The Lesson in Its Setting
Time — Early in A.D. 58.
Place — Paul wrote this letter to the capital of the world from the city of Corinth where he was staying in the home of a wealthy Christian named Gaius (Rom. 16: 23).

1. Paul, a servant of Jesus Christ called to be an apostle, separated unto the gospel of God, Paul was a freed-man as far as his political relation to the Roman Empire was concerned, but Paul proudly boasted that he would ask for nothing more than to be a slave of the Lord Jesus.

2. Which he promised afore and through his prophets in the holy scriptures.

3. Concerning his Son. No cult or religion on the earth to-day has any message from God for man unless it honours and exalts and recognizes as supreme in every way the Son of God. Who was born of the seed of David according to the flesh, Christ existed from eternity, but he came in a body of our flesh, in the line of David, that is, in a family that could trace its ancestry back to David (Matt. 1: 1; 2 Tim. 2: 8; Rev. 22: 16). Coming in our flesh, Christ became true man.

True Son of God
4. Who was declared to be the Son of God with power, according to the spirit of holiness, by the resurrection from the dead; even Jesus Christ our Lord Christ always was the Son of God, but in the body of flesh which he took to himself the most part refused to recognize him as the Son of God. His rising from the dead set him forth indisputably without any possibility of contradiction, as God's Son and none other.

5. Through whom we received grace and apostleship, unto obedience of faith among all the nations, for his name's sake. The design of the apostleship was to bring all nations so to believe in Christ, the Son of God, that they should be entirely devoted to his service.

6. Among whom are ye also, called to be Jesus Christ's; 7. to all that are in Rome, beloved of God, called to be saints; Grace to you and peace from God our Father and Lord Jesus Christ.

The apostle Paul now assumes a more personal tone, and addresses himself in an intimate way to the Christians who made up the holy church at Rome.

Early Christian Faith
8. First, I thank my God through Jesus Christ for you all, that your faith is proclaimed throughout the whole world. 9. For God is my witness, whom I serve in my spirit in the gospel of his Son, how unceasingly I make mention of you, always in my prayers 10. making request, if by any means now at length I may be prospered by the will of God to come unto you. 11. For I long to see you, that I may impart unto you some spiritual gift to the end ye may be established. 12. that is, that I with you may be comforted in you, each of us by the other's faith, both yours and mine. 13. And I would not have you ignorant, brethren, that oftentimes I purposed to come unto you (and was hindered hitherto), that I may have some fruit in you also, even as in the rest of the Gentiles. The Christian faith in the early days of its propagation was carried by the apostles and their disciples first to the great cities of the Roman Empire. From Rome lines of communication radiated to every place of importance in the entire known world. If a strong church could be established in this great city, the apostle knew that the very heart of the empire would be sooner or later pumping the life-blood of the gospel into the veins of the whole body of Roman civilization.

14. I am debtor both to Greeks and to Barbarians, both to the wise and to the foolish.

15. So, as much as in me is, I am ready to preach the gospel to you also that are in Rome.

A Message For Rome
16. For I am not ashamed of the gospel; for it is the power of God unto salvation to every one that believeth; to the Jew first, and also to the Greek. 17. For therein is revealed a righteousness of God from faith unto faith; as it is written, But the righteous shall live by the faith. Rome knew the power of pleasure to enslave men, but until the gospel came she never knew of a power that would set men free from sin. Rome knew the power of death which brought even the very greatest men down to a grave and

RADIO NOTES AND NEWS

500TH BROADCAST
An event happened last week which deserves to be recorded as a milestone in radio history. Rudy Vallee did the 500th broadcast of his Varieties and made a reunion of it. In this he was aided by Lionel Barrymore and two of his distinguished graduates, Edgar Bergen and Charlie McCarthy.

Vallee instituted his Varieties on October 24, 1929. The following week he introduced his first guest, the Grand Duchess Marie of Russia whom he questioned in an improvised studio located in the basement of the Paramount Theatre in Brooklyn.

Vallee also discovered Frances Langford, one of the more successful popular singers on the air. And then there was Bob Burns who first trundled his bazooka and his homely philosophy to Vallee's hour.

COMING EVENTS
Gale Page and Jim Ameche replace Charles Boyer for 13 weeks on the "Hollywood Playhouse" beginning July 2. Kathleen Norris, famous novelist, is writing the script for Phillips H. Lord's new series, "Women in Love," which begins on June 6. Marek Weber temporarily leaves the Contented Hour on May 28 for a vacation in New York and Europe. Horace Heidt's new NBC show begins on June 3.

GARDENING

(By SADIE B. CHAMBERS)

For a real glamour of health and color scheme, planning your garden with care will pay the biggest dividends in the Autumn. First see to it, that your rhubarb bed is in good condition. Spring spells more than spring bonnets, new clothes and budding trees. Whisper in the gardener's ear, that you wish to have just oodles of mint, parsley and other lovely greens. Tell him to get ready his hoe, sharpen his spade and to be most liberal in the planting of spinach, lettuce and all leafy vegetables. Do not forget, that beets and carrots are just running over with iron, calcium and phosphorous and many other things we humans are supposed to have. These roots are meant for more than just to put away in the Fall. Of course have enough to store away too, but ever keep in mind they have an important value for immediate use. If your space is limited, cut down on the potato patch a bit; potatoes will be easier to purchase. Never miss an opportunity to buy watercress on the market, or best of all, try and make at least one picnic a day searching for it. You will be amply repaid for your effort. This sprightly little product has more than a decorative quality. Its vitamin content is invaluable.

SPREAD OUT SOWINGS
Experts not only caution against too early sowing of vegetables, but they also advise not to stop too soon. There is no reason why the plantings cannot be continued in most parts of Canada right through until July. This will spread the harvesting season over an equally long period with vegetables always fresh just coming to maturity.

Beginners are advised to divide their seed into at least three parts, sowing a third as soon as weather permits, a third a little later, and the balance at the very tail-end of the planting season. In this way if frost does cut down the first batch there will be more seedlings coming on.

A GREEN OR BROWN WINDOW BOX
Such a box overflowing with the gaily blooming flowers is within the range of almost every person. Lack of ground space does not matter. Even the lofty apartment dweller is able to satisfy a gardening ambition. Success is easily obtained provided two or three points are kept in mind. This sort of gardening is highly intensive with many more plants to the square foot than would be grown under ordinary conditions. This means that very rich soil should be used and, in addition, a fairly frequent application of chemical fertilizer during the season. Being exposed on all sides to drying winds, a thorough watering once a day of the window box is advised.

IN USING FERTILIZER
Care should be taken in the use of any commercial fertilizer that it does not actually touch roots or foliage. In the dry state it is liable to burn. Authorities usually play safe and dissolve the fertilizer in water before applying.

Scholar Gangsters

A big Philadelphia school in which boy gangsters rob pupils and terrorize teachers has been placed under police protection. Whimpering pupils told how a gang of older boys demanded money as protection from torture, thefts of lunches, and branding. They told of "torture sessions" when boy gangsters punished squealers and those who failed to pay tribute to the racket. Teachers are said to have been "too frightened to do anything about it."
